Dean Says Outlook For Peace 'Is Discouraging'

Korea Situation 'By No Means Hopeless,' Special Envoy Adds

WASHINGTON (AP) — Special Ambassador Arthur H Dean told the nation Monday night outlook for peace in Korea "is discouraging but by no means hopeless."

Dean went before the nation's television and radio audiences with a prepared speech reporting on his seven weeks of fruitless negotiations for a Korean peace conference. He walked out of the talks 10 days ago in protest to a Communist charge accusing the United States of 'perfidy."

Since his return, the 55-year-old special envoy has said he is sure Korea will have peace. But in his talk tonight, he said

"I do believe the Chinese Communists are determined to keep North Korea politically and economically integrated into their own economy.

"The outlook is discouraging but by no means hopeless. There is no easy, pat solution.

"It will take all the brains, energy, resolution and patience at our command."

As to the Communist charge of perfidy, Dean said, "my government has never been guilty of perfidy and pray God it never shall."

Long Conference

Dean said the Communists at Panmunjom aimed for a long, drawn-out conference in the hope that American public opinion would lose patience and force him to settle on Communist terms.

These terms included recognition of Russia as a neutral nation at a political conference to decide the future of Korea. The United States has opposed this on the ground that Russia aided the Communists and therefore was not a neutral. However, Dean said he was sure that even if a political conference is not held, it will not mean resumption of hostilities in Korea. He said "The Communists took a terrific beating" and in North Korea are working now on civilian, rather than military, construction

"We stopped the tide and timetable of Red aggression," he said.

Dean added that, in his judgment, South Korean President Syngman Rhee will make no attempt to resume fighting in Korea on his own.

"President Rhee is an indomitable fighter for a free, United and democratic independent Korea." Dean said "Those are our objectives and of the United Nations. We admire his patriotism and courage and his fight against Communism tremendously."

Neither does he think there will be any bloodshed, Dean said, when the Jan. 22 deadline arrives for the release of all prisoners of war who have refused repatriation. If the political conference is in session Dec. 22 to Jan. 22, as proposed, it could discuss that question, Dean said.

9,361 Arraigned In Municipal Court

A total of 9,361 persons were arraigned in Municipal Court during November with 8,549 parking violators heading the list.

Disposition of the cases found 5,146 fines, 4,105 dicharges or suspensions, four sent to the county jail, three held for District Court, 18 turned over to other authorities and 85 not disposed of by the end of the month.

Violations included 142 speeders and 139 charged with intoxication.

70 Million Wheat Crop Estimated

Fall Drought Reflected In Expected Decrease

OMAHA (AP)—The Department of Agriculture in Washington, taking a long-range look at Nebraska's winter wheat crop to be harvested next year, Monday predicted total production of 70,718,000 bushels from 3,722,000 acres

That's about 19 bushels to the acre, compared with the 22½ bushels per acre for this year's crop.

The acreage planted is only 85 per cent of that planted last year.

The estimates apparently reflect the fall drought which got winter wheat off to a poor start in much of the state this fall.

Comeback Made

As usual, however, the estimates are subject to lots of change before harvest time.

Last year, a fall drought also hit the crop and the estimate last December was for a production in 1953 of 53,088,000 bushels. Instead, the crop made a spring and summer comeback and was good for 85,005,000 bushels.

The Agriculture Department also reported Monday that Nebraska farmers have planted 320,000 acres to rye this fall. That's 128 per cent of the acreage planted last year but the condition of the crop appears only 74 per cent of normal.

The 70 million bushel wheat crop forecast is just about up to the 10-year average for total production in Nebraska The average, 1942 through 1951, is 71,294,000 bushels or 19.6 per acre.

North Platte Man Latest Traffic Victim

NORTH PLATTE, Neb. (AP) — Lloyd B. Johnson, 42, Rt. 1, North Platte, was killed Monday evening when his pickup truck was in collision with another truck a mile west of North Platte.

The second truck was driven by Delbert T. Greeley, 22, North Platte.

J. G. McIntosh, county attorney acting as coroner, said Johnson was thrown from the pickup and was killed instantly. His body apparently struck a row of mail boxes which were broken off by the impact.

Johnson's death was the state's 330th traffic fatality this year. A year ago the toll this time stood at only 314.

Total U.S. Spending Cut Of $6 Billion Is Studied

Estimates Would Mean Going In Red From $1 To $3 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP)—A total federal spending cut of six billion dollars in the coming fiscal year is in the works, according to usually reliable sources who helped prepare next year's estimates

That would mean going in the red in fiscal 1955, which starts next July 1, by 1¼ to 3¼ billion dollars, according to what Congress does about taxes, and on the assumption that there is no radical change in business conditions over the next 18 months The projected deficit for the current fiscal year is 3¾ billion.

About five billions of the expected saving, the sources said, would come from national security programs. Another billion, they said, would be pared from non-defense spending. Congress will get the administration's budget estimates for fiscal 1955 in a message from President Eisenhower which probably will not be ready until sometime between Jan. 18 and 21.

It was added that the budget message would present the administration's program, in considerable details, for overhauling the federal tax system.

Any sharp downturn in business profits and personal income—not anticipated in high administration quarters—would alter the present budget estimates for fiscal 1955 because it would reduce government income and could force spending up considerably.

The projected six billion dollar spending slash would mean that, on a cash basis, the government in fiscal 1955 would have something between a balanced budget and a surplus of two billion dollars. This would depend on Congress' action on administration tax recommendations.

The "cash budget" takes social security tax collections into account as government receipts. In the standard, or "administrative" budget, social security collections are not considered receipts

Undersecretary of the Treasury Marion Folsom estimated in a speech Dec. 3 that social security receipts next year would make a difference of about 3¼ billion dollars between the administrative and cash budgets.

LA Police Hold Lincolnite Wanted Here

Los Angeles police will be requested to hold Rolland Keith Gillette, 23, of Lincoln, as a parole violater, State Patrol Officer Richard Meisner said Monday. Meisner said he expects to wire his request Tuesday.

Gillette was shot and injured by Los Angeles police Dec. 11 after he pulled a gun when stopped for routine questioning. He was charged with assault with a deadly weapon and is being held in jail after treatment of a shoulder wound.

Authorities also checked on his possible involvement in the Thanksgiving night slaying of a Colorado patrolman but a ballistics test absolved Gillette.

Gillette originally was sentenced to five years in Nebraska Penitentiary in 1950 for the armed robbery of the Town Theater in Omaha. He was one of two bandits who held up the theater manager and escaped with $271 after gagging his mouth with a banner reading: "It's Cool Inside."

Gillette was paroled last June 29.

Soviet Note Termed 'Hopeful Sign' By Sec. Of State Dulles

Moscow Still Wants A Ban On H-Bomb

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet Russia agreed conditionally Monday to talk about pooling atomic energy for peaceful purposes, and Secretary of State Dulles said he drew "hope' from the offer.

Every possibility of securing agreement on the plan will be explored, Dulles said

The Soviet offer was made in a 3,000-word note replying to President Eisenhower's proposal that at least some atomic energy be diverted to humanitarian purposes under a United Nations agency.

Dulles, five hours later, issued a statement saying the Soviet Union "expresses its readiness to take part in confidential or diplomatic talks concerning the President's proposal" and adding, "This is hopeful."

In regard to a Russian suggestion that the United States also consider an international ban on the H-bomb and all other weapons of mass destruction, Dulles said

EISENHOWER SILENT

"The Soviet Union seems not to have caught the spirit of the President's proposal. Its very purpose was to find a new and clearly feasible basis which will permit actually getting started."

The White House said Eisenhower would have no comment "at this time"

The United States and Russia have been deadlocked for years on the question of outlawing atomic weapons, with the Americans insisting that before any ban there must be an ironclad system of inspection and control. The Communists want the ban first.

"It has long been evident, and the tone of the Soviet response makes it even clearer," Dulles said, "that little can be achieved by the continuance of public debate.

"The United States will, through the new channels which the Soviet Union now accepts, explore every possibility of securing agreement and bringing President Eisenhower's historic proposal into the realm of creative action."

NEXT STEP AWAITED

Dulles did not say precisely what the next step will be. In all probability, he will consult further with the President, who laid his plan before the United Nations in an address at New York Dec. 8.

The secretary recalled that Eisenhower had said the United States was ready "to meet privately with such other countries as may be principally involved, including the Soviet Union, to seek an acceptable solution to the atomic armaments race."

"The President sought 'a way by which the miraculous inventiveness of man shall not be dedicated to his death but consecrated to his life,'" Dulles said.

Then he noted that the Soviet government criticizes the Eisenhower plan because it will not remove the threat of atomic weapons. "It also restates former positions taken by the Soviet Union," he said, adding at this point that Russia doesn't seem to have caught the spirit of the idea.

NOTE OF CAUTION

A note of caution ran through initial Congressional reaction.

"I am very pleased at this news," said Rep. Cole (R-NY), chairman of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee. "It is at least hopeful."

Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) commented that "the language sounds good, as so much of theirs does."

"But any agreement outlawing atomic and hydrogen weapons obviously has no effect on international Communism unless a fool-proof system of inspection is agreed to by the Russians," McCarthy added.

Eisenhower's new idea is that the United States, Russia and other atomic powers—"to the extent permitted by elementary prudence"—make joint contributions from their stockpiles of uranium and fissionable materials to a U.N. agency which would devote it to peaceful purposes, including medical research.

Monday the Russians replied: "It is necessary that not some part but the whole mass of atomic material be directed completely to peaceful aims . . ."

". . . One must conclude," Moscow's note said "that, in its present form, the proposal by the U.S.A. does not stop the growing production of atomic weapons, neither does it limit the possibility of the use of these weapons."

No Doubt About It, It's Winter

Arctic Weather Ushers In 'Winter'

. . . Mercury Expected To Hit From 5 To 15 Below Tonight

A turbulent mass of cold air from the arctic carried the winter season into Nebraska Monday night

The new season arrived officially at 9:32 p.m. as a cold wave began to grip the state and highways became hazardous in some areas. Scattered snow flurries made attempts to lay a pre-Christmas blanket over Nebraska, but the Weather Bureau said the snow appeared to be nearing an end. It might continue intermittently in the west, forecasters added.

Strong winds from the north added to the discomfort of those exposed to the weather and the mercury began to plummet towards the zero mark.

The Bureau said the mercury probably would reach a high of 5 to 10 above in the northeast portion of the state and 15 above in the southeast, but the promise for Tuesday night is anything but pleasant.

The lows Tuesday night are expected to range from 5 to 15 degrees below zero.

Highway Patrol reports were that highways in the Chadron and Rushville areas were packed with snow and ice, and were hazardous. Hazardous conditions also were reported at South Sioux City and Ainsworth, where highways were ice-covered.

At Alliance, there was spotted snow, the Patrol said, and roads in the Plainview sector were spotted with packed snow and ice.

At late afternoon Monday, skies were cloudy and the Weather Bureau said light snow was falling at Grand Island, Lexington, North Platte, Imperial, Sidney and Norfolk.

There was a 2-inch blanket of snow after an early morning start, the Bureau said. The ground also was covered at Ainsworth.

Winds from the north and northwest were acting up over the entire state. At Omaha, the wind was reported at 32 miles an hour, with gusts up to 44. Elsewhere it was measured generally in the 20 to 30 mile per hour range, with gusts somewhat higher.

Monday night was the longest night of the year — to be followed by the shortest day.

George H. Wentz, President Of Early Plumbing Firm, Dies

GEORGE H. WENTZ

George Harrison Wentz, 88, 240 No. 46th, long-time Lincoln resident, died Monday night at his home.

He was president of George H. Wentz, Inc., pioneer plumbing firm which he founded in 1905.

Since 1925 his two sons have been in business partnership with him, Harry M. managing the Wentz Fuel Oil Company and Lawrence E. managing the plumbing firm.

Mr. Wentz was born at Pana, Ill., and came to Nebraska with his family shortly after his father took a soldier's homestead near West Point in 1869. The family lived there in a sod house until 1877 when they moved to Decatur, Ill.

Mr. Wentz was graduated from Decatur High School and attended the University of Michigan.

Coming to Lincoln in 1890, he was cost estimator for the Korsmeyer Company for 15 years, until that firm discontinued plumbing to enter the electrical field and Mr. Wentz went into business for himself.

He and Mrs. Wentz, the former Bessie Lemon, who were married in Lincoln Oct. 14, 1891, celebrated their 62nd wedding anniversary this year.

Mr. Wentz was a member of the First Baptist Church and a teacher in its Sunday School, a 32nd degree Mason, a member of the Scottish Rite, Shrine and Chamber of Commerce and a trustee of the Ainsworth Hopital Association.

He was past president of the Lincoln and Nebraska Master Plumbers Associations and an officer of the national group.

Surviving are his wife and his two sons, all of Lincoln; six grandchildren; seven great grandchildren, and a sister, Anna Irwin of Stillwater, Minn.

Capitol Commission OKs Call For Elevator Installation Bids

The State Capitol Commission meeting Monday voted to call for bids for installation of a new elevator to serve tower offices. The Legislature appropriated $62,000 for the purpose.

Approval was granted for departments desiring accoustical tile ceilings to deaden noise of operating machines to purchase material from maintenance funds and the installation to be paid for from regular maintenance funds for the building.

John Knickrehm, building superintendent, was authorized to replaster ceilings of offices under the terrace that have been damaged by seepage on a cost plus contract. Bids will be taken for redecoration as soon as repairs are completed.

The commission was given copies of a report made to Gov. Robert Crosby by a sub-committee from his cabinet indicating that air-conditioning of offices in the building would be both feasible and justified. The report was taken under consideration.

A committee composed of Aeronautics Director J. D. Ramsey, Banking Director J. F. McLain and Liquor Commissioner Tal Coonrad gave the report at the weekly meeting of department heads with the governor

Cost of a detailed engineering survey, which would include plans and specifications, was estimated at from $3,500 to $20,000 by various engineering firms.

The air conditioning, which would cost an estimated million dollars, would have to come through appropriation by the Legislature.

Four Firms

Four firms, including one which installed air-conditioning in the Pentagon and halls of Congress in Washington, have examined the Nebraska Statehouse, the Governor said.

The job can be done without affecting the appearance of the building, inside or outside, the committee reported.

The conclusion was that the cost would be justified by greater employee efficiency and productivity would pay for it in "a reasonable length of time," the Governor said.

The committee reported a central system would be more satisfactory, and less costly in the long run, than trying to air-condition departments with individual units.

City Council Ignores Lake-Fill Protests

By BILL DOBLER
Star Staff Writer

The City Council, for the second time, has voted to fill up the lake at 14th and Harrison to make way for a storm sewer through the area.

Submission of a petition bearing 256 signatures and the pleas in person of more than a dozen residents of the lake area in favor of retaining the lake failed to change any of the four votes cast last week in favor of the fill.

Lake advocates picked up one vote, that of Mayor Clark Jeary who was absent last Monday. Jeary stated that "if I had been here last week, I would have voted to retain the lake."

Jeary made a motion that the lake issue be referred to the park and recreation boards but the motion received only three votes, his own, and those of Councilman Pat Ash and Councilwoman Mrs. Fern Hubbard Orme.

Big Question

Councilman Chauncey W. D. Kinsey stated he understood "this issue was closed last week. The big question in my mind is where all the money would come from. We already have the Oak Creek development, we need new storm sewers, a swimming pool and many other things."

Kinsey also expressed a belief that there was no overwhelming public demand for the lake. On the contrary, he said, "I think there is a general apathy on the part of the citizens over this issue."

City Councilman Rees Wilkinson stated that he believes the people in the lake area "will be more satisfied with a park after they see it completed. Also, the lake is not a natural lake as it has to be filled and there are other much more worthy projects."

Favor Filling

Kinsey and Wilkinson voted with Councilman Joseph E. Fenton and Hugh Thorne in favor of filling the lake.

Retention of the lake, according to Deputy City Engineer Carl Fisher, would cost from $20,000 to $40,000 more than filling, depending upon the plan used. The storm sewer involved runs from 20th and Van Dorn to 14th and Harrison.

Attorney Miles Johnston presented the petition with the 250 signatures The petition asked that the storm sewer be constructed under Harrison, that the lake be improved and that clear water be diverted from the sewer into the lake.

E. Roger Washburn, 1681 Smith, told the Council that the lake was artistic, recreational and educational and should not be destroyed.

Youngster Tries

One youngster Kenneth Hoxsey, 12, of 1130 Plum told the Council "I like to skate and have skated on the lake two or three times this week and I fished there this summer."

His presentation ended with loud applause from other interested parties.

Max Roper, chairman of the city recreation board, stated that as a private citizen he felt the lake should be retained if at all possible.

Eleven other parties testified to the beauty and use of the lake and asked for its retention.

Mrs. D. A. Parrish, 2628 So. 14th, presented a painting by Alta Fielselman of how the lake could be improved and what the finished product might look like. The Council will return the painting to its painter.

'Frog Pond'

Speaking in favor of the fill plan were Ed Schroder and Frank D. Eager. Schroder stated it would be "a waste of money to spend $20,000 on this frog pond. Take into consideration what you have there and then fill it up and make a playground there."

Eager affirmed it would be "the height of folly to keep the lake. The lake is not a beauty spot and can never be made one."

70 Million Wheat Crop Estimated

Fall Drought Reflected In Expected Decrease

OMAHA (AP)—The Department of Agriculture in Washington, taking a long-range look at Nebraska's winter wheat crop to be harvested next year, Monday predicted total production of 70,718,000 bushels from 3,722,000 acres.

It was added that the budget message would present the administration's program, in considerable details, for overhauling the federal tax system.

Any sharp downturn in business profits and personal income—not anticipated in high administration quarters—would alter the present budget estimates for fiscal 1955 because it would reduce government income and could force spending up considerably.

The projected six billion dollar spending slash would mean that, on a cash basis, the government in fiscal 1955 would have something between a balanced budget and a surplus of two billion dollars. This would depend on Congress' action on administration tax recommendations.

The "cash budget" takes social security tax collections into account as government receipts. In the standard, or "administrative" budget, social security collections are not considered receipts.

Undersecretary of the Treasury Marion Folsom estimated in a speech Dec. 3 that social security receipts next year would make a difference of about 3¼ billion dollars between the administrative and cash budgets.

LA Police Hold Lincolnite Wanted Here

Los Angeles police will be requested to hold Rolland Keith Gillette, 23, of Lincoln, as a parole violater, State Patrol Officer Richard Meisner said Monday. Meisner said he expects to wire his request Tuesday.

Gillette was shot and injured by Los Angeles police Dec. 11 after he pulled a gun when stopped for routine questioning. He was charged with assault with a deadly weapon and is being held in jail after treatment of a shoulder wound.

Authorities also checked on his possible involvement in the Thanksgiving night slaying of a Colorado patrolman but a ballistics test absolved Gillette.

Gillette originally was sentenced to five years in Nebraska Penitentiary in 1950 for the armed robbery of the Town Theater in Omaha. He was one of two bandits who held up the theater manager and escaped with $271 after gagging his mouth with a banner reading: "It's Cool Inside."

Gillette was paroled last June 29.

Soviet Note Termed 'Hopeful Sign' By Sec. Of State Dulles

Moscow Still Wants A Ban On H-Bomb

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet Russia agreed conditionally Monday to talk about pooling atomic energy for peaceful purposes, and Secretary of State Dulles said he drew "hope' from the offer.

Every possibility of securing agreement on the plan will be explored, Dulles said.

The Soviet offer was made in a 3,000-word note replying to President Eisenhower's proposal that at least some atomic energy be diverted to humanitarian purposes under a United Nations agency.

Dulles, five hours later, issued a statement saying the Soviet Union "expresses its readiness to take part in confidential or diplomatic talks concerning the President's proposal" and adding, "This is hopeful."

In regard to a Russian suggestion that the United States also consider an international ban on the H-bomb and all other weapons of mass destruction, Dulles said:

EISENHOWER SILENT

"The Soviet Union seems not to have caught the spirit of the President's proposal. Its very purpose was to find a new and clearly feasible basis which will permit actually getting started."

The White House said Eisenhower would have no comment "at this time."

The United States and Russia have been deadlocked for years on the question of outlawing atomic weapons, with the Americans insisting that before any ban there must be an ironclad system of inspection and control. The Communists want the ban first.

"It has long been evident, and the tone of the Soviet response makes it even clearer," Dulles said, "that little can be achieved by the continuance of public debate.

"The United States will, through the new channels which the Soviet Union now accepts, explore every possibility of securing agreement and bringing President Eisenhower's historic proposal into the realm of creative action."

NEXT STEP AWAITED

Dulles did not say precisely what the next step will be. In all probability, he will consult further with the President, who laid his plan before the United Nations in an address at New York Dec. 8.

The secretary recalled that Eisenhower had said the United States was ready "to meet privately with such other countries as may be principally involved, including the Soviet Union, to seek an acceptable solution to the atomic armaments race."

"The President sought 'a way by which the miraculous inventiveness of man shall not be dedicated to his death but consecrated to his life,'" Dulles said.

Then he noted that the Soviet government criticizes the Eisenhower plan because it will not remove the threat of atomic weapons. "It also restates former positions taken by the Soviet Union," he said, adding at this point that Russia doesn't seem to have caught the spirit of the idea.

NOTE OF CAUTION

A note of caution ran through initial Congressional reaction.

"I am very pleased at this news," said Rep. Cole (R-NY), chairman of the Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee. "It is at least hopeful."

Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) commented that "the language sounds good, as so much of theirs does."

"But any agreement outlawing atomic and hydrogen weapons obviously has no effect on international Communism unless a fool-proof system of inspection is agreed to by the Russians," McCarthy added.

Eisenhower's new idea is that the United States, Russia and other atomic powers—"to the extent permitted by elementary prudence"—make joint contributions from their stockpiles of uranium and fissionable materials to a U.N. agency which would devote it to peaceful purposes, including medical research.

Monday the Russians replied: "It is necessary that not some part but the whole mass of atomic material be directed completely to peaceful aims . . ."

". . . One must conclude," Moscow's note said "that, in its present form, the proposal by the U.S.A. does not stop the growing production of atomic weapons, neither does it limit the possibility of the use of these weapons."

No Doubt About It, It's Winter

Arctic Weather Ushers In 'Winter'

. . . Mercury Expected To Hit From 5 To 15 Below Tonight

A turbulent mass of cold air from the arctic carried the winter season into Nebraska Monday night.

The new season arrived officially at 9:32 p.m. as a cold wave began to grip the state and highways became hazardous in some areas. Scattered snow flurries made attempts to lay a pre-Christmas blanket over Nebraska, but the Weather Bureau said the snow appeared to be nearing an end. It might continue intermittently in the west, forecasters added.

Strong winds from the north added to the discomfort of those exposed to the weather and the mercury began to plummet towards the zero mark.

The Bureau said the mercury probably would reach a high of 5 to 10 above in the northeast portion of the state and 15 above in the southeast, but the promise for Tuesday night is anything but pleasant.

The lows Tuesday night are expected to range from 5 to 15 degrees below zero.

Highway Patrol reports were that highways in the Chadron and Rushville areas were packed with snow and ice, and were hazardous. Hazardous conditions also were reported at South Sioux City and Ainsworth, where highways were ice-covered.

At Alliance, there was spotted snow, the Patrol said, and roads in the Plainview sector were spotted with packed snow and ice.

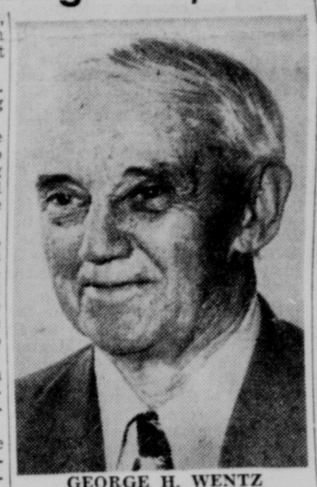
At late afternoon Monday, skies were cloudy and the Weather Bureau said light snow was falling at Grand Island, Lexington, North Platte, Imperial, Sidney and Norfolk.

There was a 2-inch blanket of snow after an early morning start, the Bureau said. The ground also was covered at Ainsworth.

Winds from the north and northwest were acting up over the entire state. At Omaha, the wind was reported at 32 miles an hour, with gusts up to 44. Elsewhere it was measured generally in the 20 to 30 mile per hour range, with gusts somewhat higher.

Monday night was the longest night of the year — to be followed by the shortest day.

George H. Wentz, President Of Early Plumbing Firm, Dies



GEORGE H. WENTZ

George Harrison Wentz, 88, 240 No. 46th, long-time Lincoln resident, died Monday night at his home.

He was president of George H. Wentz, Inc., pioneer plumbing firm which he founded in 1905.

Since 1925 his two sons have been in business partnership with him, Harry M. managing the Wentz Fuel Oil Company and Lawrence E. managing the plumbing firm.

Mr. Wentz was born at Pana, Ill., and came to Nebraska with his family shortly after his father took a soldier's homestead near West Point in 1869. The family lived there in a sod house until 1877 when they moved to Decatur, Ill.

Mr. Wentz was graduated from Decatur High School and attended the University of Michigan.

Coming to Lincoln in 1890, he was cost estimator for the Korsmeyer Company for 15 years, until that firm discontinued plumbing to enter the electrical field and Mr. Wentz went into business for himself.

He and Mrs. Wentz, the former Bessie Lemon, who were married in Lincoln Oct. 14, 1891, celebrated their 62nd wedding anniversary this year.

Mr. Wentz was a member of the First Baptist Church and a teacher in its Sunday School, a 32nd degree Mason, a member of the Scottish Rite, Shrine and Chamber of Commerce and a trustee of the Ainsworth Hopital Association.

He was past president of the Lincoln and Nebraska Master Plumbers Associations and an officer of the national group.

Surviving are his wife and his two sons, all of Lincoln; six grandchildren; seven great grandchildren, and a sister, Anna Irwin of Stillwater, Minn.

Today's Chuckle

Smith's symptoms were alarming enough to take him to a doctor for a check-up.

"What does the report show, Doc?"

"According to this analysis," answered the medico, "there is every indication that a small percentage of blood is getting into your alcohol system."

Capitol Commission OKs Call For Elevator Installation Bids

The State Capitol Commission meeting Monday voted to call for bids for installation of a new elevator to serve tower offices. The Legislature appropriated $62,000 for the purpose.

Approval was granted for departments desiring accoustical tile ceilings to deaden noise of operating machines to purchase material from maintenance funds and the installation to be paid for from regular maintenance funds for the building.

John Knickrehm, building superintendent, was authorized to replaster ceilings of offices under the terrace that have been damaged by seepage on a cost plus contract. Bids will be taken for redecoration as soon as repairs are completed.

The commission was given copies of a report made to Gov. Robert Crosby by a sub-committee from his cabinet indicating that air-conditioning of offices in the building would be both feasible and justified. The report was taken under consideration.

A committee composed of Aeronautics Director J. D. Ramsey, Banking Director J. F. McLain and Liquor Commissioner Tal Coonrad gave the report at the weekly meeting of department heads with the governor.

Cost of a detailed engineering survey, which would include plans and specifications, was estimated at from $3,500 to $20,000 by various engineering firms.

The air conditioning, which would cost an estimated million dollars, would have to come through appropriation by the Legislature.

Four Firms

Four firms, including one which installed air-conditioning in the Pentagon and halls of Congress in Washington, have examined the Nebraska Statehouse, the Governor said.

The job can be done without affecting the appearance of the building, inside or outside, the committee reported.

The conclusion was that the cost would be justified by greater employee efficiency and productivity would pay for it in "a reasonable length of time," the Governor said.

The committee reported a central system would be more satisfactory, and less costly in the long run, than trying to air-condition departments with individual units.

The Weather

NEBRASKA: Cold Wave Warning — cold wave Tuesday with high temperatures 5-10 above northeast to 15 southwest, falling to 5-15 below zero Tuesday night. Partly cloudy with scattered snow flurries Tuesday. Slowly diminishing winds east.

City Council Ignores Lake-Fill Protests

By BILL DOBLER
Star Staff Writer

The City Council, for the second time, has voted to fill up the lake at 14th and Harrison to make way for a storm sewer through the area.

Submission of a petition bearing 250 signatures and the pleas in person of more than a dozen residents of the lake area in favor of retaining the lake failed to change any of the four votes cast last week in favor of the fill.

Lake advocates picked up one vote, that of Mayor Clark Jeary who was absent last Monday. Jeary stated that "if I had been here last week, I would have voted to retain the lake."

Jeary made a motion that the lake issue be referred to the park and recreation boards but the motion received only three votes, his own, and those of Councilman Pat Ash and Councilwoman Mrs. Fern Hubbard Orme.

Big Question

Councilman Chauncey W. D. Kinsey stated he understood "this issue was closed last week. The big question in my mind is where all the money would come from. We already have the Oak Creek development, we need new storm sewers, a swimming pool and many other things."

Kinsey also expressed a belief that there was no overwhelming public demand for the lake. On the contrary, he said, "I think there is a general apathy on the part of the citizens over this issue."

City Councilman Rees Wilkinson stated that he believes the people in the lake area "will be more satisfied with a park after they see it completed. Also, the lake is not a natural lake as it has to be filled and there are other much more worthy projects."

Favor Filling

Kinsey and Wilkinson voted with Councilman Joseph E. Fenton and Hugh Thorne in favor of filling the lake.

Retention of the lake, according to Deputy City Engineer Carl Fisher, would cost from $20,000 to $40,000 more than filling, depending upon the plan used. The storm sewer involved runs from 20th and Van Dorn to 14th and Harrison.

Attorney Miles Johnston presented the petition with the 250 signatures. The petition asked that the storm sewer be constructed under Harrison, that the lake be improved and that clear water be diverted from the sewer into the lake.

E. Roger Washburn, 1681 Smith, told the Council that the lake was artistic, recreational and educational and should not be destroyed.

Youngster Tries

One youngster Kenneth Hoxsey, 12, of 1130 Plum told the Council "I like to skate and have skated on the lake two or three times this week and I fished there this summer."

His presentation ended with loud applause from other interested parties.

Max Roper, chairman of the city recreation board, stated that as a private citizen he felt the lake should be retained if at all possible.

Eleven other parties testified to the beauty and use of the lake and asked for its retention.

Mrs. D. A. Parrish, 2628 So. 14th, presented a painting by Alta Fielselman of how the lake could be improved and what the finished product might look like. The Council will return the painting to its painter.

'Frog Pond'

Speaking in favor of the fill plan were Ed Schroder and Frank D. Eager. Schroder stated it would be "a waste of money to spend $20,000 on this frog pond. Take into consideration what you have there and then fill it up and make a playground there."

Eager affirmed it would be "the height of folly to keep the lake. The lake is not a beauty spot and can never be made one."

Highway 83 Towns Agree On Action

Planning Work As Unit

CURTIS, Neb. (AP) — Representatives of four towns with a stake in U. S. Highway 83 met here Monday and agreed to work together through chambers of commerce as a unit to obtain the paving of the highway from McCook to North Platte.

Attending were five persons from North Platte, nine from McCook, and five others from Maywood and Curtis, along with State Sen. Tom Coffey of Alma.

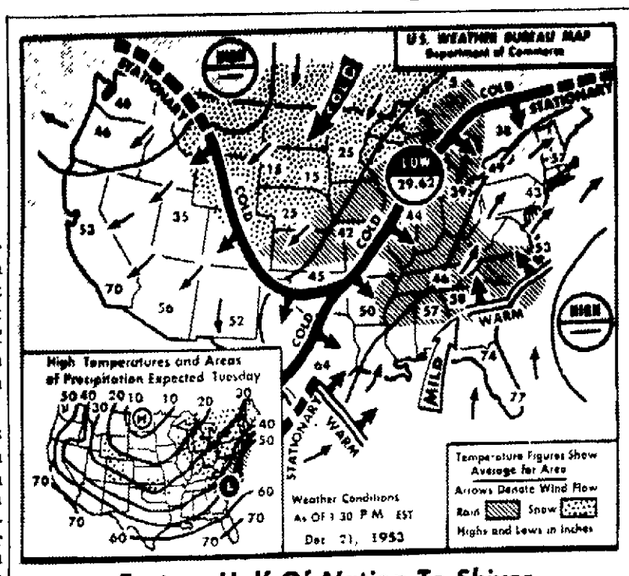
The meeing was called after an attorney general's opinion ruled out the scheduled construction of 12 miles of hard surfaced road on a relocated stretch of Highway 83, beginning 12 miles south of North Platte and running to Wellfleet.

No Funds

Delegates were told that there wouldn't be any funds for 83 because of the ruling, but that the money will not be transferred to another project but instead will be held until the 83 project can proceed.

The group expressed approval of the present highway sufficiency rating systems and expressed interest in developing a new sufficiency rating for the 1955-57 program.

Among those attending were State Highway Division Engineer Dave Coolidge of McCook; Harold Easom of North Platte, and J. Y. Castle of North Platte, president of the Highway 83 Association. Clarence Corey, chairman of the McCook Chamber of Commerce Road Committee, presided.



Eastern Half Of Nation To Shiver

Cold weather is forecast for the Great Lakes region and the eastern half of the United States except for southern Florida. Accompanying snow is expected for the Ohio Valley, western sections of the Middle Atlantic states and northern New England. Rain is forecast for coastal sections of the Middle Atlantic states and southern New England, with snow flurries likely in the Southern Plains. (AP Wirephoto Map Monday Night.

Ft. Randall Dam Power Production Set For February

OMAHA (AP)—Power production is expected to start at the Fort Randall Dam in February. Col. Thomas J. Hayes, Omaha District engineer, said.

Water behind the Fort Randall dam is ready to be put to work and testing of the first generator unit is scheduled for January.

The water level behind the dam is about 75 feet higher than the level of the water below the dam.

5 Nebraskans May See East Germany

OMAHA (AP) -- Five Nebraskans will go to Europe in February on a trip which they hope will take them to both sides of the Iron Curtain.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mead of Omaha, Bishop and Mrs. H. Bascom Watts of Lincoln and Mrs. Wayne Harrington, York, will represent the Methodist Board of Missions in a European tour which might include Yugoslavia and Eastern Germany.

Atomic Program 'Frightening Thing' Says Cunningham

OMAHA (AP) — Omaha Mayor Glenn Cunningham said Monday his glimpse at the federal government's guarded atomic program was a "frightening thing."

Cunningham and mayors of other cities were in on a show at the White House conference last week. Cunningham said some of the things shown the group were classified, and he could not comment on them.

"But now I know that we need the best Civil Defense program we can get and we can't slacken on it," he declared.

Cunningham said the special session with government advisers gave the mayors background so they could all see for themselves just how serious Civil Defense should be.

7 Chadron Students In College Who's Who

CHADRON (Lincoln Star Special)—Seven Chadron State seniors have been chosen to be named in the 1954 edition of "Who's Who Among Students In American Universities and Colleges," national publication.

Four girls and three boys of the CSTC student body were honored, giving this campus an increase of one over the number chosen last year. They are chosen for activities in academic. extra-curricular and citizenship fields.

Chosen this year were: Marjorie Barnes, Chadron; Jim Christensen, Chadron; Gretchen Glode, Chadron; Jim Kannolt, Oelrichs, S. D.; Marjorie Nehe, Chadron; LaVona Smith, Crawford; and Ted Turpin, Chadron.

Grand Island Plant Plans 10% Layoff

GRAND ISLAND (AP) — About 10 per cent of the work force at the Cornhusker Ordnance Plant, or 250 employees, will be laid off during the last week of December, it was announced Monday.

Tom Cobb, manager for the Silas Mason Co., said those affected had been notified.

The reduced demand for ammunition resulting from the cessation of hostilities in Korea was cited by Lt. Col. Robert M. Silvey, plant commander, as the basic reason for the layoff

Cutbacks, he said, also are being made in the other 22 ammunition plants of the Army Ordnance Corps, but substantial production will continue at the government-owned installation throughout 1954.

A few Civil Service employees also will be affected, he added.

Col. Silvey said no additional major personnel cuts were contemplated in the foreseeable future.

12 Nebraskans To Dock Tuesday

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Twelve Nebraskans are aboard the USNS General R. L. Howze which is scheduled to arrive here Tuesday morning with 1,364 veterans of the First Marine Division in Korea.

BANKERS LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEBRASKA

HOME OFFICE AGENCY

O. R. FREY, General Agent

534 Bankers Life Bldg. Phone 2-1023

A REPORT

Concerning

Cost of Natural Gas

The cost of gas purchased by your Gas Company has increased over 100% since 1950. The existing rates in Lincoln are less than they were in 1939 and the proposed rates sought by your Gas Company in the pending request to the City Council are only eight tenths of one percent (8/10 of 1%) over the 1939 rates.

Your Gas Company purchases its entire supply of natural gas for the City of Lincoln from an interstate pipeline company whose rates are regulated by the Federal Power Commission. This pipeline supplier has filed 4 rate applications for increased rates; the first application was filed March 1950; the second was filed October 1950; the third was filed December 1951; and the fourth was filed June 27, 1953. Your Gas Company has requested only three gas rate increases as a result of the four pipeline claims which total $33,000,000. The fourth of such claims by the pipeline supplier will become effective on December 27, 1953, and increases the annual cost of gas for the City of Lincoln by over $617,000.

Your local Gas Company has protested every increase and no final decision by the United States Supreme Court has been rendered where suppliers claims for increases are now contested. In addition to protesting the pipeline's claims for increased rates, your Gas Company is endeavoring to have the Federal Power Commission establish zone rates in order to have lower rates for Lincoln and the surrounding area, and higher rates for regions farther away from gas producing states in the south.

Taxes paid by the Gas Company to the City of Lincoln have increased from approximately $9,000 in 1945 to over $137,000 in 1953, an increase of more than 15 times in the last 8 years.

The Gas Company has added 7415 customers in the last eight years, but only through the expenditure of over 2 and a quarter million dollars of plant improvement and expansion in the City of Lincoln.

The Gas Company is doing all that is within its power to keep down costs and continue to render adequate and efficient service to all of its customers. Naturally, the price that your Gas Company is compelled to pay for its commodity affects the price it must charge its customers.

U.N. Set For Last Appeal

Explanation Period Expires Wednesday

PANMUNJOM (Tuesday) (AP)—Balked at face-to-face interviews, the allies will make a last ditch broadcast appeal tomorow to the 22 American prisoners of the Korean War who have embraced Communism.

The deadline for "come home" explanations is Wednesday midnight.

The Indian command today approved the broadcasts. They will be made also to the one Briton and 77 South Koreans who were not given regular interviews.

"We will allow it," an Indian spokesman said today. "We will make the facilities available. It is for them (the prisoners) to listen or not to listen."

The American prisoners earlier had refused to accept a 12-page appeal from the U. N. command explaining why they should make a free and informed choice on coming home.

The U. N. Command also asked to make face-to-face explanations to any of the prisoners who would come out on the final day. But the Indian spokesman predicted they would remain firm in their refusal.

Red Talks

The Communists asked to give explanations tomorrow to 250 Chinese prisoners in B-4 Compound and also to 41 Chinese and Korean prisoners who have asked to be sent to neutral countries after their scheduled release Jan. 22.

The Reds were making explanations today to 236 Chinese from compound B-3.

The Indian spokesman said the Allied broadcasts tomorrow would be made from one point, with neutral nations and Communist observers on hand.

After midnight tomorrow the 90-day explanation period expires, under terms of the armistice agreement. The U. N. command has refused to extend the period in a meeting of the Military Armistice Commision. Captives who refuse to return to the command after Wednesday will be listed AWOL—absent without official leave.

Gen. John E. Hull, Allied Far East commander, flew in from Tokyo for the final hours of the explanation program.

Hull told newsmen the U. N. command was preparing a last-day offer for explanations which would give the captives the "opportunity, if they are interested," of changing their minds.

Hull said he would meet during the day with Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya, of India, chairman of the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission. Thimayya has agreed that the Indian custodial force will not have legal custody over the prisoners after Jan. 22.

Child, 2, Burned; Spills Boiling Water On Self

Two-year-old Allen Behrens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Behrens of 619 So. 19th suffered first and second degree burns Monday night when he spilled a pan of boiling water on himself.

The youngster was burned about the neck, chest and arms. He was taken to St. Elizabeth's Hospital where he was reported to be in "good condition."

Kuykendall Autopsy Viewers Say They Saw Heart Hole

By BASIL C. RAFFETY

OMAHA (AP)—The testimony of two embalmers who witnessed the autopsy on Mrs. Ardath Kuykendall's body was given a searching cross-examination Monday at the first degree murder trial of Joseph Kuykendall.

The 34-year-old Arizona horseman has been charged in the death of his moneyed bride last June 18 during the Ak-Sar-Ben racing season here.

Both embalmers had testified that they noted a hole or rupture in Mrs. Kuykendall's heart when the pathologist, Dr. James M. Brown examined it. Dr. Brown previously had testified there was no such rupture.

The defense has dwelt at length on this testimony as indicative of a possible factor contributing to Mrs. Kuykendall's death.

Dr. Brown attributed the death to a skull fracture and attendant brain hemorrhages.

Con P. Heafey, who operates two mortuaries here, said today he was standing about 16 inches away when Dr. Brown lifted the heart and he saw the hole on the back side. He said he got his "first glimpse" of the rupture before any of the heart muscles or arteries had been severed.

Chief Deputy County Attorney Robert Mc Gowan checked him closely on details of his testimony and Heafey made some changes particularly with reference to the color of the fluid inside the covering surrounding the heart. Heafey said he was "confused" at some points in his direct testimony and insisted he is "not a doctor."

Deputy County Attorney M. Robert Fromkin and defense attorney Eugene O'Sullivan Sr., both questioned Farrell about his original references to the alleged hole in Mrs. Kuykendall's heart. It was brought out that he had mentioned it to O'Sullivan in the corridors before the preliminary hearing for Kuykendall, but he had not been put on the stand to testify at that hearing.

Mrs. Kathryn Williams of Tucson told the jury how Mrs. Kuykendall looked and acted on the last four days of her life. She said when she saw Mrs. Kuykendall the Monday night prior to her death she was quite "like herself"; that on the following night Mrs. Kuykendall had two drinks that she knew of; that on Wednesday, at Mrs. Kuykendall's request, she had purchased two fifths of whisky and a bottle of rum for Mrs. Kuykendall, along with four quarts of milk.

She said from Wednesday noon through Thursday noon Mrs. Kuykendall's hair appeared uncombed and she wore the same short gown and short housecoat.

Stiver Under $500 Bond On Drive Charges

Dewey Dean Stiver, 22, of Fremont who is under $7,500 bond charged with being an accessory after the fact in the Decatur bank robbery, was placed under $500 bond Monday after he pleaded not guilty to three state charges in Municipal Court.

Stiver was charged with speeding, driving during suspension of his license, and buying liquor for a minor. He pleaded not guilty to each of the charges and was placed under $500 bond.

Judge John Jacobson set trial for Jan. 15.

Stiver was arrested by Safety Patrolman I. E. Minary north of town last Saturday night. The complaint charging Stiver with driving under suspension of his license alleged his license had been revoked for 90 days by a justice of the peace in Fremont last Oct. 26.

Stiver was implicated in the Decatur bank robbery, in which some $14,000 was stolen at gunpoint. Part of the money later was found in the abandoned home of Stiver's grandparents at Hooper, according to the records. Stiver at first was charged with direct implication in the robbery, but this charge was changed to accessory after the fact when Stiver showed police where the money was stashed in the abandoned home.

B. D. Whalen Rites To Be Wednesday

Services for Bernard D. Whalen, 54, Wichita, Kan., will be at 9 a.m. Wednesday at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, the Rev. H. B. Hart officiating.

Mr. Whalen, who died Saturday in Wichita, was born in Cortland, Neb.

He had lived in Lincoln for many years before moving in 1946 to Wichita, where he was associated with Boeing Aircraft.

Surviving are his wife, Mary; daughters, Mrs. Leland Rauch of Portland, Ore., and Mrs. Sam Moore of Lincoln; a son, Bernard E., a student at Creighton University in Omaha; a brother, Frank of Missouri; a sister, Mrs. Rudy Dillow of Lincoln, and two grandchildren.

The rosary will be said at 8:15 p.m. at Hodgman-Splain.

Burial will be in Calvary.

McLain's Trial Nears Conclusion

Defense, Prosecution Conclude Testimony

CHADRON, Neb. (AP) — Both state and defense rested Monday in the first degree murder trial of Duane McLain after a psychiatrist, a prosecution witness, testified McLain "was sane" the night 13-year-old Karen Talbot was slain.

A statement in which McLain, 20, told officers he bludgeoned and shot the Rushville, Neb., school girl the night of Aug. 20 has been admitted as evidence in the trial in District Court here.

The prosecution rested at mid-afternoon and the defense concluded its case an hour and 45 minutes later. Final arguments will take place Tuesday.

'Right and Wrong'

Dr. Robert J. Stein, Lincoln, who examined McLain while the youth was being held in the state penitentiary prior to the trial, testified that McLain "knew the nature of the act and the right and wrong with respect to the act."

He said McLain told him a story substantially the same as in the statements McLain gave officers and which were admitted in evidence.

Dr. Stein said McLain knew that a serious crime had been committed.

Appearing as a defense witness, Mrs. Roy Burki, Duane's grandmother broke down briefly as she recalled how as a boy he came to live with his grandparents.

"The little fellow came there carrying his little shirt ..." She began before she began to cry.

The defense introduced a Sheridan County Juvenile Court record showing that just before Christmas, 1938, a dependent and neglected child action had been filed in the interest of Duane and three other McLain children. Later, Duane's mother relinquished her rights to him and the grandmother was appointed temporary guardian.

Grocery Theft

Burki, who said he was not McLain's real grandfather and that Mrs. Burki had been married before, said the boy's father had been sent to prison for the theft of some groceries at the time Duane was 4 to 5.

Mrs. Burki testified her daughter, Duane's mother, drank and stayed away nights.

Among character witnesses, Duane's former coach at Rushville High School testified that Duane was an all-conference football player, editor of the high school annual and president of the senior class.

A former employer, the manager of a Rushville grocery store, said Duane was a responsible boy and a good worker.

W. S. Skelton, superintendent of Rushville schools, said Duane was 18th in his class of 28.

Feb. Meet Seen

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. Assembly is not expected to reconvene for a debate on Korea until February, after the prisoners of war have been released to civilian status, informed diplomats said here Monday.

A neutral source said his soundings of the key delegates at the U.N. showed no one wanted a meeting in January.

Labor Boss Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — John L. Lewis Monday sided with one of two hotly-feuding longshoremen's unions in what appeared to be a carefully-timed bid to become labor boss over New York City's turbulent waterfront.

The 73-year-old president of the United Mine Workers Union (UMW) kept mum himself, but William V. Bradley, newly-elected chief of the International Longshoremen's Assn., which the AFL ousted on grounds it was crime-ridden, emerged from a conference with Lewis and said:

The ILA's "financial troubles are over" and its barren treasury has been replenished. Previously Lewis was reported as having extended the ILA a $50,000 loan. Neither Bradley nor Lewis would confirm or deny the loan report.

Mrs. Malmston, 57, Dies In California; Formerly Of Bennet

Mrs. Catherine H. Malmston, 57, former Bennet resident, died Saturday at her home in Long Beach, Calif.

Born in Bennet, Mrs. Malmston had lived there until five years ago when she went to California.

Surviving are her husband, Robert; sisters, Mrs. Frank Eisele of Bennet and Mrs. Elsie Doxtater of Long Beach, and a brother, Fred Faulhaber of Walton, Neb.

Wahlen Still Serious

Vernon A. Wahlen, 31, of 4818 Bancroft was reported in "satisfactory but still serious condition" Monday night by attendants at the Veterans Hospital. Wahlen suffered a brain injury when the car he was driving collided with a train at 66th and Vine Saturday.

3-Year Sentence

TEHERAN (INS) — Iron-willed Mohammed Mossadegh, who almost succeeded in becoming the sole ruler of Iran, was found guilty of treason Monday and sentenced to three years in solitary confinement.

Mossadegh

Mossadegh's attorneys promptly announced they would appeal the conviction and the aging ex-premier stormed: "His "History will vindicate my fight for justice."

The 73-year-old former premier, who wept and threatened his way through his six-week-long trial, was saved from a possible death sentence through the intercession of the shah of Iran who recommended clemency.

Ruling Reversed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) Monday reversed 3-1 a two-year rule that employers must give unions equal time to deliver speeches on unionism to employees during working hours.

"We reject the idea that the union has a statutory right to assemble and make campaign speeches on the employer's premises and at the employer's expense," the NLRB majority said in a major reversal of policy.

It announced that, henceforth, both employers and unions will be barred from making speeches during working hours on company premises for 24 hours preceding any NLRB election to determine whether employees want union bargaining representation.

Members of Troop 28 receiving awards at the program held at St. Teresa's School were:

First Class—George Cunningham.
Second Class—David Rowen, John Barratt, John Byington and John Lahiff.
Tenderfoot—Gary Brobst, Norman Chaffee and Dennis Kerchal.

Merit badges were presented to Robert Avey, Paul Maher, Earl Bihlmeyer, George Cunningham, Larry Bihlmeyer, Paul Ryan, Gary Champoux and Michael Wieland.

Donald Olson, local Boy Scout executive, and members of Troop 44, spnsored by Blessed Sacrament Church, were guests at the Court of Honor.

Awards were presented by Earl Bihlmeyer, scoutmaster, and Earl Brady, troop committeeman. The program opened with full-dress Indian ceremonies.

French Fail To Elect Chief

VERSAILLES, France (AP)—The Socialist presiding officer of France's weary Electoral Congress dramatically intervened in the presidential deadlock Monday night after a 10th ballot had failed to settle the race.

As a result, it was generally conceded Monday night that Edouard Herriot and Vincent Auriol, two tired old men who have insisted time and again that they do not want the job, were the leading dark horses for the presidency of the fourth French Republic.

But Herriot, 81-year-old Radical Socialist (moderate) statesman, and Auriol, 69-year-old Socialist, who wants to retire from the president's job he has held seven years, were generally conceded to be the only men who could be considered above the party squabbles which have thrown the Congress into its present deadlock.

In PURSUIT of HAPPINESS

By J. GORDON ROBERTS

An author-psychiatrist continues.

Dr. Marynia Farnham continues her discussion of "The Problems of Women in Contributing to a Fuller Life":

"People have become addicted to the idea that they ought to get there as fast as possible. Why, it would be difficult to define, but the most likely reason, psychologically speaking, is that they are afraid some one else will be there first.

"Competition concerns itself with the twin devils, possessions and prestige. These are Siamese twins indeed. One is inevitably linked with the other in our materialistic culture. One can earn you the other.

"Now the way in which you set about this money situation in order to be sure that it provides you with prestige is, of course, to make it evident. The way of doing that is easy to define; you must buy enough and have enough of the right kinds of possessions to prove to those around you that you are heavily endowed with money and are, therefore, successful and therefore worthy of prestige.

"From this we have the idiotic pretension of the television aerial which isn't hitched to a set but announces to all passersby that you have such and are correspondingly entitled to be considered a worthy citizen. With it belongs the rented mink for the state occasion; the bigger automobile of more elaborate design and this year's model.

"What are we to think of anyone who has an antiquated automobile? He is either a crackpot or can't afford one and either of those circumstances is enough to make a victim of the system cringe. The thing to do is to go promptly into debt to get one and thus save yourself from the stigma of having no prestige.

"Right in the vanguard of this procession to be saved are women, of course. They have subtly but surely become the arbiters of what is what these days. They have accumulated more power than is good for them, if I may be permitted an impudent statement. I shall insist upon it, in any case.

"This development is as much the product of industrialization as the self-regulating stove. I very much question that you could have had one without the other."

Doctor Farnham wrote Modern Women. The Lost Sex.

Norfolk Man Beaten, Robbed

Robbers Get $654

NORFOLK (AP)—Armed bandits held up and slugged Walter Nissen, manager of the Hudson Oil Company Station here Monday and escaped with $654.68 in cash and checks.

Nissen never saw the bandits—they came up from behind—but Police Chief Irvin F. Ferris said apparently there were two.

Nissen said that he stepped inside the door of his office about 6 a.m., the bandits stuck a gun in his back and told him to open the safe.

When Nissen protested that he was not the "boss," he was slugged over the head and remained unconscious for about 20 minutes. He was not seriously hurt.

Track Opens After 15-Car Derailment

PHILLIPS, Neb. (AP) — The Lincoln-Billings, Mont., line of the Burlington Railroad was open to traffic again Monday following the derailment of 15 of the last 22 cars of a freight train.

The derailment occurred Sunday when a coupling on the car ahead of the first one derailed broke and a drawbar fell onto the tracks.

The cars, upon leaving the tracks, piled up in a ditch. Thirteen were tank cars containing crude oil. The oil leaked and spurted from the cars, virtually filling the ditch.

The remaining two cars, filled with hay, were tossed up against an embankment.

About 400 feet of track were torn up and wreckage was scattered over a wide area.

The last cars on the train, six containing freight and the caboose, didn't leave the tracks. The forward cars and the locomotive, en route from Alliance to Lincoln, proceeded on to their destination.

D. E. Hicks was the conductor and A. H. Minchow the engineer.

The mishap occurred in fairly open country. Phillips is about 10 miles east of Grand Island.

Ord Legion, VFW Vote To Buy Land

ORD (Lincoln Star Special)—The Ord American Legion and VFW have voted to purchase a tract of land about three miles north of town to be used as a recreation ground and country club.

For the past two years the two organizations have been holding trap shoots on the same land. Plans are being made now to construct a club house on the grounds.

Money for the purchase of the land will be taken from the Veteran's Building Fund, which was set up several years ago by the two posts.

Nebraskans Ask Reason 'Reluctant' Workers Kept

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hugh Butler (R-Neb) says he has received several letters from Nebraskans asking why persons who refuse to testify about Communist Party affiliations should be kept on the federal payrolls.

Sen. Butler

Butler pointed out in a statement that President Eisenhower has ruled in effect that working for the federal government is a privilege and not a right and that any federal employee who invokes contitutional protection to avoid testifying about Communist affiliations would be immediately discharged from federal employment.

Commented Butler: "In all departments and agencies of the government, security cases handled by previous administrations are being reexamined by Eisenhower appointees. Many hundreds of employees have been dismissed under this program of reexamination, and dismissals will continue wherever the slightest doubt exists about the loyalty of any federal employee to the United States."

State Employees Hold Holiday Party

State employees held a Christmas party in the rotunda of the Capital from 4 to 5 p.m. Monday with about 1,000 in attendance. Col. H. R. Turner was master of ceremonies.

Under the colored lights of a huge Christmas tree, Mrs. Tal Coonrad played a prelude on an electric organ. The invocation was by Rev. E. C. Hansen, chaplain of the Legislature. Vocal solos were sung by Don Ingram of the highway department.

Col. Turner introduced Chief Justice Robert G. Simmons, who presented Gov. Robert Crosby with a smoking set before introducing him.

The Governor thanked the employees not only for the gift but for the "diligent service" he has found them giving taxpayers.

Mrs. Loretta A. Walker, chairman of the committee arranging the observance, introduced Mrs. Crosby.

Christmas carols were sung by a 22-member male chorus under the direction of W. A. Rosene followed by community singing.

Refreshments consisting of cookies and punch were served. Cookies were donated by women employees and many were heard to state that it was the most beautiful display of cookies they had ever seen. Male employees furnished money for the punch.

Lincoln Parcel Post Mail-Flow Still Below 1952

Parcel post mail at the Lincoln Post Office is continuing to run some 15 per cent below the record 1952 Christmas season.

For Dec. 1st through 20th, the outgoing parcel post poundage is 20 per cent under comparative 1952 figures and incoming is 13.5 per cent under last year's figures.

Superintendent of Mails Gerald Jones, while pointing out that there is one more mail day before Christmas this year as compared with 1952, expressed doubts this single day accounts for the overall drop in parcel post.

Both incoming and outgoing first class mail show slight increases as well as other classes during the Dec. 1 to 20 period.

Peak days for outgoing mail are usually Dec. 18 to 20, according to Jones. Apparently the peak day for outgoing first class mail was Dec. 17, he said.

For incoming mail, peak days are Dec. 21-22, he said.

All mail has been moving very smoothly this year, he commented. "There's been no congestion. While a snowfall would hamper us some, we're now on the downgrade of the Christmas mail and snow wouldn't be a serious problem."

Temporary Chute Speeds Christmas Parcels

This temporary chute installed in the basement window of the Lincoln Post Office is speeding primary separation of Christmas parcel post mail for Lincoln delivery. Superintendent of Mails Gerald Jones explained the chute brings the mail sacks of Christmas packages into the Civil Service Examination Room, which has been converted into a primary separation center for incoming packages. Secondary separation is made in two adjoining rooms for local routing.

"More room was needed upstairs for the handling of outgoing mail," he said, "and this arrangement has cut the previous congestion in the mail-handling rooms on the main floor."

Success of the chute and the basement arrangement has assured its use during future Yuletide seasons, the postal official said.

Main Post Office Will Be Closed All Day Christmas

The main post office and all stations will be closed all day Christmas, Postmaster O. E. Jerner has announced. Only Christmas packages, perishable packages and special delivery packages will be delivered on Christmas day. No deliveries will be made by city or rural carriers.

Jerner advises persons to use special delivery for speedier service. The regular Sunday and holiday collections will be made.

The state capitol, the city hall and the county courthouse will be closed Friday and Saturday on both the Christmas and New Year's weekends.

U.N. Set For Last Appeal

Explanation Period Expires Wednesday

PANMUNJOM (Tuesday) (AP)—Balked at face-to-face interviews, the allies will make a last ditch broadcast appeal tomorow to the 22 American prisoners of the Korean War who have embraced Communism.

The deadline for "come home" explanations is Wednesday midnight.

The Indian command today approved the broadcasts. They will be made also to the one Briton and 77 South Koreans who were not given regular interviews.

"We will allow it," an Indian spokesman said today. "We will make the facilities available. It is for them (the prisoners) to listen or not to listen."

The American prisoners earlier had refused to accept a 12-page appeal from the U. N. command explaining why they should make a free and informed choice on coming home.

The U. N. Command also asked to make face-to-face explanations to any of the prisoners who would come out on the final day. But the Indian spokesman predicted they would remain firm in their refusal.

Red Talks

The Communists asked to give explanations tomorrow to 250 Chinese prisoners in B-4 Compound and also to 41 Chinese and Korean prisoners who have asked to be sent to neutral countries after their scheduled release Jan. 22.

The Reds were making explanations today to 236 Chinese from compound B-3.

The Indian spokesman said the Allied broadcasts tomorrow would be made from one point, with neutral nations and Communist observers on hand.

After midnight tomorrow the 90-day explanation period expires, under terms of the armistice agreement. The U. N. command has refused to extend the period in a meeting of the Military Armistice Commision. Captives who refuse to return to the command after Wednesday will be listed AWOL—absent without official leave.

Gen. John E. Hull, Allied Far East commander, flew in from Tokyo for the final hours of the explanation program.

Hull told newsmen the U. N. command was preparing a last-day offer for explanations which would give the captives the "opportunity, if they are interested," of changing their minds.

Hull said he would meet during the day with Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya, of India, chairman of the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission. Thimayya has agreed that the Indian custodial force will not have legal custody over the prisoners after Jan. 22.

Escaped Convicts Recaptured

Three convicts who were among the group of 13 to escape from Southern Michigan Prison Saturday are shown in Detroit after they were caught by Detroit police Monday. They are (left to right) Edward Emrick, 43; Dan Bousha, 28, and Virgil Lane, 27. The trio and two other convicts took two Jackson, Mich., women as hostages. (AP Wirephoto Monday Night.)

Kuykendall Autopsy Viewers Say They Saw Heart Hole

By BASIL C. RAFFETY

OMAHA (AP)—The testimony of two embalmers who witnessed the autopsy on Mrs. Ardath Kuykendall's body was given a searching cross-examination Monday at the first degree murder trial of Joseph Kuykendall.

The 34-year-old Arizona horseman has been charged in the death of his moneyed bride last June 18 during the Ak-Sar-Ben racing season here.

Both embalmers had testified that they noted a hole or rupture in Mrs. Kuykendall's heart when the pathologist, Dr. James M. Brown examined it. Dr. Brown previously had testified there was no such rupture.

The defense has dwelt at length on this testimony as indicative of a possible factor contributing to Mrs. Kuykendall's death.

Dr. Brown attributed the death to a skull fracture and attendant brain hemorrhages.

Con P. Heafey, who operates two mortuaries here, said today he was standing about 16 inches away when Dr. Brown lifted the heart and he saw the hole on the back side. He said he got his "first glimpse" of the rupture before any of the heart muscles or arteries had been severed.

Chief Deputy County Attorney Robert Mc Gowan checked him closely on details of his testimony and Heafey made some changes particularly with reference to the color of the fluid inside the covering surrounding the heart. Heafey said he was "confused" at some points in his direct testimony and insisted he is "not a doctor."

Deputy County Attorney M. Robert Fromkin and defense attorney Eugene O'Sullivan Sr., both questioned Farrell about his original references to the alleged hole in Mrs. Kuykendall's heart. It was brought out that he had mentioned it to O'Sullivan in the corridors before the preliminary hearing for Kuykendall, but he had not been put on the stand to testify at that hearing.

Mrs. Kathryn Williams of Tucson told the jury how Mrs. Kuykendall looked and acted on the last four days of her life. She said when she saw Mrs. Kuykendall the Monday night prior to her death she was quite "like herself"; that on the following night Mrs. Kuykendall had two drinks that she knew of; that on Wednesday, at Mrs. Kuykendall's request, she had purchased two fifths of whisky and a bottle of rum for Mrs. Kuykendall, along with four quarts of milk.

She said from Wednesday noon through Thursday noon Mrs. Kuykendall's hair appeared uncombed and she wore the same short gown and short housecoat.

Stiver Under $500 Bond On Drive Charges

Dewey Dean Stiver, 22, of Fremont who is under $7,500 bond charged with being an accessory after the fact in the Decatur bank robbery, was placed under $500 bond Monday after he pleaded not guilty to three state charges in Municipal Court.

Stiver was charged with speeding, driving during suspension of his license, and buying liquor for a minor. He pleaded not guilty to each of the charges and was placed under $500 bond.

Judge John Jacobson set trial for Jan. 15.

Stiver was arrested by Safety Patrolman I. E. Minary north of town last Saturday night. The complaint charging Stiver with driving under suspension of his license alleged his license had been revoked for 90 days by a justice of the peace in Fremont last Oct. 26.

Stiver was implicated in the Decatur bank robbery, in which some $14,000 was stolen at gunpoint. Part of the money later was found in the abandoned home of Stiver's grandparents at Hooper, according to the records. Stiver at first was charged with direct implication in the robbery, but this charge was changed to accessory after the fact when Stiver showed police where the money was stashed in the abandoned home.

B. D. Whalen Rites To Be Wednesday

Services for Bernard D. Whalen, 54, Wichita, Kan., will be at 9 a.m. Wednesday at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, the Rev. H. B. Hart officiating.

Mr. Whalen, who died Saturday in Wichita, was born in Cortland, Neb.

He had lived in Lincoln for many years before moving in 1946 to Wichita, where he was associated with Boeing Aircraft.

Surviving are his wife, Mary; daughters, Mrs. Leland Rauch of Portland, Ore., and Mrs. Sam Moore of Lincoln; a son, Bernard E., a student at Creighton University in Omaha; a brother, Frank of Missouri; a sister, Mrs. Rudy Dillow of Lincoln, and two grandchildren.

The rosary will be said at 8:15 p.m. at Hodgman-Splain.

Burial will be in Calvary.

Child, 2, Burned; Spills Boiling Water On Self

Two-year-old Allen Behrens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Behrens of 619 So. 19th suffered first and second degree burns Monday night when he spilled a pan of boiling water on himself.

The youngster was burned about the neck, chest and arms. He was taken to St. Elizabeth's Hospital where he was reported to be in "good condition."

In PURSUIT of HAPPINESS

By J. GORDON ROBERTS

An author-psychiatrist continues.

Dr. Marynia Farnham continues her discussion of "The Problems of Women in Contributing to a Fuller Life":

"People have become addicted to the idea that they ought to get there as fast as possible. Why, it would be difficult to define, but the most likely reason, psychologically speaking, is that they are afraid some one else will be there first.

"Competition concerns itself with the twin devils, possessions and prestige. These are Siamese twins indeed. One is inevitably linked with the other in our materialistic culture. One can earn you the other.

"Now the way in which you set about this money situation in order to be sure that it provides you with prestige is, of course, to make it evident. The way of doing that is easy to define: you must buy enough and have enough of the right kinds of possessions to prove to those around you that you are heavily endowed with money and are, therefore, successful and therefore worthy of prestige.

"From this we have the idiotic pretension of the television aerial which isn't hitched to a set but announces to all passersby that you have such and are correspondingly entitled to be considered a worthy citizen. With it belongs the rented mink for the state occasion; the bigger automobile of more elaborate design and this year's model.

"What are we to think of anyone who has an antiquated automobile? He is either a crackpot or can't afford one and either of those circumstances is enough to make a victim of the system cringe. The thing to do is to go promptly into debt to get one and thus save yourself from the stigma of having no prestige.

"Right in the vanguard of this procession to be saved are women, of course. They have subtly but surely become the arbiters of what is what these days. They have accumulated more power than is good for them, if I may be permitted an impudent statement. I shall insist upon it, in any case.

"This development is as much the product of industrialization as the self-regulating stove. I very much question that you could have had one without the other."

McLain's Trial Nears Conclusion

Defense, Prosecution Conclude Testimony

CHADRON, Neb. (AP) — Both state and defense rested Monday in the first degree murder trial of Duane McLain after a psychiatrist, a prosecution witnesc, testified McLain "was sane" the night 13-year-old Karen Talbot was slain.

A statement in which McLain, 20, told officers he bludgeoned and shot the Rushville, Neb., school girl the night of Aug. 20 has been admitted as evidence in the trial in District Court here.

The prosecution rested at mid-afternoon and the defense concluded its case an hour and 45 minutes later. Final arguments will take place Tuesday.

'Right and Wrong'

Dr. Robert J. Stein, Lincoln, who examined McLain while the youth was being held in the state penitentiary prior to the trial, testified that McLain "knew the nature of the act and the right and wrong with respect to the act."

He said McLain told him a story substantially the same as in the statements McLain gave officers and which were admitted in evidence.

Dr. Stein said McLain knew that a serious crime had been committed.

Appearing as a defense witness, Mrs. Roy Burki, Duane's grandmother broke down briefly as she recalled how as a boy he came to live with his grandparents.

"The little fellow came there carrying his little shirt ..." She began before she began to cry.

The defense introduced a Sheridan County Juvenile Court record showing that just before Christmas, 1938, a dependent and neglected child action had been filed in the interest of Duane and three other McLain children. Later, Duane's mother relinquished her rights to him and the grandmother was appointed temporary guardian.

Grocery Theft

Burki, who said he was not McLain's real grandfather and that Mrs. Burki had been married before, said the boy's father had been sent to prison for the theft of some groceries at the time Duane was 4 to 5.

Mrs. Burki testified her daughter, Duane's mother, drank and stayed away nights.

Among character witnesses, Duane's former coach at Rushville High School testified that Duane was an all-conference football player, editor of the high school annual and president of the senior class.

A former employer, the manager of a Rushville grocery store, said Duane was a responsible boy and a good worker.

W. S. Skelton, superintendent of Rushville schools, said Duane was 18th in his class of 28.

News Around The Globe

Feb. Meet Seen

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. Assembly is not expected to reconvene for a debate on Korea until February, after the prisoners of war have been released to civilian status, informed diplomats said here Monday.

A neutral source said his soundings of the key delegates at the U.N. showed no one wanted a meeting in January.

Labor Boss Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — John L. Lewis Monday sided with one of two hotly-feuding longshoremen's unions in what appeared to be a carefully-timed bid to become labor boss over New York City's turbulent waterfront.

The 73-year-old president of the United Mine Workers Union (UMW) kept mum himself, but William V. Bradley, newly-elected chief of the International Longshoremen's Assn., which the AFL ousted on grounds it was crime-ridden, emerged from a conference with Lewis and said:

The ILA's "financial troubles are over" and its barren treasury has been replenished. Previously Lewis was reported as having extended the ILA a $50,000 loan. Neither Bradley nor Lewis would confirm or deny the loan report.

Mrs. Malmston, 57, Dies In California; Formerly Of Bennet

Mrs. Catherine H. Malmston, 57, former Bennet resident, died Saturday at her home in Long Beach, Calif.

Born in Bennet, Mrs. Malmston had lived there until five years ago when she went to California.

Surviving are her husband, Robert; sisters, Mrs. Frank Eisele of Bennet and Mrs. Elsie Doxtater of Long Beach, and a brother, Fred Faulhaber of Walton, Neb.

3-Year Sentence

TEHERAN (INS) — Iron-willed Mohammed Mossadegh, who almost succeeded in becoming the sole ruler of Iran, was found guilty of treason Monday and sentenced to three years in solitary confinement.

Mossadegh

Mossadegh's attorneys promptly announced they would appeal the conviction and the aging ex-premier stormed: "His "History will vindicate my fight for justice."

The 73-year-old former premier, who wept and threatened his way through his six-week-long trial, was saved from a possible death sentence through the intercession of the shah of Iran who recommended clemency.

Ruling Reversed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) Monday reversed 3-1 a two-year rule that employers must give unions equal time to deliver speeches on unionism to employees during working hours.

"We reject the idea that the union has a statutory right to assemble and make campaign speeches on the employer's premises and at the employer's expense," the NLRB majority said in a major reversal of policy.

It announced that, henceforth, both employers and unions will be barred from making speeches during working hours on company premises for 24 hours preceding any NLRB election to determine whether employees want union bargaining representation.

Wahlen Still Serious

Vernon A. Wahlen, 31, of 4818 Bancroft was reported in "satisfactory but still serious condition" Monday night by attendants at the Veterans Hospital. Wahlen suffered a brain injury when the car he was driving collided with a train at 66th and Vine Saturday.

Eagle Boy Scout Award Is Given To Robert Turner

Robert Turner, a guest from Boy Scout Troop 44, was presented the Eagle Scout rank at Court of Honor ceremonies held by Troop 28 Monday night.

Members of Troop 28 receiving awards at the program held at St. Teresa's School were:

First Class—George Cunningham.
Second Class—David Rowen, John Barratt, John Byington and John Lahiff
Tenderfoot Gary Brobst, Norman Chaffee and Dennis Kerchal.

Merit badges were presented to Robert Avey, Paul Maher, Earl Bihlmeyer, George Cunningham, Larry Bihlmeyer, Paul Evans, Gary Champeaux and Michael Wieland.

Donald Olson, local Boy Scout executive, and members of Troop 44, spnsored by Blessed Sacrament Church, were guests at the Court of Honor.

Awards were presented by Earl Bihlmeyer, scoutmaster, and Earl Brady, troop committeeman. The program opened with full-dress Indian ceremonies.

French Fail To Elect Chief

VERSAILLES, France (AP)—The Socialist presiding officer of France's weary Electoral Congress dramatically intervened in the presidential deadlock Monday night after a 10th ballot had failed to settle the race.

As a result, it was generally conceded Monday night that Edouard Herriot and Vincent Auriol, two tired old men who have insisted time and again that they do not want the job, were the leading dark horses for the presidency of the fourth French Republic.

But Herriot, 81-year-old Radical Socialist (moderate) statesman, and Auriol, 69-year-old Socialist, who wants to retire from the president's job he has held seven years, were generally conceded to be the only men who could be considered above the party squabbles which have thrown the Congress into its present deadlock.

News From Turkey

On the desk is the pamphlet from the Information Office of the Turkish government, featuring what is undoubtedly good news for the people of that country.

In its planning for 1954 Turkey comes up with a balanced budget, with contemplated expenditures of $817,014,200, an estimated revenue of $817,312,500, leaving a scanty surplus of $298,300. There is many a slip twixt cup and lip, of course, and in Turkey's case in the uncharted year of 1954, the estimated expenditures, coupled with the estimated expenditures, coupled with the estimated revenues, may go sour.

One fact in connection with Turkey, however, is becoming impressively clear. It is making amazing progress. An old country, only a relatively few years ago so far behind the modern world in its lagging steps to adapt itself to new circumstances, the story of Turkey is one of great fascination. It has come to life. It has faced up with the facts. It has thrown off its chains, which bound it to hopelessness and futility, and it has demonstrated a new virility and boldness in brushing aside its own chains.

In this country the Turk, unfortunately, has rarely been recognized for the citizen he is. When we have thought of him, and those occasions have been rare, we have written him down as belonging to a different world than ours. We have never doubted his courage, his qualities as a fighting man, his pride in his native land, but we haven't recognized him in his aspirations for a new sense of freedom, for his desire to improve himself, or for his acceptance of the responsibilities of a free world. We have thought of him all too much in his own little world, living apart from us, and unconcerned.

The new Turkey is a welcome member of the family of nations.

Those Who Would Be Honest

In the field of personal property tax the greatest uncertainty confronting the individual property owner is this matter of fixing the value of household furnishings long in use.

What is the proper table of depreciation to be employed?

That does not come within the scope of authority to be exercised by Governor Bob Crosby. If the governor so desires, we doubt that the powers of the office he occupies are broad enough to confer upon him the authority to set up a detailed table of values to be placed upon household furnishings, taking into consideration their original cost, and their years of use. More properly any welcome instruction along that line would fall to the individual assessors in the 93 counties in the state, instructions which have been undertaken in some instances in a limited sense and overlooked in others.

We have a great faith in the mine run of people in their desire to do what is right.

In our judgment they gladly and willingly will pay their just share of taxes, but we do sense a widespread uncertainty when it comes to determining the value of the furnishings they possess, an uncertainty not inspired by the desire to cheat, but the product of a lack of information as to the actual value of a household article which serves its useful purpose in the home and yet offers real difficulty when it comes to appraising its value.

As a prelude to Operation Honesty it could be of a real service to the people of Nebraska if the governor, acting upon his own initiative, to call all of the county assessors into conference to agree upon a standard basis of depreciation. That could contribute to the desirable equalization of tax burdens insofar as personal property is involved.

That is automatically provided for in the law in fixing the value upon an automobile. The owner of the car merely reports to the assessor the type of car, its make and year.

There is no difficulty in reporting intangible property. Money in the bank, the ownership of stocks, and other items that fall within this classification are known to the individual taxpayers, and easily computed.

Much of the discussion in this state, and at this time there appears to be a great deal of discussion, goes to the uncertainties in arriving at honest valuations. Insofar as people can receive instructions between now and the next filing period for tax returns, happier results are to be anticipated.

Of Men And Things

Within recent weeks President Eisenhower, no doubt, has received no less than a thousand different garden varieties of advice on how to get along with Congress. All of it from a host of volunteers has been kindly meant.

★

Mr. Eisenhower's congressional headache is not unlike that which was faced by his immediate predecessors. His party is divided squarely down the middle. It is not a cohesive group. It has its "Old Guard" and it has its "Liberals"—it has its "Internationalists" and its "isolationists" — on the domestic side it has its powerful factions which still thinks in terms of McKinley, and it has its membership which subscribe fully and sincerely to ideals of social progress. That is not wholly unlike the situation faced by either the late F.D.R. or former President Truman, but with one great difference. After the honeymoon they both were at war with the formidable groups within their own party, not on a basis of personality but because the absence of mutually-held objectives beyond one common party label. Rarely did it appear that the late F.D.R. publicly resented the division within his own party ranks which in loose fashion developed along sectional lines, with the Northern Democrat in conflict with his Southern brethren. In the international field the division disappeared with the two marching hand in hand. It was on the scene of domestic policy the two previous Democratic administrations pulled in the opposite directions.

Divided Squarely Down Middle

★

The major part of President Eisenhower's difficulties are concerned with foreign policy, although when it comes to the formulation of the reciprocal trading agreements program, domestic and international policies can get in each other's way. That is true of other policies, which in their very nature are of a dual character.

★

One of the great physical burdens of the presidency grows out of the prison-like quality of the job itself. Whoever occupies it is in truth and fact the lonely captive of its responsibilities. From the opening days of World War I increasingly so through the years the President, isolated from his countrymen at large, finds himself in the center of the whirlpool of conflicting views. A strong President immediately raises the cry that he is seeking to convert Congress, a co-ordinate branch of government, into a "rubber stamp." And an amiable, friendly man, such as President Eisenhower, even more handicapped by complete lack of experience in Washington's atmosphere, quickly may acquire a reputation for lack of leadership. We can march through the Wilsonian years, through the era of Harding-Coolidge-and Hoover, through the Rooseveltian era, through the presidency of Harry Truman and the only conclusion that can be reached is that each undertook a different approach to Congress in the relations between Chief Executive, and the legislative branch of the federal government.

Lonely Men In White House

Some of them, notably the late Calvin Coolidge, preferred to drift. We doubt that Congress was conscious of the Coolidge leadership. Some of them, notably Herbert Hoover, found themselves so deeply engulfed with the developments then transpiring that to use Mr. Hoover's own words he had come into office with a program of his own only to find himself cast in a plumber's role, rushing from one point to another to plug the gaps. And some of time, notably Mr. Eisenhower's two immediate predecessors chose to fight, and fight they did with varying success. With his first year drawing to a close the Eisenhower technique, whatever may develop, is yet to establish itself. He has not, as yet, come to grips with Congress. All of that is ahead. These meetings of the last week end were intended to prepare the soil for the harvest.

Missed The Target

America's listening public sat in an open forum discussion of procurement of military personnel in which Sen. Smathers, Fla., advocated universal military training while Sen. Johnson, Colo., favored selective service. Representatives of organized groups whose sympathies ranged from no military service at all to almost complete militarism propounded the question and the disagreeing senators at times dealt with the answers with sharp personal difference, which was not unexpected in an issue so controversial.

It was a debate that left a thoughtful listener unsatisfied with the suggestion that the senatorial grasp of the problem is not yet clear enough to warrant passing a law. Certainly a debate centering on economy, equal responsibility, quality of training and conditions of commitment are matters of conditions written into legislation or governed by the constitution. It was not mentioned that selective service justifies itself as procurement for national defense according to the degree of urgency while universal military training intends to make a permanent place for military activity in the American way of life in peace as well as in times of national danger. It is this departure from historic principle that warrants most of the debate and which provides the basis for the decision that must some day be made.

Those Old Bones

Paleontologists are currently rubbing their hands over a latest find. It is a block of Colorado eocine sandstone containing a fine collection of bones of eohippi, small ancestors of today's horses. Now we shall find out more about the dim past, the world and its peculiar creatures that existed before we picked up the lease.

What technical lore will come out of this will be a matter for the scientists. But it is just as well for the rest of us to consider the significance of those bones of the long gone breed for some possible relation to our current tenancy of the earth.

It seems that no piece of creation gets a guarantee that it can possess the earth indefinitely. The most important thing about those eocine bones is that the original owners failed to make it and were evicted. We had better give that a lot of thought before we start tossing the H bomb around with the idea of getting rich through the expedient of liquidating as many as possible of our fellowheirs. It seems that Providence is trying to fulfill an objective here and has several times had to get rid of creations that couldn't do the work. Now that we are improved specimens who seem to have what it takes it is better to inquire why we are here while we are still here than to try to grab the deed to the place to take off in some direction wither we know not.

FBI Chief Testifies No Reds In High Posts

WASHINGTON—J. Edgar Hoover told a supersecret meeting of the House Appropiations Committee (Judiciary Subcommittee) recently that to the best of his knowledge no Communist agents hold any policy-making jobs in the government.

A few suspected Reds in minor government jobs are still under FBI surveillance, Hoover told the committee, but that is all.

Hoover also admitted under questioning that he did not favor making public the hitherto secret FBI reports on Harry Dexter White. He said he agreed to make the files public when ordered to do so by his boss, Attorney General Herbert Brownell.

Hoover also admitted that in a parallel case in 1951, both he and former Attorney General Howard McGrath had refused to give any of the FBI secret files on communism to a Democratic Red-hunting committee, headed by ex-Sen. Millard Tydings of Maryland.

The FBI chief also testified that less than 10 per cent of employees discharged from the Justice Department under the loyalty program were proven Communists or fellow travelers. The rest of those discharged were so-called security risks, including alcoholics, incompetents and employees who for one reason or another might be blackmailed.

MR. COHN AND MR. SCHINE

Gerard David Schine, the handsome, dreamy-eyed young man who gravitated around Europe at the taxpayers' expense on behalf of Joe McCarthy and who belatedly was drafted into the Army after various maneuvers and medical examinations, is now at Fort Dix, N.J.

There, he has been the object of several phone conversations between his pal, Roy Cohn, McCarthy's counsel, and the commanding officers.

Roy, who also gallivanted around Europe and was publicized in the German press for engaging in a private scuffle with David in a German hotel, has been very solicitious about his his friend's welfare in the Army. Two or three times a week for a while, Roy called the commanding officer to ask how Gerard David was getting along.

"The senator," said Cohn ominously, "wants to know."

This had the desired effect among lower echelons at Fort Dix. Gerard David was kept off kitchen police, guard duty and other disagreeable chores.

Finally, however, Gen. Cornelius Ryan, commander of the 19th Infantry Division, could take it no longer. He got in touch with the secretary of the army, Robert Stevens, explained the constant interference of Joe McCarthy's counsel in affairs of Fort Dix, asked him what he should do about it.

"General," replied the secretary of the army, already harassed over McCarthy's various probes, "this is one you've got to handle yourself."

LONELY TOM DEWEY

Probably the bitterest political feud ever experienced inside the Republican Party is now taking place in New York. It has direct bearing on the Republican presidential nomination for 1956, and means that Gov. Tom Dewey, even if he wants it, will be out of the running.

Dewey is now engaged in probing the taxes of some of the most important Republican political figures in New York state —some of them once quite close to him.

Certain Republicans, in turn, are busy checking on the complete cirmumstances under which Dewey released Lucky Luciano from Sing Sing during the war. At that time, Luciano, considered the No. 1 criminal of New York and head of Murder, Incorporated, still had about 90 years to serve.

Behind this GOP civil war is first the fact that Dewey, with a good record as governor, suddenly woke up to find various political allies involved in the "race-track take" and other shades of dubious political operations.

Also behind it is the fact that Dewey figures that, unless he proceeds with a vigorous cleanup, not only his political goose, but his political reputation, is cooked. He has pretty much decided not to run for governor again. But even if he were inclined otherwise, the atmosphere is such that young Franklin D. Roosevelt would win in a walk.

WASHINGTON SAG

Furthermore, Dewey, the man who nominated Ike, has found his position sagging in Washington. Despite the fact that he appointed two cabinet members —Dulles and Brownell—plus the White House press secretary, Jim Hagerty, he's had a hard time putting across his Niagara Falls power project.

When Dewey went to the White House last week to discuss the Niagara power project, he had to go hat in hand, and he didn't come away with a definite promise. Ike indicated that he was for letting Dewey have his way at Niagara, but he didn't button it up definitely.

Weakness in Washington, say his friends, is the chief reason why Dewey reversed himself on "Brownellism" and came out with a rousing speech in Hartford, Conn., backing up the spy expose. Previously he had been emphatic in saying privately that his old friend, the attorney general, made a mistake in digging up skeletons of the past. But at a $100-a-plate GOP dinner in Hartford, he sounded the battle cry for more skeletons.

WASHINGTON PIPELINE

Though the cost of living in this country is at an all-time high, things could be worse. For example, the American embassy in Moscow has just reported that tomatoes are now selling in the Russian capital for $5 apiece. And if a Russian housewife wants to buy a few flowers for her home she has to pay $1 for each gladiola . . . Senate Majority Leader Bill Knowland of California has urged the White House to announce such a small legislative program that Congress will be sure to pass it. Otherwise, he warned, the Republicans will be blamed for not performing all that they promised.

Traditionally, Latin Americans feel that they get last place in official U.S. thinking and planning—until a world war starts. Right now, this tendency to discount the region's strategic importance appears to be more marked than ever.

Many people are inclined to reason that a fervently Catholic area such as Latin America will not be easily won over by godless Communism. Such thinking neatly ignores the fact that devout Italy, seat of the Vatican, today has the biggest Communist party outside Soviet Russia.

A Stalactite Grows In The Living Room

EDITOR'S NOTE — Marquis Childs, whose articles regularly appear in this space, has suspended writing during a year-end vacation. His daily article will be resumed upon his return.

If the United States ever comes under air attack, there is one thing we're going to be sure of at our house—that nobody is sitting under the bulge in the ceiling when the alarm sirens wail.

The bulge, which is shaped something like half a hornets' nest on the north central edge of the living room ceiling, would smash a man so flat if it ever fell on him that you could use him for airmail stationery. We have evacuated all chairs from the vicinity and are considering putting up a safety net just in case somebody steps too hard on the floor in the room above.

The bulge was not a bulge at all in the beginning, but a place in which the paint had blistered off for some reason which is still obscure. Mrs. F. thought we ought to call in a painter to touch up the spot.

"That's silly," I told her. "For a little place less than two feet square, do you think I'm going to turn over my life's savings to a painter for just a couple of brush strokes? I'll do it myself."

"Do you think you can match the color so the patch won't show?" she asked dubiously. I did not even deign to answer. The ceiling color is a pretty standard one, after all—an off-white with maybe just a touch of blue in it. So I scraped the old paint off and laid a new coat on. It took 15 minutes, I called Mrs. F.

"See!" I chortled. "A perfect match!"

Then the paint dried. This time Mrs. F. called me. "See!" she groaned. "It looks like a hole in the ceiling!" The paint, it seemed, wasn't exactly the same color dry as it was wet. So I said it needed two coats anyway, and this time I left out some of the blue.

When it dried again it looked like a dirty dish towel glued to the ceiling.

"Three coats of paint," I assured Mrs. F., "are necessary to afford real protection."

The third coat was a fishy white, and the fourth somehow got a yellowish tone in it. The fifth had too much blue again, and the sixth one glossy when it should have been flat. After that, it became a matter not so much of economy as of principle. There is no color of paint on earth which cannot be duplicated, I told Mrs. F.—it was just a matter of getting the right mixture. It was after about the tenth coat, which I may have laid on a little thickly, that the bulge began to be noticeable.

After the twelfth coat, Mrs. F. complained that she was ducking her head every time she walked under the place, and I was getting ready to put on the fifteenth coat when I found her seated under the bulge with a carving knife firmly grasped in her paw.

"No more paint!" she said firmly. "I do not want a stalagmite in my living room."

"Stalactites are the ones that hang down," I told her. 'Stalagmites go up."

"Tite or mite," she said, "you do not come a step nearer with that paint bucket."

She may have been wise, at that. I think the weight is beginning to pull the ceiling out of plumb.

Vigilance Protects Our Liberties

Editor's Note: The following opinions were expressed by the Denver Post after a study of the activities of the American Civil Liberties Union.

To anyone who doubts that American freedoms have been in jeopardy over and again in the past few years, we suggest a reading of the 160-page pamphlet recently issued by the American Civl Liberties Union. It is a report on civil liberties, January, 1951 to June, 1953, and this factual recital of events, procedures, problems and cases in which the organization has been interested adds up an impressive total.

The pamphlet may be alerting, even somewhat alarming in the Paul Revere fashion. But as long as such material can be compiled, published and widely read it demonstrates that the very liberties that have been under attack from so many quarters are still healthy and healthily defended in America. "There is no justification for despair," says the ACLU. "We are in the earliest stages of unfamiliarity in handling chronic and world-wide tension and conflict."

What these tensions have brought to many of us has too often been a tendency to forget that American freedom is dependent on minority protection as well as majority decision, and what the ACLU refers to as the rights "for every individual person, as a person, within any majority or minority." The tendency is most marked when the passions of racial prejudices or religious prejudices are stirred. It also flames unduly high in many a political controversy.

The pamphlet notes heartening progress toward fuller realization of American equality before the law, as well as of justice in due process and fair trial. But it warns that we must still contend with "lag and reaction," as well as with the filibuster and party platform insincerity. And there is realistic recognition that while full rights and liberties are not shared by all in all parts of the country, "their organized power increasingly represents a frequent threat to the civil liberties of their own members and of outsiders." A dynamic society is bound to have situations like that. It is a sort of eternal social problem of trying to make ends meet.

While noting improvement in recent months, the ACLU is still gravely worried over our freedom of inquiry and communication. Inquiry being vital to education and controversy the whetstone on which the mind is sharpened, it is absurd and dangerous the extent to which we have been swayed by both noble and anxious impulses to curtail them both, especially in education. One may agree with the ACLU that this is a problem more enduring and important than the problem of Communist teachers, even though we may be somewhat skeptical about the flat statement that such teachers "never have been more than a microscopic and feeble crew." This last we would know for sure, and there is no reason merely to take ACLU's word for it.

Most of this report is taken up with brief and classified recollections of famed controversies that have stirred considerable furor and then been forgotten as some new question of one freedom or another succeeded it: The movies, "The Miracle," "The Limelight," and "The Moon is Blue;" the Fifth Amendment issue; the discrimination fight between Josephine Baker and the Stork Club; various approaches to FEPC; a list of court decisions, classified as "favorable" and "unfavorable;" the pressure groups; the admission cases of Mrs. Ellen Knauff, a German war bride, Graham Greene, popular Catholic writer, and a British pacifist, Stuart Denton Morris. Books, radio and television are also noted with a watchful eye in the manner in which censorship has operated. And, of course, there are all sorts of discriminatory practices that either suceeded or were frustrated.

We certainly do not endorse the attitude of the ACLU in every instance in this pamphlet. In its fight against the Smith Act, for instance, it has bent over backwards to be more piously proper than practical. Nevertheless, this report is a fascinating composium and one that can be read objectively and with profit.

THE PRESS SPEAKS

Echoes From The Nebraska Scene

Whither is Operation Honesty leading? It is one man's opinion, but since it comes from an editor it indicates he is speaking as an interpreter of mass thought. J. H. Hodges, publisher of the Wauneta Breeze, says, "Personally, I wouldn't be a bit surprised to hear Nebraskans stumping for a moderate sales and severance tax, advocating doing away with the personal tax altogether. I believe as another man said—'the man who would advocate a moderate sales and severance tax, could be governor of Nebraska.'"

☆ ☆ ☆

Hats off to Glen D. (Red) Barner of Stapleton. The Nebraska Amateur Rodeo Cowboys Association has named him champion all-around amateur rodeo cowboy of 1953. It serves to remind us that we are still Western people.

☆ ☆ ☆

How effective and influential is America's radio voice over Communist dominated people? That is a hard one to answer this far away. It depends upon how unhappy those people are, how much they yearn for change. But Communist information and propaganda beamed over Nebraska, and there is lots of it, gets a cold reception, according to Dr. A. R. Bryant, a Beatrice physician and one of Nebraska's first ranked veteran amateur operators. His signal is commonly picked up in foreign countries while his efficient receiver works the world. Radio Moscow, he says, patiently and hopefully works the Midwest day by day, hoping the seeds of revolution one day will germinate here. Its announcers speak perfect English and its voice is strong and clear. It solicits responses and suggests exchanges of messages, frequently calls individual Nebraska amateur radio stations. What do Nebraska ham operators do about it? "Nothing," says Dr. Bryant. "We never reply. The Reds are wasting their time."

☆ ☆ ☆

Nebraskans could not enjoy a merry Christmas if they knew a neighbor was in want and barred from the joys of the day. It was comforting, page one news, in the Blair Enterprize, therefore, that "Christmas For All Is Assured." Church groups, veterans organizations and county assistance people have accounted and provided for every needy case in Washington county.

☆ ☆ ☆

It may be unusual but we all have to admit it was a fair proposition. The driver training students in the Aurora High School who are always being checked for proficiency and proper behavior behind the wheel went out the other day and checked up on the adults. The results were a little embarrassing for the latter. Of 500 cars observed 444 were either being driven or parked illegally.

☆ ☆ ☆

The North Platte Junior Chamber of Commerce this year is departing from the usual method of finding the community's Young Man of the Year. The matter is generally referred to a secret committee which makes the selection from a field of its own choosing. But the procedure has been more greatly democratized. Anyone in town may nominate his choice by dropping a postcard to the Junior Chamber. The secret committee takes it from there. That's an innovation that is going to catch on in more places than North Platte.

The Norfolk News can't go along with the Douglas County Young Republicans who recently went stoutly isolationist. The News recalls that America went isolationist after World War I and it didn't work. We had to go back. It observes:

"The old time isolationist was in as a matter of self-preservation under severe handicap. And frank. He wanted to keep clear of all foreign obligations. That didn't keep us out of the Second World War. So the modern isolationist proposes that we get out, but with the frank promise to get back in if Russia starts something. A good many people are going to say that if we have to defend Europe we had better stay there and keep the Russians on their home territory."

The next state legislative session is still a year away but Nebraska's tax problems hang on as an uppermost subject on the state's mind. Lisle Hanna, editor of the Harvard Courier, sees it this way:

"Well we are no authority on tax matters but like most other folks we are just authority enough to know that taxation the way it is being run in this state has gotten entirely out of hand, and that something must be done about it. If nothing is done then folks will begin to renege on property obligations and the tax will tumble. In fact in our opinion it should begin to fall and all officials should begin to figure out ways and means of economizing rather than attempting to consider how to keep on raising the ante every year."

ABOUT CHILDREN

Of course they make a lot of noise.
Of course they strew the room with toys.
Of course destruction follows them
As through the home they race.
But give and take the wedding ring
And these are cares the children bring,
And home was never meant to be
A solemn, silent place.

Of course at times, though in or out,
Too loudly children scream and shout,
But we did that when we were small,
And youngsters always will.
Our fathers and our mothers said:
"We'll rest when they are tucked in bed.
We're bothered by the noise they make,
But more so when they're still."

Our parents scolded when they should,
Explaining it was "for our good,"
But they were proud to think the Lord
Had placed us in their care.
For had they childless, life-long stayed,
They'd not have heard the noise we made
And home had been a lonesome place
Without us romping there.

Lincoln Parcel Post Mail-Flow Still Below 1952

Parcel post mail at the Lincoln Post Office is continuing to run some 15 per cent below the record 1952 Christmas season.

For Dec. 1st through 20th, the outgoing parcel post poundage is 20 per cent under comparative 1952 figures and incoming is 13.5 per cent under last year's figures.

Superintendent of Mails Gerald Jones, while pointing out that there is one more mail day before Christmas this year as compared with 1952, expressed doubts this single day accounts for the overall drop in parcel post.

Both incoming and outgoing first class mail show slight increases as well as other classes during the Dec. 1 to 20 period.

Peak days for outgoing mail are usually Dec. 18 to 20, according to Jones. Apparently the peak day for outgoing first class mail was Dec. 17, he said.

For incoming mail, peak days are Dec. 21-22, he said.

All mail has been moving very smoothly this year, he commented. "There's been no congestion. While a snowfall would hamper us some, we're now on the downgrade of the Christmas mail and snow wouldn't be a serious problem."

Temporary Chute Speeds Christmas Parcels

This temporary chute installed in the basement window of the Lincoln Post Office is speeding primary separation of Christmas parcel post mail for Lincoln delivery. Superintendent of Mails Gerald Jones explained the chute brings the mail sacks of Christmas packages into the Civil Service Examination Room, which has been converted into a primary separation center for incoming packages. Secondary separation is made in two adjoining rooms for local routing.

"More room was needed upstairs for the handling of outgoing mail," he said, "and this arrangement has cut the previous congestion in the mail-handling rooms on the main floor."

Success of the chute and the basement arrangement has assured its use during future Yuletide seasons, the postal official said.

Main Post Office Will Be Closed All Day Christmas

The main post office and all stations will be closed all day Christmas. Postmaster O. E. Jerner has announced. Only Christmas packages, perishable packages and special delivery packages will be delivered on Christmas day. No deliveries will be made by city or rural carriers.

Jerner advises persons to use special delivery for speedier service. The regular Sunday and holiday collections will be made.

The state capitol, the city hall and the county courthouse will be closed Friday and Saturday on both the Christmas and New Year's weekends.

Huskerville Bus Rate Hike Asked

Want Discontinuance Of Several Runs

The Huskerville Bus Lines, operating between downtown Lincoln and the Air Force Base, Monday asked for permission to raise rates and discontinue several runs.

The application, filed with the Railway Commission, proposed increases in adult fares from 15 to 20 cents for West O patrons and 20 to 25 cents for Huskerville patrons.

Other proposed changes are a 10 cent fare (now 5 cents) for children between 5 and 12 and a combination fare, two rides for 15 cents, for children going to and from school.

Evening Service Out

The company wants to discontinue extra Thursday and Saturday shopping day runs which leave Huskerville at 1:30 and 2:30 p.m. and also all evening service at 6:35 p.m.

One run, leaving Huskerville at 9 a.m. and leaving 10th and O at 9:30 a.m., would be added if the request is granted.

Charles Ledwith, president of Huskerville Bus Lines, said the changes are necessary because of little demand for service and loss of revenue amounting to $1,000 a month on the two buses now used.

If the request is granted the company will purchase "at once" a new deluxe intercity bus to give "more dependable and comfortable service," the application said.

Larger Bus

The new bus would be larger than either of the two now being used and probably would replace both, Ledwith said.

The application said notices of the plans sent to patrons brought a response "overwhelmingly in favor of curtailing service to a point at which it is economically possible to continue to render bus service to Huskerville."

When the present operators took over the lines a year and a half ago they expected a greater increase in Air Base travel than has been realized, Ledwith said.

He said Sunday runs will be added when Air Base travel warrants. No runs are now made on Sunday or holidays, and the application provides for none.

The proposed schedule (Monday through Saturday):

Leave Huskerville	Leave 10th & O
7:10 a.m.	7:30 a.m.
8:10 a.m.	8:30 a.m.
9:00 a.m.	9:30 a.m.
11:30 a.m.	noon
3:30 p.m.	4:10 p.m.
4:30 p.m.	5:15 p.m.
5:30 p.m.	6:15 p.m.

Five Soviet Bigwigs Promoted

LONDON (AP)— Five Soviet ministers—including the man reputed now to be in charge of atomic energy development — have been raised to the rank of deputy premier, Moscow radio announced Monday night.

The five are M. Z. Saburov, chairman of the State Planning Commission.

M. G. Pervukhin, minister of electric power stations and electric industry.

I. F. Tevosyan, minister of metallurgical industry.

A. N. Kosygin, minister of manufactured goods.

V. A. Malyshev, minister of "medium machine building."

Malyshev, former minister of transport and heavy machine building, was named to his new and mysterious ministry after the fall of Lavrenty Beria, interior minister and secret police chief who had been boss of the Soviet atomic energy program.

Rarely Seen

Malyshev, a soldier with technical knowledge, rarely has been seen in public or mentioned in print in the Soviet Union since his new appointment. It is widely suspected among diplomatic circles in Moscow and students of the country abroad that Malyshev has succeeded Beria in the atomic post.

All five appointees actually were deputy premiers before the death of Stalin. They lost the rank in the party and government streamlining and shakeup which followed the death of the Soviet leader.

It's A Happy, Happy Christmas

Johnny Bob Steenbarger, pictured with a black and tan toy terrier brought to him by Leslie Loomis, Humane Society head, was probably the happiest boy in Lincoln Monday after a letter he wrote to Santa Clause received prompt attention. A phone call to the Humane Society from his mother, Mrs. J. W. Steenbarger, 5211 Cleveland, resulted in the early Christmas present for the seven-year-old boy who has been in bed with rheumatic fever since last March. Johnny Bob still is thinking about a name for the puppy. His mother proposed "Nickie" when Johnny Bob asked her for suggestions, but the boy thinks he might name him "Bobby" instead. Johnny Bob has had a "homebound teacher" since he became ill and is a second grader. (Star Photo.)

J. F. Maddox Rites Will Be Tuesday

Services for John F. Maddox, 55, 1519 O, who died Sunday at Kearney, will be at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday at Wadlows, Dr. Frank A. Court officiating.

Mr. Maddox, a department store employee, had lived in Lincoln the past 14 years. He came here from Beatrice.

Surviving are his wife, Fern; sons, Phillip, in the Army at Camp Carson, Colo., and Donald and Eldon, both at home; sisters, Mrs. Goldie Geiger of Independence, Mo., and Mrs. Julia Gilmore of Beatrice; brothers, Everett of Denver, Victor of Kansas City, Mo., and Ivan of Kansas City, Kan.

Burial will be in Wyuka.

Dawes County Robbery Suspect Is Arraigned

CHADRON, Neb. (AP)—William G. Shultz, 44, Monday was arraigned in Dawes County Court on two counts of robbery from a person.

He stood mute and the court entered for him a plea of innocent. He waived preliminary hearing and was bound over to District Court on $2,500 bond.

Shultz is charged in the Jan. 9, 1952 holdup of Chadron Country Club.

He was arrested at Wheatland, Wyo., on a federal fugitive warrant and extradited.

He is still under a $10,000 federal bond on the fugitive complaint. A car theft charge against him was dismissed.

Christmas Tree Light Vandals Held At Detention Home

Five Lincoln teen-age youths, who admitted to police taking and smashing at least 50 outdoor Christmas tree light bulbs from a half-dozen homes are at the county's Juvenile Detention Home.

Mrs. Grace Morning, Juvenile Court probation officer, said the youths, all 16 years-old, are in custody pending a hearing of their cases in Juvenile Court.

Lincoln Police had turned the youths over to juvenile authorities Monday.

Montanan Is Placed On Three Years Probation

Thomas Nelson Stimson Jr., 20, of Havre, Mont., was given a suspended sentence and placed on probation for three years by the Federal District Court here after he pleaded guilty to a charge brought under the Dyer Act: transporting a stolen auto in interstate commerce (Utah to Lexington, Neb.) on Aug. 24.

County Jailer Improved Following Heart Attack

County Jailer William Maunier, 63, is reported in "improved" condition and "resting well" at St. Elizabeth Hospital after suffering a heart attack.

His condition was described as "poor" earlier Monday when he was taken to the hospital by ambulance after becoming ill while on duty at the county jail.

Aggression Threat Is Over—Tito

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—President Tito said Monday Yugoslavia pulled her troops back from the Trieste border because danger of aggression that area has ceased.

Tito made the statement on the heels of an announcement that Yugoslavia and Italian reinforcements facing each other at the frontiers since October, have both been withdrawn and that only normal border patrols remain.

Tito said that his forces had acted promptly when "our vital interests were jeopardized."

"But when it was clear that the danger ceased, our army withdrew into its barracks," he added.

Yugoslavia and Italy moved heavy army concentrations up to their common frontiers after the British-American announcement that the Trieste zone under Allied control would be turned over to Italian control.

The Allied decision has been held in abeyance, pending efforts to mediate the dispute through Big Three-backed negotiations.

Air Mail from Santa Claus

Iglooville, North Pole
December 22

Dear Children: What a Christmas this is going to be! Surely all the little boys and girls in the world have been good this year. Never have I packed so many gifts in my sleigh. I'll tell you a secret—I have had to put a trailer on my sleigh this Christmas to hold all the gifts.

The storerooms and the shelves are about empty. And Mrs. Claus can find her chairs and tables and beds, now that the packages have been carried out to the sled and trailer. I have been resting up a bit, because I want to be in fine fettle—whatever that is.

I went down to the barn with Mrs. Claus today to visit Milky Way and Dipper. You have never seen anything like those two deer. They stay side by side all the time, nuzzling and loving each other. Dipper looks much better and walks quite well now. Her coat has become soft and beautiful. Milky Way hobbles around on his three feet, but the injured foot is healing very fast.

I don't remember if I told you that Milky Way and Dipper are smaller than my eight reindeer. They are lovely little things. Of course my reindeer that I drive must be big and strong. All of them love Milky Way and Dipper very much, but Cupid is really foolish about them. She seems to think they are her own children.

Often I find some of the eight deer standing guard while the two smaller deer sleep. They make a happy family. While there is love and kindness, there is happiness.

Love,
Santa Claus

Gov. Crosby To Visit Offices In Statehouse

Gov. Crosby disclosed Monday that he plans to spend Wednesday and Thursday visiting offices in the Statehouse.

He said he is undertaking the visits in connection with the tour of state institutions which he began in the early fall.

"Nobody from away is going to be scheduling conferences with the governor the two days before Christmas, so I figured it would be a good time to do this," he commented.

News From Turkey

On the desk is the pamphlet from the Information Office of the Turkish government, featuring what is undoubtedly good news for the people of that country.

In its planning for 1954 Turkey comes up with a balanced budget, with contemplated expenditures of $817,014,200, an estimated revenue of $817,312,500, leaving a scanty surplus of $298,300. There is many a slip twixt cup and lip, of course, and in Turkey's case in the uncharted year of 1954, the estimated expenditures, coupled with the estimated expenditures, coupled with the estimated revenues, may go sour.

One fact in connection with Turkey, however, is becoming impressively clear. It is making amazing progress. An old country, only a relatively few years ago so far behind the modern world in its lagging steps to adapt itself to new circumstances, the story of Turkey is one of great fascination. It has come to life. It has faced up with the facts. It has thrown off its chains, which bound it to hopelessness and futility, and it has demonstrated a new virility and boldness in brushing aside its own chains.

In this country the Turk, unfortunately, has rarely been recognized for the citizen he is. When we have thought of him, and those occasions have been rare, we have written him down as belonging to a different world than ours. We have never doubted his courage, his qualities as a fighting man, his pride in his native land, but we haven't recognized him in his aspirations for a new sense of freedom, for his desire to improve himself, or for his acceptance of the responsibilities of a free world. We have thought of him all too much in his own little world, living apart from us, and unconcerned.

The new Turkey is a welcome member of the family of nations.

Those Who Would Be Honest

In the field of personal property tax the greatest uncertainty confronting the individual property owner is this matter of fixing the value of household furnishings long in use.

What is the proper table of depreciation to be employed?

That does not come within the scope of authority to be exercised by Governor Bob Crosby. If the governor so desires, we doubt that the powers of the office he occupies are broad enough to confer upon him the authority to set up a detailed table of values to be placed upon household furnishings, taking into consideration their original cost, and their years of use. More properly any welcome instruction along that line would fall to the individual assessors in the 93 counties in the state, instructions which have been undertaken in some instances in a limited sense and overlooked in others.

We have a great faith in the mine run of people in their desire to do what is right.

In our judgment they gladly and willingly will pay their just share of taxes, but we do sense a widespread uncertainty when it comes to determining the value of the furnishings they possess, an uncertainty not inspired by the desire to cheat, but the product of a lack of information as to the actual value of a household article which serves its useful purpose in the home and yet offers real difficulty when it comes to appraising its value.

As a prelude to Operation Honesty it could be of a real service to the people of Nebraska if the governor, acting upon his own initiative, to call all of the county assessors into conference to agree upon a standard basis of depreciation. That could contribute to the desirable equalization of tax burdens insofar as personal property is involved.

That is automatically provided for in the law in fixing the value upon an automobile. The owner of the car merely reports to the assessor the type of car, its make and year.

There is no difficulty in reporting intangible property. Money in the bank, the ownership of stocks, and other items that fall within this classification are known to the individual taxpayers, and easily computed.

Much of the discussion in this state, and at this time there appears to be a great deal of discussion, goes to the uncertainties in arriving at honest valuations. Insofar as people can receive instructions between now and the next filing period for tax returns, happier results are to be anticipated.

Of Men And Things

Within recent weeks President Eisenhower, no doubt, has received no less than a thousand different garden varieties of advice on how to get along with Congress. All of it from a host of volunteers has been kindly meant.

★

Mr. Eisenhower's congressional headache is not unlike that which was faced by his immediate predecessors. His party is divided squarely down the middle. It is not a cohesive group. It has its "Old Guard" and it has its "Liberals"—it has its "Internationalists" and its "isolationists" — on the domestic side it has its powerful factions which still thinks in terms of McKinley, and it has its membership which subscribe fully and sincerely to ideals of social progress. That is not wholly unlike the situation faced by either the late F.D.R. or former President Truman, but with one great difference. After the honeymoon they both were at war with the formidable groups within their own party, not on a basis of personality but because the absence of mutually-held objectives beyond one common party label. Rarely did it appear that the late F.D.R. publicly resented the division within his own party ranks which in loose fashion developed along sectional lines, with the Northern Democrat in conflict with his Southern brethren. In the international field the division disappeared with the two marching hand in hand. It was on the scene of domestic policy the two previous Democratic administrations pulled in the opposite directions.

Divided Squarely Down Middle

The major part of President Eisenhower's difficulties are concerned with foreign policy, although when it comes to the formulation of the reciprocal trading agreements program, domestic and international policies can get in each other's way. That is true of other policies, which in their very nature are of a dual character.

★

One of the great physical burdens of the presidency grows out of the prison-like quality of the job itself. Whoever occupies it is in truth and fact the lonely captive of its responsibilities. From the opening days of World War I increasingly so through the years the President, isolated from his countrymen at large, finds himself in the center of the whirlpool of conflicting views. A strong President immediately raises the cry that he is seeking to convert Congress, a co-ordinate branch of government, into a "rubber stamp." And an amiable, friendly man, such as President Eisenhower, even more handicapped by complete lack of experience in Washington's atmosphere, quickly may acquire a reputation for lack of leadership. We can march through the Wilsonian years, through the era of Harding-Coolidge-and Hoover, through the Roosevelt an era, through the presidency of Harry Truman and the only conclusion that can be reached is that each undertook a different approach to Congress in the relations between Chief Executive, and the legislative branch of the federal government.

Some of them, notably the late Calvin Coolidge, preferred to drift. We doubt that Congress was conscious of the Coolidge leadership. Some of them, notably Herbert Hoover, found themselves so deeply engulfed with the developments then transpiring that to use Mr. Hoover's own words he had come into office with a program of his own only to find himself cast in a plumber's role, rushing from one point to another to plug the gaps. And some of time, notably Mr. Eisenhower's two immediate predecessors chose to fight, and fight they did with varying success. With his first year drawing to a close the Eisenhower technique, whatever may develop, is yet to establish itself. He has not, as yet, come to grips with Congress. All of that is ahead. These meetings of the last week end were intended to prepare the soil for the harvest.

Missed The Target

America's listening public sat in an open forum discussion of procurement of military personnel in which Sen. Smathers, Fla., advocated universal military training while Sen. Johnson, Colo., favored selective service. Representatives of organized groups whose sympathies ranged from no military service at all to almost complete militarism propounded the question and the disagreeing senators at times dealt with the answers with sharp personal difference, which was not unexpected in an issue so controversial.

It was a debate that left a thoughtful listener unsatisfied with the suggestion that the senatorial grasp of the problem is not yet clear enough to warrant passing a law. Certainly a debate centering on economy, equal responsibility, quality of training and conditions of commitment are matters of conditions written into legislation or governed by the constitution. It was not mentioned that selective service justifies itself as procurement for national defense according to the degree of urgency while universal military training intends to make a permanent place for military activity in the American way of life in peace as well as in times of national danger. It is this departure from historic principle that warrants most of the debate and which provides the basis for the decision that must some day be made.

Those Old Bones

Paleontologists are currently rubbing their hands over a latest find. It is a block of Colorado eocine sandstone containing a fine collection of bones of eohippi, small ancestors of today's horses. Now we shall find out more about the dim past, the world and its peculiar creatures that existed before we picked up the lease.

What technical lore will come out of this will be a matter for the scientists. But it is just as well for the rest of us to consider the significance of those bones of the long gone breed for some possible relation to our current tenancy of the earth.

It seems that no piece of creation gets a guarantee that it can possess the earth indefinitely. The most important thing about these eocine bones is that the original owners failed to make it and were evicted. We had better give that a lot of thought before we start tossing the H bomb around with the idea of getting rich through the expedient of liquidating as many as possible of our fellowbeings. It seems that Providence is trying to fulfill an objective here and has several times had to get rid of creations that couldn't do the work. Now that we are improved specimens who seem to have what it takes it is better to inquire why we are here while we are still here than to try to grab the deed to the place to take off in some direction wither we know not.

FBI Chief Testifies No Reds In High Posts

WASHINGTON—J. Edgar Hoover told a supersecret meeting of the House Appropiations Committee (Judiciary Subcommittee) recently that to the best of his knowledge no Communist agents hold any policy-making jobs in the government.

A few suspected Reds in minor government jobs are still under FBI surveillance. Hoover told the committee, but that is all.

Hoover also admitted under questioning that he did not favor making public the hitherto secret FBI reports on Harry Dexter White. He said he agreed to make the files public when ordered to do so by his boss, Attorney General Herbert Brownell.

Hoover also admitted that in a parallel case in 1951, both he and former Attorney General Howard McGrath had refused to give any of the FBI secret files on communism to a Democratic Red-hunting committee, headed by ex-Sen. Millard Tydings of Maryland.

The FBI chief also testified that less than 10 per cent of employees discharged from the Justice Department under the loyalty program were proven Communists or fellow travelers. The rest of those discharged were so-called security risks, including alcoholics, incompetents and employees who for one reason or another might be blackmailed.

MR. COHN AND MR. SCHINE

Gerard David Schine, the handsome, dreamy-eyed young man who gravitated around Europe at the taxpayers' expense on behalf of Joe McCarthy and who belatedly was drafted into the Army after various maneuvers and medical examinations, is now at Fort Dix, N.J.

There, he has been the object of several phone conversations between his pal, Roy Cohn, McCarthy's counsel, and the commanding officers.

Roy, who also gallivanted around Europe and was publicized in the German press for engaging in a private scuffle with David in a German hotel, has been very solicitous about his his friend's welfare in the Army. Two or three times a week for a while, Roy called the commanding officer to ask how Gerard David was getting along.

"The senator," said Cohn ominously, "wants to know."

This had the desired effect among lower echelons at Fort Dix. Gerard David was kept off kitchen police, guard duty and other disagreeable chores.

Finally, however, Gen. Cornelius Ryan, commander of the 19th Infantry Division, could take it no longer. He got in touch with the secretary of the army, Robert Stevens, explained the constant interference of Joe McCarthy's counsel in affairs of Fort Dix, asked him what he should do about it.

"General," replied the secretary of the army, already harassed over McCarthy's various probes, "this is one you've got to handle yourself."

LONELY TOM DEWEY

Probably the bitterest political feud ever experienced inside the Republican Party is now taking place in New York. It has direct bearing on the Republican presidential nomination for 1956, and means that Gov. Tom Dewey, even if he wants it, will be out of the running.

Dewey is now engaged in probing the taxes of some of the most important Republican political figures in New York state—some of them once quite close to him.

Certain Republicans, in turn, are busy checking on the complete cirmumstances under which Dewey released Lucky Luciano from Sing Sing during the war. At that time, Luciano, considered the No. 1 criminal of New York and head of Murder, Incorporated, still had about 90 years to serve.

Behind this GOP civil war is first the fact that Dewey, with a good record as governor, suddenly woke up to find various political allies involved in the "race-track take" and other shades of dubious political operations.

Also behind it is the fact that Dewey figures that, unless he proceeds with a vigorous cleanup, not only his political goose, but his political reputation, is cooked. He has pretty much decided not to run for governor again. But even if he were inclined otherwise, the atmosphere is such that young Franklin D. Roosevelt would win in a walk.

WASHINGTON SAG

Furthermore, Dewey, the man who nominated Ike, has found his position sagging in Washington. Despite the fact that he appointed two cabinet members—Dulles and Brownell—plus the White House press secretary, Jim Hagerty, he's had a hard time putting across his Niagara Falls power project.

When Dewey went to the White House last week to discuss the Niagara power project, he had to go hat in hand, and he didn't come away with a definite promise. Ike indicated that he was for letting Dewey have his way at Niagara, but he didn't button it up definitely.

Weakness in Washington, say his friends, is the chief reason why Dewey reversed himself on "Brownellism" and came out with a rousing speech in Hartford, Conn., backing up the spy expose. Previously he had been emphatic in saying privately that his old friend, the attorney general, made a mistake in digging up skeletons of the past. But at a $100-a-plate GOP dinner in Hartford, he sounded the battle cry for more skeletons.

WASHINGTON PIPELINE

Though the cost of living in this country is at an all-time high, things could be worse. For example, the American embassy in Moscow has just reported that tomatoes are now selling in the Russian capital for 55 apiece. And if a Russian housewife wants to buy a few flowers for her home she has to pay $1 for each gladiola . . . Senate Majority Leader Bill Knowland of California has urged the White House to announce such a small legislative program that Congress will be sure to pass it. Otherwise, he warned, the Republicans will be blamed for not performing all that they promised.

Traditionally, Latin Americans feel that they get last place in official U.S. thinking and planning—until a world war starts. Right now, this tendency to discount the region's strategic importance appears to be more marked than ever.

Many people are inclined to reason that a fervently Catholic area such as Latin America will not be easily won over by godless Communism. Such thinking neatly ignores the fact that devout Italy, seat of the Vatican, today has the biggest Communist party outside Soviet Russia.

A Stalactite Grows In The Living Room

EDITOR'S NOTE — Marquis Childs, whose articles regularly appear in this space, has suspended writing during a year-end vacation. His daily article will be resumed upon his return.

If the United States ever comes under air attack, there is one thing we're going to be sure of at our house—that nobody is sitting under the bulge in the ceiling when the alarm sirens wail.

The bulge, which is shaped something like half a hornets' nest on the north central edge of the living room ceiling, would smash a man so flat if it ever fell on him that you could use him for airmail stationery. We have evacuated all chairs from the vicinity and are considering putting up a safety net just in case somebody steps too hard on the floor in the room above.

The bulge was not a bulge at all in the beginning, but a place in which the paint had blistered off for some reason which is still obscure. Mrs. F. thought we ought to call in a painter to touch up the spot.

"That's silly," I told her. "For a little place less than two feet square, do you think I'm going to turn over my life's savings to a painter for just a couple of brush strokes? I'll do it myself."

"Do you think you can match the color so the patch won't show?" she asked dubiously. I did not even deign to answer. The ceiling color is a pretty standard one, after all—an off-white with maybe just a touch of blue in it. So I scraped the old paint off and laid a new coat on. It took 15 minutes. I called Mrs. F.

"See!" I chortled. "A perfect match!"

Then the paint dried. This time Mrs. F. called me. "See!" she groaned. "It looks like a hole in the ceiling!" The paint, it seemed, wasn't exactly the same color dry as it was wet. So I said it needed two coats anyway, and this time I left out some of the blue.

When it dried again it looked like a dirty dish towel glued to the ceiling.

The third coat was a fishy white, and the fourth somehow got a yellowish tone in it. The fifth had too much blue again, and the sixth one glossy when it should have been flat. After that, it became a matter not so much of economy as of principle. There is no color of paint on earth which cannot be duplicated, I told Mrs. F.—it was just a matter of getting the right mixture. It was after about the tenth coat, which I may have laid on a little thickly, that the bulge began to be noticeable.

After the twelfth coat, Mrs. F. complained that she was ducking her head every time she walked under the place, and I was getting ready to put on the fifteenth coat when I found her seated under the bulge with a carving knife firmly grasped in her paw.

"No more paint!" she said firmly. "I do not want a stalagmite in my living room."

"Stalactites are the ones that hang down," I told her. 'Stalagmites go up."

"Tite or mite," she said, "you do not come a step nearer with that paint bucket."

She may have been wise, at that. I think the weight is beginning to pull the ceiling out of plumb.

ABOUT CHILDREN

Of course they make a lot of noise.
Of course they strew the room with toys.
Of course destruction follows them
As through the home they race.
But give and take the wedding ring
And these are cares the children bring.
And home was never meant to be
A solemn, silent place.

Of course at times, though in or out,
Too loudly children scream and shout.
But we did that when we were small.
And youngsters always will.
Our fathers and our mothers said:
"We'll rest when they are tucked in bed.
We're bothered by the noise they make,
But more so when they're still."

Our parents scolded when they should,
Explaining it was "for our good."
But they were proud to think the Lord
Had placed us in their care.
For had they childless, life-long stayed,
They'd not have heard the noise we made
And home had been a lonesome place
Without us romping there.

AS OTHERS SEE IT

Vigilance Protects Our Liberties

Editor's Note: The following opinions were expressed by the Denver Post after a study of the activities of the American Civil Liberties Union.

To anyone who doubts that American freedoms have been in jeopardy over and again in the past few years, we suggest a reading of the 160-page pamphlet recently issued by the American Civl Liberties Union. It is a report on civil liberties, January, 1951 to June, 1953, and this factual recital of events, procedures, problems and cases in which the organization has been interested adds up an impressive total.

The pamphlet may be alerting, even somewhat alarming in the Paul Revere fashion. But as long as such material can be compiled, published and widely read it demonstrates that the very liberties that have been under attack from so many quarters are still healthy and healthily defended in America. "There is no justification for despair," says the ACLU. "We are in the earliest stages of unfamiliarity in handling chronic and world-wide tension and conflict."

What these tensions have brought to many of us has too often been a tendency to forget that American freedom is dependent on minority protection as well as majority decision, and what the ACLU refers to as the rights "for every individual person, as a person, within any majority or minority." The tendency is most marked when the passions of racial prejudices or religious prejudices are stirred. It also flames unduly high in many a political controversy.

The pamphlet notes heartening progress toward fuller realization of American equality before the law, as well as of justice in due process and fair trial. But it warns that we must still contend with "lag and reaction," as well as with the filibuster and party platform insincerity. And there is realistic recognition that while full rights and liberties are not shared by all in all parts of the country, "their organized power increasingly represents a frequent threat to the civil liberties of their own members and of outsiders." A dynamic society is bound to have situations like that. It is a sort of eternal social problem of trying to make ends meet.

While noting improvement in recent months, the ACLU is still gravely worried over our freedom of inquiry and communication. Inquiry being vital to education and controversy the whetstone on which the mind is sharpened, it is absurd and dangerous the extent to which we have been swayed by both noble and anxious impulses to curtail them both, especially in education. One may agree with the ACLU that this is a problem more enduring and important than the problem of Communist teachers, even though we may be somewhat skeptical about the flat statement that such teachers "never have been more than a microscopic and feeble crew." This last we would know for sure, and there is no reason merely to take ACLU's word for it.

Most of this report is taken up with brief and classified recollections of famed controversies that have stirred considerable furor and then been forgotten as some new question of one freedom or another succeeded it: The movies, "The Miracle," "The Limelight," and "The Moon is Blue;" the Fifth Amendment issue; the discrimination fight between Josephine Baker and the Stork Club, various approaches to FEPC; a list of court decisions, classified as "favorable" and "unfavorable;" the pressure groups; the admission cases of Mrs. Ellen Knauff, a German war bride, Graham Greene, popular Catholic writer, and a British pacifist, Stuart Denton Morris. Books, radio and television are also noted with a watchful eye in the manner in which censorship has operated. And, of course, there are all sorts of discriminatory practices that either suceeded or were frustrated.

We certainly do not endorse the attitude of the ACLU in every instance in this pamphlet. In its fight against the Smith Act, for instance, it has bent over backwards to be more piously proper than practical. Nevertheless, this report is a fascinating composium and one that can be read objectively and with profit.

THE PRESS SPEAKS

Echoes From The Nebraska Scene

Whither is Operation Honesty leading? It is one man's opinion, but since it comes from an editor it indicates he is speaking as an interpreter of mass thought. J. H. Hodges, publisher of the Wauneta Breeze, says, "Personally, I wouldn't be a bit surprised to hear Nebraskans stumping for a moderate sales and severance tax, advocating doing away with the personal tax altogether. I believe as another man said—'the man who would advocate a moderate sales and severance tax, could be governor of Nebraska.'"

☆ ☆ ☆

Hats off to Glen D. (Red) Barner of Stapleton. The Nebraska Amateur Rodeo Cowboys Association has named him champion all-around amateur rodeo cowboy of 1953. It serves to remind us that we are still Western people.

☆ ☆ ☆

How effective and influential is America's radio voice over Communist dominated people? That is a hard one to answer this far away. It depends upon how unhappy those people are, how much they yearn for change. But Communist information and propaganda beamed over Nebraska, and there is lots of it, gets a cold reception, according to Dr. A. R. Bryant, a Beatrice physician and one of Nebraska's first ranked veteran amateur operators. His signal is commonly picked up in foreign countries while his efficient receiver works the world. Radio Moscow, he says, patiently and hopefully works the Midwest day by day, hoping the seeds of revolution one day will germinate here. Its announcers speak perfect English and its voice is strong and clear. It solicits responses and suggests exchanges of messages, frequently calls individual Nebraska amateur radio stations. What do Nebraska ham operators do about it? "Nothing," says Dr. Bryant. "We never reply. The Reds are wasting their time."

☆ ☆ ☆

Nebraskans could not enjoy a merry Christmas if they knew a neighbor was in want and barred from the joys of the day. It was comforting, page one news, in the Blair Enterprize, therefore, that "Christmas For All Is Assured." Church groups, veterans organizations and county assistance people have accounted and provided for every needy case in Washington county.

☆ ☆ ☆

It may be unusual but we all have to admit it was a fair proposition. The driver training students in the Aurora High School who are always being checked for proficiency and proper behavior behind the wheel went out the other day and checked up on the adults. The results were a little embarrassing for the latter. Of 500 cars observed 444 were either being driven or parked illegally.

☆ ☆ ☆

The North Platte Junior Chamber of Commerce this year is departing from the usual method of finding the community's Young Man of the Year. The matter is generally referred to a secret committee which makes the selection from a field of its own choosing. But the procedure has been more greatly democratized. Anyone in town may nominate his choice by dropping a postcard to the Junior Chamber. The secret committee takes it from there. That's an innovation that is going to catch on in more places than North Platte.

The Norfolk News can't go along with the Douglas County Young Republicans who recently went stoutly isolationist. The News recalls that America went isolationist after World War I and it didn't work. We had to go back. It observes:

"The old time isolationist was in as a matter of self-preservation under severe handicap. And frank. He wanted to keep clear of all foreign obligations. That didn't keep us out of the Second World War. So the modern isolationist proposes that we get out, but with the frank promise to get back in if Russia starts something. A good many people are going to say that if we have to defend Europe we had better stay there and keep the Russians on their home territory."

The next state legislative session is still a year away but Nebraska's tax problems hang on as an uppermost subject on the state's mind. Lisle Hanna, editor of the Harvard Courier, sees it this way:

"Well we are no authority on tax matters but like most other folks we are just authority enough to know that taxation the way it is being run in this state has gotten entirely out of hand, and that something must be done about it. If nothing is done then folks will begin to renege on property obligations and the tax will tumble. In fact in our opinion it should begin to fall and all officials should begin to figure out ways and means of economizing rather than attempting to consider how to keep on raising the ante every year."

Highway 83 Towns Agree On Action

Planning Work As Unit

CURTIS, Neb. (AP) — Representatives of four towns with a stake in U. S. Highway 83 met here Monday and agreed to work together through chambers of commerce as a unit to obtain the paving of the highway from McCook to North Platte.

Attending were five persons from North Platte, nine from McCook, and five others from Maywood and Curtis, along with State Sen. Tom Coffey of Alma.

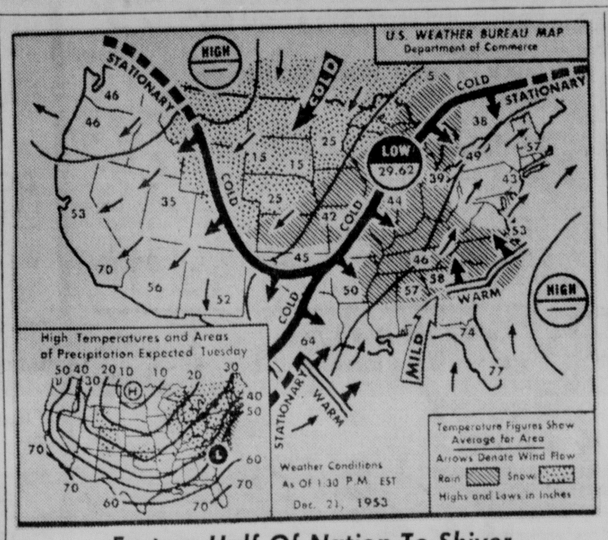
The meeing was called after an attorney general's opinion ruled out the scheduled construction of 12 miles of hard surfaced road on a relocated stretch of Highway 83, beginning 12 miles south of North Platte and running to Wellfleet.

No Funds

Delegates were told that there wouldn't be any funds for 83 because of the ruling, but that the money will not be transferred to another project but instead will be held until the 83 project can proceed.

The group expressed approval of the present highway sufficiency rating systems and expressed interest in developing a new sufficiency rating for the 1955-57 program.

Among those attending were State Highway Division Engineer Dave Coolidge of McCook; Harold Easom of North Platte, and J. Y. Castle of North Platte, president of the Highway 83 Association. Clarence Corey, chairman of the McCook Chamber of Commerce Road Committee, presided.



Eastern Half Of Nation To Shiver

Cold weather is forecast for the Great Lakes region and the eastern half of the United States except for southern Florida. Accompanying snow is expected for the Ohio Valley, western sections of the Middle Atlantic states and northern New England. Rain is forecast for coastal sections of the Middle Atlantic states and southern New England, with snow flurries likely in the Southern Plains. (AP Wirephoto Map Monday Night.

Ft. Randall Dam Power Production Set For February

OMAHA (AP)—Power production is expected to start at the Fort Randall Dam in February, Col. Thomas J. Hayes, Omaha District engineer, said.

Water behind the Fort Randall dam is ready to be put to work and testing of the first generator unit is scheduled for January.

The water level behind the dam is about 75 feet higher than the level of the water below the dam.

5 Nebraskans May See East Germany

OMAHA (AP) — Five Nebraskans will go to Europe in February on a trip which they hope will take them to both sides of the Iron Curtain.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mead of Omaha, Bishop and Mrs. H. Bascom Watts of Lincoln and Mrs. Wayne Harrington, York, will represent the Methodist Board of Missions in a European tour which might include Yugoslavia and Eastern Germany.

Atomic Program 'Frightening Thing' Says Cunningham

OMAHA (AP) — Omaha Mayor Glenn Cunningham said Monday his glimpse at the federal government's guarded atomic program was a "frightening thing."

Cunningham and mayors of other cities were in on a show at the White House conference last week. Cunningham said some of the things shown the group were classified, and he could not comment on them.

"But now I know that we need the best Civil Defense program we can get and we can't slacken on it," he declared.

Cunningham said the special session with government advisers gave the mayors background so they could all see for themselves just how serious Civil Defense should be.

7 Chadron Students In College Who's Who

CHADRON (Lincoln Star Special)—Seven Chadron State seniors have been chosen to be named in the 1954 edition of "Who's Who Among Students In American Universities and Colleges," national publication.

Four girls and three boys of the CSTC student body were honored, giving this campus an increase of one over the number chosen last year. They are chosen for activities in academic, extra-curricular and citizenship fields.

Chosen this year were: Marjorie Barnes, Chadron; Jim Christensen, Chadron; Gretchen Glode, Chadron; Jim Kannolt, Oelrichs, S. D.; Marjorie Nehe, Chadron; LaVona Smith, Crawford; and Ted Turpin, Chadron.

Grand Island Plant Plans 10% Layoff

GRAND ISLAND (AP) — About 10 per cent of the work force at the Cornhusker Ordnance Plant, or 250 employees, will be laid off during the last week of December, it was announced Monday.

Tom Cobb, manager for the Silas Mason Co., said those affected had been notified.

The reduced demand for ammunition resulting from the cessation of hostilities in Korea was cited by Lt. Col. Robert M. Silvey, plant commander, as the basic reason for the layoff

Cutbacks, he said, also are being made in the other 22 ammunition plants of the Army Ordnance Corps, but substantial production will continue at the government - owned installation throughout 1954.

A few Civil Service employees also will be affected, he added.

Col. Silvey said no additional major personnel cuts were contemplated in the foreseeable future.

State Briefs: $1,300 Top At Cambridge Sale

CAMBRIDGE — The top price at the annual Mousel sale here was $1,300 paid for a top bull. The sale average was $430. The bull average was $426 and $432 was the average paid for heifers. The top selling bull was Atomic D. Lamplighter 59th, owned by R. Wendell Mousel. The buyer was Thad J. Douthit of St. Francis, Kan.

SUTTON—The V. D. Goosic Co. Crete was low bidder on construction of the new $20,000 swimming pool here. The pool is expected to be completed next summer. An Omaha firm was low bidder on the furnishings. Contracts for construction of a bathhouse will be let later. The $20,000 is the cost of the pool only.

FRIEND — Clyde Gibson has been elected president of the Friend Volunteer Firemen. Other officers are Wesley Engel, vice president; Stanley Weber, Secretary and Alfred Foreman, treasurer.

BEAVER CITY—A talent show, representing talent in towns throughout Furnas County, will be presented in seven towns of the county to raise funds for the March of Dimes. The show will consist of impersonations of famous show people. The show will be presented in the following towns: Wilsonville, Beaver City, Arapahoe, Oxford, Edison, Holbrook and Cambridge.

ELWOOD — The annual Community Christmas party sponsored by the Elwood Chamber of Commerce, was held here at the Agricultural Hall. The show included an appearance by Santa Claus and a musical and variety program. The show consisted of local talent and a skit by grade school students. A public dance followed the event.

December Department Store Sales Lower

OMAHA (AP)—Department store sales in Omaha, Lincoln and Hastings showed slight drops in the week and month ended Dec. 12 in comparison with the corresponding period last year, the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City reported Monday.

The bank reported the declines as 3 per cent off for the week and 1 per cent for the month.

A REPORT

Concerning

Cost of Natural Gas

The cost of gas purchased by your Gas Company has increased over 100% since 1950. The existing rates in Lincoln are less than they were in 1939 and the proposed rates sought by your Gas Company in the pending request to the City Council are only eight tenths of one percent (8/10 of 1%) over the 1939 rates.

Your Gas Company purchases its entire supply of natural gas for the City of Lincoln from an interstate pipeline company whose rates are regulated by the Federal Power Commission. This pipeline supplier has filed 4 rate applications for increased rates; the first application was filed March 1950; the second was filed October 1950; the third was filed December 1951; and the fourth was filed June 27, 1953. Your Gas Company has requested only three gas rate increases as a result of the four pipeline claims which total $33,000,000. The fourth of such claims by the pipeline supplier will become effective on December 27, 1953, and increases the annual cost of gas for the City of Lincoln by over $617,000.

Your local Gas Company has protested every increase and no final decision by the United States Supreme Court has been rendered where suppliers claims for increases are now contested. In addition to protesting the pipeline's claims for increased rates, your Gas Company is endeavoring to have the Federal Power Commission establish zone rates in order to have lower rates for Lincoln and the surrounding area, and higher rates for regions farther away from gas producing states in the south.

Taxes paid by the Gas Company to the City of Lincoln have increased from approximately $9,000 in 1945 to over $137,000 in 1953, an increase of more than 15 times in the last 8 years.

The Gas Company has added 7415 customers in the last eight years, but only through the expenditure of over 2 and a quarter million dollars of plant improvement and expansion in the City of Lincoln.

The Gas Company is doing all that is within its power to keep down costs and continue to render adequate and efficient service to all of its customers. Naturally, the price that your Gas Company is compelled to pay for its commodity affects the price it must charge its customers.

Huskerville Bus Rate Hike Asked

Want Discontinuance Of Several Runs

The Huskerville Bus Lines, operating between downtown Lincoln and the Air Force Base, Monday asked for permission to raise rates and discontinue several runs.

The application, filed with the Railway Commission, proposed increases in adult fares from 15 to 20 cents for West O patrons and 20 to 25 cents for Huskerville patrons.

Other proposed changes are a 10 cent fare (now 5 cents) for children between 5 and 12 and a combination fare, two rides for 15 cents, for children going to and from school.

Evening Service Out

The company wants to discontinue extra Thursday and Saturday shopping day runs which leave Huskerville at 1:30 and 2:30 p.m. and also all evening service at 6:35 p.m.

One run, leaving Huskerville at 9 a.m. and leaving 10th and O at 9:30 a.m., would be added if the request is granted.

Charles Ledwith, president of Huskerville Bus Lines, said the changes are necessary because of little demand for service and loss of revenue amounting to $1,000 a month on the two buses now used.

If the request is granted the company will purchase "at once" a new deluxe intercity bus to give "more dependable and comfortable service," the application said.

Larger Bus

The new bus would be larger than either of the two now being used and probably would replace both, Ledwith said.

The application said notices of the plans sent to patrons brought a response "overwhelmingly in favor of curtailing service to a point at which it is economically possible to continue to render bus service to Huskerville."

When the present operators took over the lines a year and a half ago they expected a greater increase in Air Base travel than has been realized, Ledwith said.

He said Sunday runs will be added when Air Base travel warrants. No runs are now made on Sunday or holidays, and the application provides for none.

The proposed schedule (Monday through Saturday):

Leave Huskerville	Leave 10th & O
7:10 a.m.	7:30 a.m.
8:10 a.m.	8:30 a.m.
9:00 a.m.	9:30 a.m.
11:30 a.m.	noon
3:30 p.m.	4:30 p.m.
4:30 p.m.	5:15 p.m.
5:30 p.m.	6:15 p.m.

NORFOLK (AP)—Armed bandits held up and slugged Walter Nissen, manager of the Hudson Oil Company Station here Monday and escaped with $654.68 in cash and checks.

Nissen never saw the bandits—they came up from behind—but Police Chief Irvin F. Ferris said apparently there were two.

Nissen said that he stepped inside the door of his office about 6 a.m., the bandits stuck a gun in his back and told him to open the safe.

When Nissen protested that he was not the "boss," he was slugged over the head and remained unconscious for about 20 minutes. He was not seriously hurt.

Track Opens After 15-Car Derailment

PHILLIPS, Neb. (AP) — The Lincoln-Billings, Mont., line of the Burlington Railroad was open to traffic again Monday following the derailment of 15 of the last 22 cars of a freight train.

The derailment occurred Sunday when a coupling on the car ahead of the first one derailed broke and a drawbar fell onto the tracks.

The cars, upon leaving the tracks, piled up in a ditch. Thirteen were tank cars containing crude oil. The oil leaked and spurted from the cars, virtually filling the ditch.

The remaining two cars, filled with hay, were tossed up against an embankment.

About 400 feet of track were torn up and wreckage was scattered over a wide area.

The last cars on the train, six containing freight and the caboose, didn't leave the tracks. The forward cars and the locomotive, en route from Alliance to Lincoln, proceeded on to their destination.

D. E. Hicks was the conductor and A. H. Minchow the engineer.

The mishap occurred in fairly open country. Phillips is about 10 miles east of Grand Island.

Ord Legion, VFW Vote To Buy Land

ORD (Lincoln Star Special)—The Ord American Legion and VFW have voted to purchase a tract of land about three miles north of town to be used as a recreation ground and country club.

For the past two years the two organizations have been holding trap shoots on the same land. Plans are being made now to construct a club house on the grounds.

Money for the purchase of the land will be taken from the Veteran's Building Fund, which was set up several years ago by the two posts.

Nebraska News

Nebraskans Ask Reason 'Reluctant' Workers Kept

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hugh Butler (R-Neb) says he has received several letters from Nebraskans asking why persons who refuse to testify about Communist Party affiliations should be kept on the federal payrolls.

Sen. Butler

Butler pointed out in a statement that President Eisenhower has ruled in effect that working for the federal government is a privilege and not a right and that any federal employee who invokes contitutional protection to avoid testifying about Communist affiliations would be immediately discharged from federal employment.

Commented Butler: "In all departments and agencies of the government, security cases handled by previous administrations are being reexamined by Eisenhower appointees. Many hundreds of employees have been dismissed under this program of reexamination, and dismissals will continue wherever the slightest doubt exists about the loyalty of any federal employee to the United States."

State Employees Hold Holiday Party

State employees held a Christmas party in the rotunda of the Capital from 4 to 5 p.m. Monday with about 1,000 in attendance. Col. H. R. Turner was master of ceremonies.

Under the colored lights of a huge Christmas tree, Mrs. Tal Coonrad played a prelude on an electric organ. The invocation was by Rev. E. C. Hansen, chaplain of the Legislature. Vocal solos were sung by Don Ingram of the highway department.

Col. Turner introduced Chief Justice Robert G. Simmons, who presented Gov. Robert Crosby with a smoking set before introducing him.

The Governor thanked the employees not only for the gift but for the "diligent service" he has found them giving taxpayers.

Mrs. Loretta A. Walker, chairman of the committee arranging the observance, introduced Mrs. Crosby.

Christmas carols were sung by a 22-member male chorus under the direction of W. A. Rosene followed by community singing.

Refreshments consisting of cookies and punch were served. Cookies were donated by women employees and many were heard to state that it was the most beautiful display of cookies they had ever seen. Male employees furnished money for the punch.

It Has Been A Long Time Coming

Ceremony On Monday

MRS. ROBERT JOHN SWAIM

The chancel of Trinity Methodist Church at Mitchell was appointed with spreading arrangements of white chrysanthemums and pine boughs, and lighted by tall white candles of graduated height, to form the background for the marriage of Miss Donna Mae Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Elliott of Mitchell, and Lieut. Robert John Swaim, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Swaim of North Platte, on Monday evening, Dec. 21. The 8 o'clock ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Leslie Moore in the presence of 250 guests.

Miss Ann Kokjer of Sidney and Miss Rita Al Goding of Alliance, wearing floor-length robes of white satin, lighted the chancel candles and the white tapers, ornamented with sprays of pine and tied with satin which marked the pews of the processional aisle. Preceding the service, Dale Ganz of Lincoln sang "Ich Liebe Dich," and "Meinelieb," accompanied by Ed Lockwood, organist, who also played the wedding music.

Wearing a waltz-length frock of silk organza in the mauve tone was Mrs. Thomas Buffington of Wauneta, who attended her sister as matron of honor, and the bridesmaids, costumed identically in a deeper tone of silk organza, were Miss Virginia Franks and Miss Barbara Peters of Mitchell. Softly draped stoles of pale pink tulle accented the deep V necklines of the fitted bodices, beneath which the skirts flared into fullness, and the attendants carried crescents of pale pink carnations.

White velvet and nylon tulle over satin fashioned the bride's gown which was designed in the Victorian mode. The molded bodice of velvet was completed by long fitted sleeves, and an embroidered band of iridescent paillettes and seed pearls framed the portrait neckline. The embroidered motif of pearls and paillettes patterned the extremely full skirt of tulle over satin, which swept into a long train, and her English illusion veil was held by a small coronet of pearls. She carried a cascade of white orchids and stephanotis.

Serving his brother as best man was W. D. Swaim of Des Plains, Ill., and seating the guests were G. William Elliott of Pueblo, Colo., and T. D. Buffington of Wauneta.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the parlors of the church. For their honeymoon trip to the Broadmoor Hotel in Colorado Springs, Mrs. Swaim wore a tailored ensemble of Oxford gray flannel with black accessories.

Lieut. and Mrs. Swaim will reside temporarily at Colorado Springs where the bridegroom is stationed with the army. Both are former students at the University of Nebraska where the bride is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta and Pi Lamoda Theta, and Lieut. Swaim is a member of Phi Gamma Delta.

Entertains BSP Chapter

Mrs. Guy Vehrs entertained the members of Xi Kappa Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, at the group's annual Christmas party on Friday evening. Assisting Mrs. Vehrs as hostess was Mrs. Leslie Moore.

A short business meeting was followed by an informal evening which included carol singing and a gift exchange when the names of secret sisters were revealed.

Guests of the chapter were Mrs. Corrine Kautzman and Miss Lillian Ekblad.

District 126 Has Program

The annual open house and Christmas party of District 126 PTA was held Friday evening at the school. Following a covered dish supper at 6 o'clock, the pupils and their parents toured the classrooms, and participated in a program of games and carol singing. An exchange of gifts brought the evening to a close.

In charge of arrangements was Mrs. Lawrence Goodwin, PTA program chairman.

SEEMS A long time ago since we began counting the days until Christmas — doubtless because our enthusiasm for the holiday season started right after the Fourth of July, but—some three or four hundred weddings, a couple of million pre-nuptial courtesies, and nine football games later—it is here—and a gay season it is—

* * *

THIS morning is to be a festive one at the home of Mrs. Gene Eaton who has invited 12 guests for a 10 o'clock Christmas coffee at her home—And on Wednesday morning Mrs. Eaton will again be a coffee hostess at her home when she entertains a similar number of guests.

* * *

A PARTY for holiday guests is on the calendar for next Tuesday—and it is a 5 o'clock-to-7 o'clock affair for which Mr. and Mrs. W. Irl Stebbins will be host and hostess at their home when they compliment Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Van Kirk of Washington D. C., who are in Lincoln for the holidays. The guest list will include old school friends of Mr. and Mrs. Van Kirk and Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins.

SPEAKING of holiday guests—Hear that Helen Cochrane Teal will be arriving from San Francisco on Thursday to spend the holiday period with her mother, Mrs. W. S. Cochrane, and her aunt, Miss Bess Beeson.

* * *

THE young set is festive this holiday season, too — There have been numerous senior teas, in anticipation of June graduations—but the seniors in no way monopolize all of the fun—

On Monday afternoon Miss Susan Fraser was hostess to 80 Lincoln High school sophomores when she entertained at a tea between the hours of 2 o'clock and 5 o'clock.

Assisting in the dining room the first hour were Miss Melissa Miller, Miss Jane McLaughlin, Miss Margaret Gardner and Miss Martha Crocker. Taking their places the second hour were Miss Jean Garlinghouse, Miss Emma Mengel and Miss Virginia Grass, and serving the third period were Miss Sissy Walker, Miss Lucy Webster, Miss Dallas Hunt and Miss Sandra Ellis.

Miss Sara Grabenstein, pianist, presented a program of Christmas music during the afternoon.

* * *

THE approaching week end will be more or less dominated by prenuptial dinners—and weddings, but between now and then there also are courtesies for the late December brides—and bridegrooms.

On Wednesday evening, so someone told us, Dr. and Mrs. Norman Carlson will be host and hostess at a buffet dinner at their home when they honor Miss Mary Margaret Loomis and her fiance, Richard Moulton, whose marriage will be solemnized on Sunday, Dec. 27. The guest list will include only members of the families.

CHRISTMAS night has been chosen by Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Mallory for the prenuptial dinner at Hotel Cornhusker when they honor their daughter, Miss Sally Mallory, and Lieut. Douglas Dale, whose marriage will take place on Saturday, Dec. 26. Dinner places will be arranged for 22 guests, including the members of the families and the bridal party. Out of town guests will include Lieut. Dale's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Dale of Ord, who will arrive on Christmas Day—and Mr. Mallory's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Mallory of Omaha.

* * *

ON THE far side of the week end—Monday, Dec. 28, Mrs. O. V. Calhoun will preside at dinner at the University Club in prenuptial courtesy to her daughter, Miss Jane Calhoun, and Walt Weaver, whose marriage will take place on Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 29.

Sophomores Have Fun, Too--

This has been a period of senior teas among the feminine 'teen-age circles—but there is no law that says sophomores can't also have fun—and a tea. So on Monday afternoon Miss Susan Fraser was a tea hostess at her home between the hours of 2 o'clock and 5 o'clock—with sophomores at Lincoln high school comprising the large guest list.

Probably two years from now Miss Fraser and the members of her high school crowd who assisted at the party, will be senior tea hostesses at some time during the holiday season—but at the moment they are quite happy with their sophomore status—

In the picture we find the hostess and the four young ladies who assisted in the serving the first hour, plus Miss Sara Grabenstein, pianist, who played Christmas music during the tea hours.

—New Year's resolutions are all well in their way, but wouldn't it be fine if one year, at least, New Year's resolutions were all made for the other fellow. How would it work? Simply let everyone solicit from family and friends suggestions for the resolutions he "should" make. A few examples have already been volunteered:

★

—a business executive wishes the female employees in his office would resolve to stop chewing gum for the duration of 1954.

★

—another B.E. would like everyone in his business to resolve not to talk "shop" during after-office-hours. Enough is enough!

★

—an unmarried sister thinks all the members of her family should resolve to stop telling her brother how to bring up his children.

★

—a mother of three would like certain members of the medical profession to resolve "not to keep patients who have appointments waiting for more than an hour at a time."

★

—one of Lincoln's matrons would like her contemporaries to "face the fleeting years and the sounding voice of doom" and to stop blaming all their ailments on the fact that age is creeping up.

★

—other phobias are listening to the oft-repeated phrases, "It's just one of those things"—or—"It's out of this world."

★

—one seven-year-old probably voices the sentiment of many children. She wishes her mother would resolve not to be so "bossy" and that her father would read to her all the time.

★

—a business man wishes that people who call on the telephone and refuse to wait even a minute, would turn over a new leaf—not leave a number to call back, then be unavailable for the next three days.

Guest And Hostess

It well could be that Miss Nancy Kain (left) of Houston, Tex., who is a pre-holiday guest at the home of Miss Mary Lou Cooper (right), will be able to cross another item off of her "must" list before she leaves Lincoln to return home. Miss Kain, who accompanied her Houston university classmate to Nebraska for the express purpose of getting her first glimpse of snow, saw just a flake or two yesterday—but there may be more before she leaves today for Houston. Miss Cooper, of course, will spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cooper.

Friendship Club Christmas Party

In charge of arrangements were Mrs. DeWitt Venter, Mrs. E. A. Bohlman, Mrs. W. Ault, Mrs. D. H. Venter and Mrs. L. Seymour

To Entertain Classmates

Miss Carol Vermaas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy T. Vermaas, will be hostess at a tea Tuesday afternoon at her home, 2705 Woodsdale, between the hours of 2 o'clock and 4 o'clock. Her guest list of 165 includes all the ninth grade girls at Irving Junior High School.

Assisting as hostesses in the dining room will be Miss Pat Porter, Miss Duana Rankin, Miss Sally Purviance, Miss Suzanne Shoemaker, Miss Sherry Turner and Miss Barbara Barker.

Five Soviet Bigwigs Promoted

LONDON (AP)— Five Soviet ministers—including the man reputed now to be in charge of atomic energy development — have been raised to the rank of deputy premier, Moscow radio announced Monday night.

The five are M. Z. Saburov, chairman of the State Planning Commission.

M. G. Pervukhin, minister of electric power stations and electric industry.

I. F. Tevosyan, minister of metallurgical industry.

A. N. Kosygin, minister of manufactured goods.

V. A. Malyshev, minister of "medium machine building."

Malyshev, former minister of transport and heavy machine building, was named to his new and mysterious ministry after the fall of Lavrenty Beria, interior minister and secret police chief who had been boss of the Soviet atomic energy program.

Rarely Seen

Malyshev, a soldier with technical knowledge, rarely has been seen in public or mentioned in print in the Soviet Union since his new appointment. It is widely suspected among diplomatic circles in Moscow and students of the country abroad that Malyshev has succeeded Beria in the atomic post.

All five appointees actually were deputy premiers before the death of Stalin. They lost the rank in the party and government streamlining and shakeup which followed the death of the Soviet leader.

It's A Happy, Happy Christmas

Johnny Bob Steenbarger, pictured with a black and tan toy terrier brought to him by Leslie Loomis, Humane Society head, was probably the happiest boy in Lincoln Monday after a letter he wrote to Santa Clause received prompt attention. A phone call to the Humane Society from his mother, Mrs. J. W. Steenbarger, 5211 Cleveland, resulted in the early Christmas present for the seven-year-old boy who has been in bed with rheumatic fever since last March. Johnny Bob still is thinking about a name for the puppy. His mother proposed "Nickie" when Johnny Bob asked her for suggestions, but the boy thinks he might name him "Bobby" instead. Johnny Bob has had a "homebound teacher" since he became ill and is a second grader. (Star Photo.)

Montanan Is Placed On Three Years Probation

Thomas Nelson Stimson Jr., 20, of Havre, Mont., was given a suspended sentence and placed on probation for three years by the Federal District Court here after he pleaded guilty to a charge brought under the Dyer Act: transporting a stolen auto in interstate commerce (Utah to Lexington, Neb.) on Aug. 24.

County Jailer Improved Following Heart Attack

County Jailer William Maunier, 63, is reported in "improved" condition and "resting well" at St. Elizabeth Hospital after suffering a heart attack.

His condition was described as "poor" earlier Monday when he was taken to the hospital by ambulance after becoming ill while on duty at the county jail.

J. F. Maddox Rites Will Be Tuesday

Services for John F. Maddox, 55, 1519 O, who died Sunday at Kearney, will be at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday at Wadlows, Dr. Frank A. Court officiating.

Mr. Maddox, a department store employee, had lived in Lincoln the past 14 years. He came here from Beatrice.

Surviving are his wife, Fern; sons, Phillip, in the Army at Camp Carson, Colo., and Donald and Eldon, both at home; sisters, Mrs. Goldie Geiger of Independence, Mo., and Mrs. Julia Gilmore of Beatrice; brothers, Everett of Denver, Victor of Kansas City, Mo., and Ivan of Kansas City, Kan.

Burial will be in Wyuka.

Dawes County Robbery Suspect Is Arraigned

CHADRON, Neb. (AP)—William G. Shultz, 44, Monday was arrainged in Dawes County Court on two counts of robbery from a person.

He stood mute and the court entered for him a plea of innocent. He waived preliminary hearing and was bound over to District Court on $2,500 bond.

Shultz is charged in the Jan. 9, 1952 holdup of Chadron Country Club.

He was arrested at Wheatland, Wyo., on a federal fugitive warrant and extradited.

He is still under a $10,000 federal bond on the fugitive complaint. A car theft charge against him was dismissed.

Christmas Tree Light Vandals Held At Detention Home

Five Lincoln teen-age youths, who admitted to police taking and smashing at least 50 outdoor Christmas tree light bulbs from a half-dozen homes are at the county's Juvenile Detention Home.

Mrs. Grace Morning, Juvenile Court probation officer, said the youths, all 16 years-old, are in custody pending a hearing of their cases in Juvenile Court.

Lincoln Police had turned the youths over to juvenile authorities Monday.

City Beats Paying License Fees On Its Autos

By BILL DOBLER
Star Staff Writer

City officials, reportedly with the help of state officials, have found a way around the recently enacted state law requiring municipalities to pay license fees on all cars except those in the police, fire and street departments.

The solution is a simple one. All city cars, except those already in the exempted classes, have been transferred to the street department.

The resolution which the council approved to accomplish this stated that all city cars except fire and police are hereby assigned to the street department "for said department's management, operation, control and use and shall be registered in the name of the street department."

Theory Change

The change is purely one of theory, as city cars will continue to be operated for the same purposes as they are now. The transfer, according to Deputy City Attorney Jack Pace, resulted from conferences with state department of roads and irrigation officials.

Owen Boyles of the state department stated that his department is not advising municipalities on what to do about the new law.

"We are telling them, however," said Boyles, "that if they want to place the ownership of cars in one department or another is it no concern of ours."

Only Job

Boyles stated he did not feel it was the duty of his department to attempt to determine how or by what city deparments cars were actually being used. This department's only job, he said, is to determine those cars not registered in either the police, fire or street departments.

Boyles said it was his understanding the new law was aimed at federal land bank and the Metropolitan Utilities District of Omaha and other such organizations which are separate entities from the municipalities and in competition with private enterprise. He does not, he said, consider the Lincoln city water and light department in the same class as MUD.

Assessment Date Is Set By Council

A resolution has been approved by the City Council setting the date of Jan. 25 for assessing the $421,000 cost of paving in district 1182, being some six miles of paving between 56th and 66th from Adams to Logan.

The district, started more than a year ago, still stands as a record in number of miles of paving and total costs. The area involved includes mostly newly platted sites where new homes have been constructed.

Another resolution was presented to the Council calling for the equalization of assessments in paving district 1150, also in Havelock and just west of district 1182. It is another large district with a total cost of $155,807. Dates for equalization are Dec. 28 and 29.

Water System Material Bids Totaling $349,727 Approved

The City Council has approved bids totaling $349,727 for supplying materials and doing work in connection with the city's overall $6 million water system improvement program.

The city's estimate on the work was $386,300. The largest award Monday went to Dobson Bros. Construction Co. on their low bid of $143,214 for general construction work on new pumps and reservoir piping being installed at the 51st Street pumping station.

A $17,300 bid from W. E. Dingman was approved for electrical work in connection with the same project.

Other projects and the bid accepted:

Pipe and fittings for A Street station, U. S. Pipe and Foundry Co., $32,225.56.
Gate valves for A Street, M&H Valve Co., $17,303.20.
Check valves for A Sreet, S. Morsan Smith Co., $15,510.
Meters for A Street, Simplex Valve & Meter Co., $13,503.
Ashland transfer pump, Fairbanks Morse Co., $19,376.
Worthington Corp., Ashland pipe line pumps, $15,700.
Distribution pumps for 51st Street, Fairbanks Morse Co., $15,370.

The Council rejected the $27,260 bid of the Worthington Corp. for furnishing certain switchgear equipment for 51st Street. The bid was over the city's $25,700 estimate and the engineering department was authorized to purchase the equipment on the open market.

10-Year Air Base Restaurant Lease OKd By Council

A 10-year lease with another five year option on the Municipal Airport terminal building restaurant has been approved by the City Council.

The lessees are Dean, Fred A. and Andy Schizas. Terms of the lease, effective March, 1954, call for the city to receive 5 per cent of the first $5,000 gross receipts, 6 per cent of the second $5,000 gross receipts and 7 per cent on all receipts over $10,000.

Lessees are to pay their own utilities and keep the grounds and building maintained. Time of operation of the restaurant is set from 7 a.m. to midnight.

Council's OK Of Berg Report Ends Water Job

The final official touch has been given the city's issue of $6 million in water revenue bonds with City Council approval of a report by Finance Director Theo Berg on the actual transfer of the bonds and receipt therefor during the past week in Chicago.

Berg reported that the bonds were delivered to the purchaser, Glore, Forgan & Co. and Associates, and $5,940,148.31 received in payment therefor. The city, said Berg, immediately purchased $5,064,800 in U. S. certificates maturing March 22, 1954 with interest at the rate of 1.57 per cent.

The remaining funds were split into three lumps of $291,782.46 each and deposited in three Lincoln banks.

Old Warrants Cancelled By City Council Vote

A resolution has been passed by the City Council cancelling out all warrants drawn by the city clerk prior to Dec. 21, 1948 in payment of municipal obligations which have never been presented for payment, except registered warrants.

Deputy City Attorney Jack Pace has ruled that a warrant, other than one payable out of funds levied for special improvements, ceases to be a valid obligation after five years and such warrants cannt be legally paid thereafter.

Aggression Threat Is Over—Tito

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—President Tito said Monday Yugoslavia pulled her troops back from the Trieste border because danger of aggression that area has ceased.

Tito made the statement on the heels of an announcement that Yugoslavia and Italian reinforcements facing each other at the frontiers since October, have both been withdrawn and that only normal border patrols remain.

Tito said that his forces had acted promptly when "our vital interests were jeopardized."

"But when it was clear that the danger ceased, our army withdrew into its barracks," he added.

Yugoslavia and Italy moved heavy army concentrations up to their common frontiers after the British-American announcement that the Trieste zone under Allied control would be turned over to Italian control.

The Allied decision has been held in abeyance, pending efforts to mediate the dispute through Big Three-backed negotiations.

Air Mail from Santa Claus

Iglooville, North Pole
December 22

Dear Children: What a Christmas this is going to be! Surely all the little boys and girls in the world have been good this year. Never have I packed so many gifts in my sleigh. I'll tell you a secret—I have had to put a trailer on my sleigh this Christmas to hold all the gifts.

The storerooms and the shelves are about empty. And Mrs. Claus can find her chairs and tables and beds, now that the packages have been carried out to the sled and trailer. I have been resting up a bit, because I want to be in fine fettle—whatever that is.

I went down to the barn with Mrs. Claus today to visit Milky Way and Dipper. You have never seen anything like those two deer. They stay side by side all the time, nuzzling and loving each other. Dipper looks much better and walks quite well now. Her coat has become soft and beautiful. Milky Way hobbles around on his three feet, but the injured foot is healing very fast.

I don't remember if I told you that Milky Way and Dipper are smaller than my eight reindeer. They are lovely little things. Of course my reindeer that I drive must be big and strong. All of them love Milky Way and Dipper very much, but Cupid is really foolish about them. She seems to think they are her own children.

Often I find some of the eight deer standing guard while the two smaller deer sleep. They make a happy family. While there is love and kindness, there is happiness.

Love,
Santa Claus

Gov. Crosby To Visit Offices In Statehouse

Gov. Crosby disclosed Monday that he plans to spend Wednesday and Thursday visiting offices in the Statehouse.

He said he is undertaking the visits in connection with the tour of state institutions which he began in the early fall.

"Nobody from away is going to be scheduling conferences with the governor the two days before Christmas, so I figured it would be a good time to do this," he commented.

It Has Been A Long Time Coming

Ceremony On Monday

MRS. ROBERT JOHN SWAIM

The chancel of Trinity Methodist Church at Mitchell was appointed with spreading arrangements of white chrysanthemums and pine boughs, and lighted by tall white candles of graduated height, to form the background for the marriage of Miss Donna Mae Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Elliott of Mitchell, and Lieut. Robert John Swaim, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Swaim of North Platte, on Monday evening, Dec. 21. The 8 o'clock ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Leslie Moore in the presence of 250 guests.

Miss Ann Kokjer of Sidney and Miss Rita Al Goding of Alliance, wearing floor-length robes of white satin, lighted the chancel candles and the white tapers, ornamented with sprays of pine and tied with satin which marked the pews of the processional aisle. Preceding the service, Dale Ganz of Lincoln sang "Ich Liebe Dich," and "Meinelieb," accompanied by Ed Lockwood, organist, who also played the wedding music.

Wearing a waltz-length frock of silk organza in the mauve tone was Mrs. Thomas Buffington of Wauneta, who attended her sister as matron of honor, and the bridesmaids, costumed identically in a deeper tone of silk organza, were Miss Virginia Franks and Miss Barbara Peters of Mitchell. Softly draped stoles of pale pink tulle accented the deep V necklines of the fitted bodices, beneath which the skirts flared into fullness, and the attendants carried crescents of pale pink carnations.

White velvet and nylon tulle over satin fashioned the bride's gown which was designed in the Victorian mode. The molded bodice of velvet was completed by long fitted sleeves, and an embroidered band of iridescent paillettes and seed pearls framed the portrait neckline. The embroidered motif of pearls and paillettes patterned the extremely full skirt of tulle over satin, which swept into a long train, and her English illusion veil was held by a small coronet of pearls. She carried a cascade of white orchids and stephanotis.

Serving his brother as best man was W. D. Swaim of Des Plains, Ill., and seating the guests were G. William Elliott of Pueblo, Colo., and T. D. Buffington of Wauneta.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the parlors of the church. For their honeymoon trip to the Broadmoor Hotel in Colorado Springs, Mrs. Swaim wore a tailored ensemble of Oxford gray flannel with black accessories.

Lieut. and Mrs. Swaim will reside temporarily at Colorado Springs where the bridegroom is stationed with the army. Both are former students at the University of Nebraska where the bride is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta and Pi Lambda Theta, and Lieut. Swaim is a member of Phi Gamma Delta.

Entertains BSP Chapter

Mrs. Guy Vehrs entertained the members of Xi Kappa Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, at the group's annual Christmas party on Friday evening. Assisting Mrs. Vehrs as hostess was Mrs. Leslie Moore.

A short business meeting was followed by an informal evening which included carol singing and a gift exchange when the names of secret sisters were revealed.

Guests of the chapter were Mrs. Corrine Kautzman and Miss Lillian Ekblad.

District 126 Has Program

The annual open house and Christmas party of District 126 PTA was held Friday evening at the school. Following a covered dish supper at 6 o'clock, the pupils and their parents toured the classrooms, and participated in a program of games and carol singing. An exchange of gifts brought the evening to a close.

In charge of arrangements was Mrs. Lawrence Goodwin, PTA program chairman.

SEEMS A long time ago since we began counting the days until Christmas — doubtless because our enthusiasm for the holiday season started right after the Fourth of July, but—some three or four hundred weddings, a couple of million pre-nuptial courtesies, and nine football games later —it is here—and a gay season it is—

* * *

THIS morning is to be a festive one at the home of Mrs. Gene Eaton who has invited 12 guests for a 10 o'clock Christmas coffee at her home—And on Wednesday morning Mrs. Eaton will again be a coffee hostess at her home when she entertains a similar number of guests.

* * *

A PARTY for holiday guests is on the calendar for next Tuesday—and it is a 5 o'clock-to-7 o'clock affair for which Mr. and Mrs. W. Irl Stebbins will be host and hostess at their home when they compliment Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Van Kirk of Washington D. C., who are in Lincoln for the holidays. The guest list will include old school friends of Mr. and Mrs. Van Kirk and Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins.

* * *

SPEAKING of holiday guests—Hear that Helen Cochrane Teal will be arriving from San Francisco on Thursday to spend the holiday period with her mother, Mrs. W. S. Cochrane, and her aunt, Miss Bess Beeson.

* * *

THE young set is festive this holiday season, too — There have been numerous senior teas, in anticipation of June graduations—but the seniors in no way monopolize all of the fun—

On Monday afternoon Miss Susan Fraser was hostess to 80 Lincoln High school sophomores when she entertained at a tea between the hours of 2 o'clock and 5 o'clock.

Assisting in the dining room the first hour were Miss Melissa Miller, Miss Jane McLaughlin, Miss Margaret Gardner and Miss Martha Crocker. Taking their places the second hour were Miss Jean Garlinghouse, Miss Emma Mengel and Miss Virginia Grass, and serving the third period were Miss Sissy Walker, Miss Lucy Webster, Miss Dallas Hunt and Miss Sandra Ellis.

Miss Sara Grabenstein, pianist, presented a program of Christmas music during the afternoon.

* * *

THE approaching week end will be more or less dominated by prenuptial dinners—and weddings, but between now and then there also are courtesies for the late December brides —and bridegrooms.

On Wednesday evening, so someone told us, Dr. and Mrs. Norman Carlson will be host and hostess at a buffet dinner at their home when they honor Miss Mary Margaret Loomis and her fiance, Richard Moulton, whose marriage will be solemnized on Sunday, Dec. 27. The guest list will include only members of the families.

CHRISTMAS night has been chosen by Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Mallory for the prenuptial dinner at Hotel Cornhusker when they honor their daughter, Miss Sally Mallory, and Lieut. Douglas Dale, whose marriage will take place on Saturday, Dec. 26. Dinner places will be arranged for 22 guests, including the members of the families and the bridal party. Out of town guests will include Lieut. Dale's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Dale of Ord, who will arrive on Christmas Day —and Mr. Mallory's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Mallory of Omaha.

* * *

ON THE far side of the week end—Monday, Dec. 28, Mrs. O. V. Calhoun will preside at dinner at the University Club in prenuptial courtesy to her daughter, Miss Jane Calhoun, and Walt Weaver, whose marriage will take place on Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 29.

Dental Wives Luncheon

The national convention of Xi Psi Phi, professional dental fraternity, will be held at the Hotel Cornhusker in Lincoln on Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 28 and 29, when the wives of members attending from out of town will be honored at a luncheon for which the Lincoln wives will be hostesses.

The luncheon will be held at 1 o'clock Monday at the University Club and will be followed by an informal afternoon of bridge. In charge of arrangements are Mrs. Duane Hunt, Mrs. L. D. Arnot and Mrs. Robert Kelly.

Sophomores Have Fun, Too--

This has been a period of senior teas among the feminine 'teen-age circles—but there is no law that says sophomores can't also have fun—and a tea. So on Monday afternoon Miss Susan Fraser was a tea hostess at her home between the hours of 2 o'clock and 5 o'clock—with sophomores at Lincoln high school comprising the large guest list. Probably two years from now Miss Fraser and the members of her high school crowd who assisted at the party, will be senior tea hostesses at some time during the holiday season—but at the moment they are quite happy with their sophomore status—

In the picture we find the hostess and the four young ladies who assisted in the serving the first hour, plus Miss Sara Grabenstein, pianist, who played Christmas music during the tea hours.

—New Year's resolutions are all well in their way, but wouldn't it be fine if one year, at least, New Year's resolutions were all made for the other fellow. How would it work?

Simply let everyone solicit from family and friends suggestions for the resolutions he "should" make. A few examples have already been volunteered:

★

—a business executive wishes the female employees in his office would resolve to stop chewing gum for the duration of 1954.

★

—another B.E. would like everyone in his business to resolve not to talk "shop" during after-office-hours. Enough is enough!

★

—an unmarried sister thinks all the members of her family should resolve to stop telling her brother how to bring up his children.

★

—a mother of three would like certain members of the medical profession to resolve "not to keep patients who have appointments waiting for more than an hour at a time."

★

—one of Lincoln's matrons would like her contemporaries to "face the fleeting years and the sounding voice of doom" and to stop blaming all their ailments on the fact that age is creeping up.

★

—other phobias are listening to the oft-repeated phrases, "It's just one of those things" —or—"It's out of this world."

★

—one seven-year-old probably voices the sentiment of many children. She wishes her mother would resolve not to be so "bossy" and that her father would read to her all the time.

★

—a business man wishes that people who call on the telephone and refuse to wait even a minute, would turn over a new leaf—not leave a number to call back, then be unavailable for the next three days.

Guest And Hostess

It well could be that Miss Nancy Kain (left) of Houston, Tex., who is a pre-holiday guest at the home of Miss Mary Lou Cooper (right), will be able to cross another item off of her "must" list before she leaves Lincoln to return home. Miss Kain, who accompanied her Houston university classmate to Nebraska for the express purpose of getting her first glimpse of snow, saw just a flake or two yesterday—but there may be more before she leaves today for Houston. Miss Cooper, of course, will spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cooper.

Friendship Club Christmas Party

In charge of arrangements were Mrs. DeWitt Venter, Mrs. E. A. Bohlman, Mrs. W. Ault, Mrs. D. H. Venter and Mrs. L. Seymour

To Entertain Classmates

Miss Carol Vermaas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy T. Vermaas, will be hostess at a tea Tuesday afternoon at her home, 2705 Woodsdale, between the hours of 2 o'clock and 4 o'clock. Her guest list of 165 includes all the ninth grade girls at Irving Junior High School.

Assisting as hostesses in the dining room will be Miss Pat Porter, Miss Duana Rankin, Miss Sally Purviance, Miss Suzanne Shoemaker, Miss Sherry Turner and Miss Barbara Barker.

City Beats Paying License Fees On Its Autos

By BILL DOBLER
Star Staff Writer

City officials, reportedly with the help of state officials, have found a way around the recently enacted state law requiring municipalities to pay license fees on all cars except those in the police, fire and street departments.

The solution is a simple one. All city cars, except those already in the exempted classes, have been transferred to the street department.

The resolution which the council approved to accomplish this stated that all city cars except fire and police are hereby assigned to the street department "for said department's management, operation, control and use and shall be registered in the name of the street department."

Theory Change

The change is purely one of theory, as city cars will continue to be operated for the same purposes as they are now. The transfer, according to Deputy City Attorney Jack Pace, resulted from conferences with state department of roads and irrigation officials.

Owen Boyles of the state department stated that his department is not advising municipalities on what to do about the new law.

"We are telling them, however," said Boyles, "that if they want to place the ownership of cars in one department or another is it no concern of ours."

Only Job

Boyles stated he did not feel it was the duty of his department to attempt to determine how or by what city deparments cars were actually being used. This department's only job, he said, is to determine those cars not registered in either the police, fire or street departments.

Boyles said it was his understanding the new law was aimed at federal land bank and the Metropolitan Utilities District of Omaha and other such organizations which are separate entities from the municipalities and in competition with private enterprise. He does not, he said, consider the Lincoln city water and light department in the same class as MUD.

Assessment Date Is Set By Council

A resolution has been approved by the City Council setting the date of Jan. 25 for assessing the $421,000 cost of paving in district 1182, being some six miles of paving between 56th and 66th from Adams to Logan.

The district, started more than a year ago, still stands as a record in number of miles of paving and total costs. The area involved includes mostly newly platted sites where new homes have been constructed.

Another resolution was presented to the Council calling for the equalization of assessments in paving district 1150, also in Havelock and just west of district 1182. It is another large district with a total cost of $155,807. Dates for equalization are Dec. 28 and 29.

Water System Material Bids Totaling $349,727 Approved

The City Council has approved bids totaling $349,727 for supplying materials and doing work in connection with the city's overall $6 million water system improvement program.

The city's estimate on the work was $386,300. The largest award Monday went to Dobson Bros. Construction Co. on their low bid of $143,214 for general construction work on new pumps and reservoir piping being installed at the 51st Street pumping station.

A $17,300 bid from W. E. Dingman was approved for electrical work in connection with the same project.

Other projects and the bid accepted:

Pipe and fittings for A Street station, U.S. Pipe and Foundry Co., $32,225.56.
Gate valves for A Street, M&H Valve Co., $17,303.20.
Check valves for A Sreet, S. Morgan Smith Co., $15,510.
Meters for A Street, Simplex Valve & Meter Co., $13,503.
Ashland transfer pump, Fairbanks Morse Co., $19,336.
Worthington Corp., Ashland pipe line pumps, $15,766.
Distribution pumps for 51st Street, Fairbanks Morse Co., $48,370.

The Council rejected the $27,260 bid of the Worthington Corp. for furnishing certain switchgear equipment for 51st Street. The bid was over the city's $25,700 estimate and the engineering department was authorized to purchase the equipment on the open market.

10-Year Air Base Restaurant Lease OKd By Council

A 10-year lease with another five year option on the Municipal Airport terminal building restaurant has been approved by the City Council.

The lessees are Dean, Fred A. and Andy Schizas. Terms of the lease, effective March, 1954, call for the city to receive 5 per cent of the first $5,000 gross receipts, 6 per cent of the second $5,000 gross receipts and 7 per cent on all receipts over $10,000.

Lessees are to pay their own utilities and keep the grounds and building maintained. Time of operation of the restaurant is set from 7 a.m. to midnight.

Council's OK Of Berg Report Ends Water Job

The final official touch has been given the city's issue of $6 million in water revenue bonds with City Council approval of a report by Finance Director Theo Berg on the actual transfer of the bonds and receipt therefor during the past week in Chicago.

Berg reported that the bonds were delivered to the purchaser, Glore, Forgan & Co. and Associates, and $5,940,148.31 received in payment therefor. The city, said Berg, immediately purchased $5,064,800 in U. S. certificates maturing March 22, 1954 with interest at the rate of 1.57 per cent.

The remaining funds were split into three lumps of $291,782.46 each and deposited in three Lincoln banks.

Old Warrants Cancelled By City Council Vote

A resolution has been passed by the City Council cancelling out all warrants drawn by the city clerk prior to Dec. 21, 1948 in payment of municipal obligations which have never been presented for payment, except registered warrants.

Deputy City Attorney Jack Pace has ruled that a warrant, other than one payable out of funds levied for special improvements, ceases to be a valid obligation after five years and such warrants cannt be legally paid thereafter.

Buying Of Manufactured Goods By Army Slackens

WASHINGTON (AP)— Army purchasing of manufactured goods, which zoomed early in the Korean War, has slowed to a walk and will ease off even more next year, Undersecretary Earl D. Johnson reported Monday.

The cutback, Johnson added, does not mean that money isn't still flowing into industry.

"It means rather," he said, "that industry's backlog of Army orders is shrinking. Money is still flowing out at close to peak rates because of old open orders."

80 Pct. Drop

Johnson, who will leave the government for private business next month, gave this picture in a copyrighted interview in the weekly magazine "U. S. News & World Report."

"During last July, August and September," he said, "we bought about 80 per cent less goods than during the same months last year."

He predicted that Army purchases, now running at about 3¾ billion dollars a year, will drop to 3 billion under current circumstances and "well below" that if contemplated heavy cuts are made in military manpower.

Will Weaken Economy

Johnson said with its present force and mission the Army will spend about 10 per cent less in the current fiscal year, which ends June 30, than last year. In the next fiscal year, he added, "expenditures should go down another 10 per cent, at least," even with a slight upswing in equipment orders next spring.

Asked what effect the cut in military purchasing would have in the face of a predicted gradual decline in business generally, Johnson replied:

"A cut in Army buying will make it (the national economy) weaker—there's no question about that. Army orders won't be the dynamic influence they were when we were expanding."

Hey, We're Pretty Fine Fellows! How About A Home By Christmas Time?

Some of the most hopeful citizens of Lincoln are residing at Lincoln Humane Society at 2320 Park Blvd., these days. They are hoping for a family to adopt them in time for Christmas. Left to right: Dennis Connelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Connelly, 2645 South 43rd, chats with Rusty; Bobby Loomis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Loomis, 5845 "O" holds up two puppies named "Porgy" and "Bess"; a stately eight-month old guy named Sir Winston peers from behind his bars, and a pair of felines peek wistfully from a tree in their cage. Unless someone adopts these animals, they will spend the holidays at the Humane Society. They are being given the best of care, but who can argue the advantages of a loving master? (Star Photos.)

Brown-Layne 'Thinking Duel' Seen In Pro Game

The Firing Line

Cuffing some notes . . . Comes this quote from Coach Curly Lambeau of the Washington Redskins: "Don Boll is future all-pro material. He's the most improved player we have. His progress has been remarkable." . . . Mr. Boll, who now scales 265 pounds, is the former Husker lineman from Scribner . . . Asked why football attendance is dropping in the big towns, Coach Jim Tatum of Maryland said: Notre Dame is the only team which can still fill the stadiums in the east. City folks are too tired bucking heavy traffic during the week to want to go now." . . . Trouble is they're giving Chalky the wrong answers.

To R. C. Johnston, who asked: Rocky Marciano has never fought Ezzard Charles, even in an exhibition. After watching Old Ez batter Coley Wallace, we think he deserves a shot at the champ.

Charles Connelly, president of the Notre Dame club of Lincoln, passes along this little yarn on the No. 2 Irish center, Dick Szymanski.

Dick was a witness in a South Bend court on a traffic case. After being sworn to tell the truth, et cetera, he was asked by the judge:

"How good a center are you?"

"Judge, I'm positively the best center Notre Dame ever had," was the gridder's reply.

A coach named Leahy who always considers Szymanski one of his most modest Irishmen, was startled at the reply and later asked him why he made it.

"It was a bit unusual, coach," said Szymanski, "but you see I was under oath."

If you Notre Dame fans want to compare notes with Charley, call him at 4-5987.

W. G. (Web) Emery, the former Husker swim coach, is now a sales representative for a local insurance agency . . . A fine fellow, Web. . . . Art Wall Jr., the pro who recently won the big Miami Open, is working in the postoffice during the Christmas rush in his home town of Honesdale, Pa. . . . Most relieved guy The Firing Line has chatted with recently: Potsy Clark, immediately after he had announced his resignation as Husker athletic director. . . . Much of the printed criticism on Potsy was leveled by a source far removed from the Husker athletic department. . . . Potsy added some excellent rivals to the Nebraska football schedule, including Illinois, and was responsible for the game with Hawaii which caps the 1954 season. . . . That's a grand reward after a heavy season for any gridder.

Johnny Hopp, our favorite big leaguer from Hastings, will be third base coach for the Detroit Tigers next summer. . . . Schoolboy Rowe will be on first, Bob Swift will handle the bull pen and Fred Hutchinson will be a bench manager. . . . Whitey Wietelmann, the new Lincoln Chiefs skipper, signed his first pro contract at 16 with Beaver Falls, Pa., of the Penn State League. . . . Three years later, he was in a Boston Brave uniform . . . Clark King tells us that Dr. Norman Johnson, the Huskers' best rooter in Vermont, has been seriously ill. . . . The doctor, who is The Firing Line's old Penn State companion, lives at 50 Piedmont St., in Rutland, Vt.

Arrests Taper Off

The closing of major hunting seasons in Nebraska was reflected in the sharp drop of arrests reported by the Nebraska Game Commission. Only two arrests were announced Tuesday.

Robert E. Allen of South Sioux City was fined $5 and costs and assessed $25 in liquidated damages for having an over bag limit of ducks.

Give Me A Home

The chap above is named Santa. He's two months old and is about the most lonesome guy in Lincoln. You'll find him at the Humane Society, along with other pets up for adoption, as listed at the top of the page.

through it again on Saturday." . . . Hey, Jim, how about this little matter of television?

Seems funny when you realize that Jackie Robinson is now a graying 35. He says: "Since I was moved from second base to left field, I've taken a new lease on life. Left field is much simpler to play than second. When you're in the infield, you're making plays all the time. In the outfield sometimes you might go a full game without a fly."

Says Boxer Chalky Wright, who's made a half million during a lengthy career (some say he boxed for Abe Lincoln): "I haven't got a dime today and I don't play the horses or drink. I prefer the dice. You make a bet on a horse and you have to wait to hear how you come out. The dice tell you right

Oklahoma Aggies Topple Illinois

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Oklahoma A & M toppled Illinois from the ranks of the nation's undefeated basketball teams Monday night, winning 65-60 in overtime as substitute Center Bob Hendrick sparked a closing attack.

The loss interrupted a string of five straight victories for the Illini, who are ranked fourth in the country in the Associated Press poll. For the Aggies, the country's No. 7 club, it was the eighth victory of the season.

A & M's only loss was in overtime to another Big Ten club, Minnesota.

The Aggies put Illinois in the hole 11-3 at the start, were in front 39-32 at halftime and held the upper hand until midway in the final period when the Illini managed a 52-52 tie. Center Johnny Kerr's layup climaxed the rally.

In the overtime, Hendrick scored five of his 13-point total production for the evening as Illinois was held to a lone basket by Morris Sterneck.

Oregon Slaps Huskers, 84-68; Johnson Gets 20

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP) — Oregon, leading all the way, took an easy 84-68 basketball victory from Nebraska here Monday night.

Backboard control, ball hustling and superior shooting gave Oregon the margin, although Nebraska's marksmanship from the field was good, too.

Nebraska trailed 28-14 at the quarter and 48-29 at the half, but a third quarter spurt, led by substitute Center Gary Renzelman and Forward Don Weber, closed the gap to 63-49.

Bill Johnson, Nebraska center, led the scoring with 20 points, including 7 field goals. He had trouble at the foul line, though, missing 7 of 13 tries.

High for Oregon was Ed Halberg, forward, with 17 points.

Oregon hit 31 of 64 shots from the field for a .484 percentage, while Nebraska hit 25 of 61 tries from the field for a .410 percentage.

It was the second loss in Oregon for Nebraska. The Corn-Huskers lost to Oregon State Saturday night 83-55.

Kentucky To Face LaSalle

...'Cats Hit Duke

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Kentucky eased by Duke, 85-69, Monday night to join LaSalle in the championship showdown of the first annual University of Kentucky Invitational Basketball tournament.

LaSalle edged UCLA, 62-53, in the opening game.

Duke and UCLA will tangle in tonight's consolation game at 7:30 p.m. CST and will be followed about 9:30 p.m. by the clash between Kentucky, the nation's second ranking power, and La Salle, number 20.

A hot shooting Duke team gave Kentucky all it could handle for two quarters and was trailing by just 40-37 at the half. Before the third period had ended, however, the Wildcats were breezing. Going into the fourth quarter, they were leading by 70-52.

All Quiet Along NU Sports Front

All was quiet along the University of Nebraska athletic front Monday.

Both the Board of Regents and the Athletic Board, who are soon to start a probe for a new athletic director and a general investigation into the department, had nothing to say.

"Wait until we hold a joint meeting on Jan. 9," was the word from both groups.

Soviet Press Hits U.S. 'Auto Polo'

MOSCOW (AP)— American sport is criticized in the Soviet press almost as frequently and bitterly as American foreign policy.

Often American sport is denounced as professional, mercenary, brutal, murderous, degrading. And sometimes, like the game of baseball, it is called piracy of a Russian invention.

The latest Soviet criticism hits the game of auto polo. Many Americans here haven't even heard about it, but Soviet newspaper readers were told about it recently in a news item which proclaimed:

"United States advertises sensational new sport called auto polo. Drivers of autos fight for the ball on rough and broken field at very high speeds. Often the result of such games is victims among the spectators as well as the players.

Ukraine Pravda wrapped up its criticism in a poem.

Fish Eggs Booming

Game Commission personnel at the Rock Creek fish hatchery are convinced that 'the egg came before the fish." Thousands and thousands of brown and rainbow trout eggs are now in hatching troughs at Rock Creek, the states largest trout nursery.

Many of the eggs were taken from the hatchery's own spawners while others were obtained from the federal fish hatcheries at Spearfish, S. Dak., and Crawford.

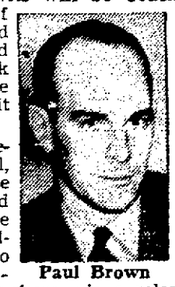
Hatching of trout eggs requires approximately one month of time. After hatched, the trout fry are reared to yearlings before release in Nebraska waters.

Paul Calls Plays From Bench, Bob From Field

By JOE FALLS

DETROIT (AP) — A "thinking duel" should add spice to Sunday's pro football championship game in Briggs Stadium.

Matching wits will be Coach Paul Brown of the Cleveland Browns and Quarterback Bobby Layne of the Detroit Lions.



Paul Brown

Brown, a demon for detail, calls the Cleveland plays from the sidelines, sending them in to his quarterback, Otto Graham, via a relay system of linemen. He sometimes calls an entire series of plays, sometimes only one play at a time.

The burden of calling Detroit's plays rests almost entirely with Layne, a six-year veteran who lerned his football at Texas University.

"Layne calls most of the plays," Says Lion Coach Buddy Parker. "I have complete confidence in him.

"Sometimes, I'll send in a play," Parker added, "but never more than three or four a game. Our coaching staff may see something which Layne doesn't.

"When we're on defense, Layne and I talk over the plays on the sidelines. But he calls 'em when he's out there."

Detroit's system is more conventional but you can't deny Brown's near-perfect success. In eight seasons, the Browns have won eight straight divisional titles. That includes four in the old All-America Conference.

Brown and Parker disagree on another point. Brown hopes the weather remains above freezing, for fear the frozen turf might cause injury to his players.

"The cold doesn't bother us at all," says Parker. "We're used to playing in sub-freezing weather."

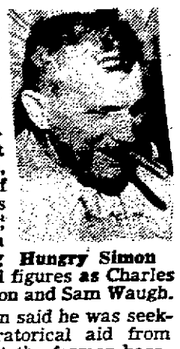
The temperature was in the 20's last year when the Lions beat the Browns, 17-7, for the championship. The Detroit weather bureau says it's a little too early to forecast Sunday's weather but indicates that it should be below the freezing point.

Old-Timer Fete Slated Feb. 5

...Hungry To Speak

Baseball in Lincoln will draw its first official breath for the 1954 season on Feb. 5 at the Cornhusker Hotel.

That is the date of the Old-Timers' Baseball banquet, as announced Monday by Chairman Ambrose Alexander.



Hungry Simon

Mr. Alexander said that Park Carroll, president of the Kansas City Blues, would be a speaker along with such local figures as Charles "Hungry" Simon and Sam Waugh.

The chairman said he was seeking further oratorical aid from Scotty Dye, but the former baseball figure was being a bit bashful.

"Scotty will be on that speakers' stand that night of Feb. 5, however," promised Alexander.

The Old-Timers have also issued an invitation to Whitey Weitelmann, new field manager of the Lincoln Chiefs who is wintering in San Diego.

Iowa Wins 78-72 Over Colorado U.

IOWA CITY, Ia. (AP) — Iowa won its 61st straight non-conference basketball victory on its home court Monday night by coming from behind at the half to defeat the University of Colorado, 78-72.

The fighting Colorado team led for 33 minutes of the game and was ahead 42-38 at the half. Then the Hawkeyes came to life in the final period to eke out the victory. Forwards Bill Logan and Carl Cain were top scorers for Iowa with 20 points each.

Oregon Slaps Huskers, 84-68; Johnson Gets 20

CORVALLIS, Ore. (AP) — Oregon, leading all the way, took an easy 84-68 basketball victory from Nebraska here Monday night.

Backboard control, ball hustling and superior shooting gave Oregon the margin, although Nebraska's marksmanship from the field was good, too.

Nebraska trailed 28-14 at the quarter and 48-29 at the half, but a third quarter spurt, led by substitute Center Gary Renzelman and Forward Don Weber, closed the gap to 63-49.

Bill Johnson, Nebraska center, led the scoring with 20 points, including 7 field goals. He had trouble at the foul line, though, missing 7 of 13 tries.

High for Oregon was Ed Halberg, forward, with 17 points.

Oregon hit 31 of 64 shots from the field for a .484 percentage, while Nebraska hit 25 of 61 tries from the field for a .410 percentage.

It was the second loss in Oregon for Nebraska. The Corn-Huskers lost to Oregon State Saturday night 83-55.

Basketball In West Is Said 'On Upgrade'

NEW YORK (AP)—Bob Feerick, outspoken young coach of Santa Clara's basketball team, said college basketball definitely is on the upgrade in the far west and predicted that UCLA and Oregon State would meet in the Pacific Coast Conference championship playoff next February.

Feerick, whose Broncos clash with St. John's of Brooklyn in Madison Square Garden tonight as part of an intersectional doubleheader that also features Utah State and New York University, picked UCLA to win the coast title "only because the game will be played on UCLA's home court.

"I believe Oregon State is the best team in the conference," he said Monday, "but nobody is going to beat UCLA on UCLA's court. I wouldn't call the Bruins 'homers,' but they must have won 56 of their last 57 home games. We stopped going down there and as a result they cut us off their schedule."

Feerick was especially enthusiastic over Swede Holbrook, Oregon State's 7-3 center whom he called one of the best big men in the country.

"The boy, despite his tremendous size, is no goon," he said. "He can hook with either hand, he's a fine rebounder and not bad on defense."

The former star forward of the professional Washington Capitols, now in his third year at Santa Clara, refused to make any predictions for his own team but expressed satisfaction over the improvements of the Broncos.

Kentucky To Face LaSalle

. . . 'Cats Hit Duke

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Kentucky eased by Duke, 85-69, Monday night to join LaSalle in the championship showdown of the first annual University of Kentucky Invitational Basketball tournament.

LaSalle edged UCLA, 62-53, in the opening game.

Duke and UCLA will tangle in tonight's consolation game at 7:30 p.m. CST and will be followed about 9:30 p.m. by the clash between Kentucky, the nation's second ranking power, and La Salle, number 20.

A hot shooting Duke team gave Kentucky all it could handle for two quarters and was trailing by just 40-37 at the half. Before the third period had ended, however, the Wildcats were breezing. Going into the fourth quarter, they were leading by 70-52.

All Quiet Along NU Sports Front

All was quiet along the University of Nebraska athletic front Monday.

Both the Board of Regents and the Athletic Board, who are soon to start a probe for a new athletic director and a general investigation into the department, had nothing to say.

"Wait until we hold a joint meeting on Jan. 9," was the word from both groups.

Soviet Press Hits U.S. 'Auto Polo'

MOSCOW (AP)— American sport is criticized in the Soviet press almost as frequently and bitterly as American foreign policy.

Often American sport is denounced as professional, mercenary, brutal, murderous, degrading. And sometimes, like the game of baseball, it is called piracy of a Russian invention.

The latest Soviet criticism hits the game of auto polo. Many Americans here haven't even heard about it, but Soviet newspaper readers were told about it recently in a news item which proclaimed:

"United States advertises sensational new sport called auto polo. Drivers of autos fight for the ball on rough and broken field at very high speeds. Often the result of such games is victims among the spectators as well as the players.

Ukraine Pravda wrapped up its criticism in a poem.

Fish Eggs Booming

Game Commission personnel at the Rock Creek fish hatchery are convinced that 'the egg came before the fish." Thousands and thousands of brown and rainbow trout eggs are now in hatching troughs at Rock Creek, the states largest trout nursery.

Many of the eggs were taken from the hatchery's own spawners while others were obtained from the federal fish hatcheries at Spearfish, S. Dak., and Crawford.

Hatching of trout eggs requires approximately one month of time. After hatched, the trout fry are reared to yearlings before release in Nebraska waters.

Paul Calls Plays From Bench, Bob From Field

By JOE FALLS

DETROIT (AP) — A "thinking duel" should add spice to Sunday's pro football championship game in Briggs Stadium.

Matching wits will be Coach Paul Brown of the Cleveland Browns and Quarterback Bobby Layne of the Detroit Lions.

Paul Brown

Brown, a demon for detail, calls the Cleveland plays from the sidelines, sending them in to his quarterback, Otto Graham, via a relay system of linemen. He sometimes calls an entire series of plays, sometimes only one play at a time.

The burden of calling Detroit's plays rests almost entirely with Layne, a six-year veteran who lerned his football at Texas University.

"Layne calls most of the plays," Says Lion Coach Buddy Parker. "I have complete confidence in him.

"Sometimes, I'll send in a play," Parker added, "but never more than three or four a game. Our coaching staff may see something which Layne doesn't.

"When we're on defense, Layne and I talk over the plays on the sidelines. But he calls 'em when he's out there."

Detroit's system is more conventional but you can't deny Brown's near-perfect success. In eight seasons, the Browns have won eight straight divisional titles. That includes four in the old All-America Conference.

In the last two years, though, Cleveland went all the way to the title game, where it was upset.

Brown and Parker disagree on another point. Brown hopes the weather remains above freezing, for fear the frozen turf might cause injury to his players.

"The cold doesn't bother us at all," says Parker. "We're used to playing in sub-freezing weather."

The temperature was in the 20's last year when the Lions beat the Browns, 17-7, for the championship. The Detroit weather bureau says it's a little too early to forecast Sunday's weather but indicates that it should be below the freezing point.

Old-Timer Fete Slated Feb. 5

. . . Hungry To Speak

Baseball in Lincoln will draw its first official breath for the 1954 season on Feb. 5 at the Cornhusker Hotel.

That is the date of the Old-Timers' Baseball banquet, as announced Monday by Chairman Ambrose Alexander.

Hungry Simon

Mr. Alexander said that Park Carroll, president of the Kansas City Blues, would be a speaker along with such local figures as Charles "Hungry" Simon and Sam Waugh.

The chairman said he was seeking further oratorical aid from Scotty Dye, but the former baseball figure was being a bit bashful.

"Scotty will be on that speakers' stand that night of Feb. 5, however," promised Alexander.

The Old-Timers have also issued an invitation to Whitey Weitelmann, new field manager of the Lincoln Chiefs who is wintering in San Diego.

Oklahoma Aggies Topple Illinois

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—Oklahoma A & M toppled Illinois from the ranks of the nation's undefeated basketball teams Monday night, winning 65-60 in overtime as substitute Center Bob Hendrick sparked a closing attack.

The loss interrupted a string of five straight victories for the Illini, who are ranked fourth in the country in the Associated Press poll. For the Aggies, the country's No. 7 club, it was the eighth victory of the season.

A & M's only loss was in overtime to another Big Ten club, Minnesota.

The Aggies put Illinois in the hole 11-3 at the start, were in front 39-32 at halftime and held the upper hand until midway in the final period when the Illini managed a 52-52 tie. Center Johnny Kerr's layup climaxed the rally.

In the overtime, Hendrick scored five of his 13-point total production for the evening as Illinois was held to a lone basket by Morris Sterneck.

Arrests Taper Off

The closing of major hunting seasons in Nebraska was reflected in the sharp drop of arrests reported by the Nebraska Game Commission. Only two arrests were announced Tuesday.

Robert E. Allen of South Sioux City was fined $5 and costs and assessed $25 in liquidated damages for having an over bag limit of ducks.

Package Deal Helped Both Clubs

Yanks, Athletics Got What They Needed

By PAT ROBINSON

NEW YORK (INS) — George Weiss, the brains of the Yanks, passed the word along.

"Boys," he told the other clubs, "do your Christmas shopping early if you want but before you buy anything see me."

So the apathetic Athletics went shopping around the American League, eyed all the goods and the price tags, and then came back to George.

That 13-player package deal was the result.

Now if there is anybody in the house who still thinks the Yanks are lucky, just take a look at this deal.

Casey Stengel told Weiss he had to have a first string pitcher and a pinch-hitter to replace Johnny Mize, retired. If the pinch-hitter could also play first base, so much the better.

So George went out and got Harry Byrd and Eddie Robinson for a flock of players they didn't need and cash.

Now on the face of it, this deal looks like the biggest robbery since the Brinks job in Boston. But is it? Let's see.

The Yanks got what they wanted and lost nothing.

The A's lost an aged first baseman who wasn't doing them too much good and a good pitcher who won 11 games for them while losing 20

True, Byrd may become a great star with the Yanks behind him but he alone couldn't get the A's anywhere.

The A's needed a complete overhauling and the Yanks gave them the opportunity.

The A's got Vic Power, a .345 power-hitter who can play first base or the outfield. Vic is a Negro and undoubtedly will be a great drawing card in Philadelphia where the A's have been suffering from box office anemia.

They also got First Baseman Don Bollweg, Catcher Al Robertson, Pitcher Don Gray, Outfielder Bill Renna and Third Baseman Jim Finnegan.

One or more of these might develop into a star and certainly most of them are an improvement over what the A's have had.

Braves' Move To Milwaukee Voted Top INS Story Of 1953

By JOHN BARRINGTON

NEW YORK (INS)—The biggest sports story of 1953 didn't take place on the diamond or the gridiron or in the prize ring —nor any other arena of athletic strife.

The top sports story—in a rating compiled by International News Service as the old year breathes its labored last—was the transfer last march of the Boston Braves to Milwaukee.

More significant than either the New York Yankees' fifth straight world championship or Ben Hogan's golfing grand slam, which are rated the second and third best yarns of '53, the Braves' switch was the first major league franchise shuffle in 50 years.

It was followed, six months later, by the St. Louis Browns' move to Baltimore. And it opened the way for a whole series of other changes and expansions in the big league map. Realignment, only a long-range dream before, became a reality with the Braves as its pioneer.

Moreover, the experiment worked beyond anybody's wildest dreams. The Braves climbed from seventh place to second in the National League standings, while setting an all-time league attendance record of 1,826,397.

Here are the year's top ten sports stories in the INS survey:

1. Braves shift to Milwaukee.
2. Yankees' fifth straight world championship—an all-time record, but a habit getting to be so generally accepted that they'll be favored heavily to make it six in a row.
3. Ben Hogan's victories in Masters, U.S, and British Opens —climax to one of the most amazing comebacks in sports history.
4. Charley Dressen quits Brooklyn—only the second time a pennant-winning manager hasn't returned, a dispute over the length of his contract divorced Charley from the Dodgers.
5. Rocky Marciano's two minute, 25-second knockout of Jersey Joe Walcott—added new credence to the legend of Rocky's punching power; subsequent Roland LaStarza kayo was 40th in 45 pro bouts.
6. Native Dancer's defeat by Dark Star in Kentucky Derby—only loss of gray colt's career, before or since.
7. The 14-14 Notre Dame-Iowa tie—Irish lost INS national collegiate football championship to Maryland despite controversial clock-stopping faked injuries.
8. Wes Santee's 4.02.4 mile—an American record.
9. Ted William's return to baseball—war hero hit .407, 13 homers in inspiring comeback.
10. Death of Jim Thorpe—end of an era in sports.

Rosewilde Doubles Entries Increased

A boost of 41 per cent in number of entries in the recently completed Rosewilde Doubles bowling tournament was recorded.

The increase over 1952 was 81. There were 277 entries this year, compared to 196 the previous year.

Mixed doubles showed an increase of 80 per cent while men's doubles were up 30 per cent.

The interest outstate is growing, too. George Smith, boss of the Rosewilde, estimates that nearly 40 per cent of his entries this year came from outside of Lincoln.

Bill and Tom Elliott of Denver won the men's doubles with 1,343 while Louise Bennett and Marc Sheldon of Omaha took the mixed title with 1,321.

The top places:

Henry Pounds Out Win Over Baker

BROOKLYN (AP) — Underdog Clarence Henry gave away 27 pounds Monday night and hammered Bob Baker around the ring in a savage ninth round to nail down a unanimous 10-round decision victory at Eastern Parkway. Henry weighed 184½ and Baker 211½.

Out-boxing the hulking Pittsburgh Negro, Henry scored consistently with his left hooks and then beat off an attack by Baker in the wild ninth

Henry opened up a wide lead, stalking Baker, who appeared dull, in the early rounds But in the sixth and seventh Baker began to come on as Henry appeared tired Clarence, however, had plenty left for a strong finish.

Duke Ellis Resigns At William Penn

OSKALOOSA, Ia. (AP) — The resignation of Laurel (Duke) Ellis as football and basketball coach at William Penn College here was disclosed Monday by the Rev Charles S Ball, college president

Rev Ball said Ellis became discouraged over results of Penn's football showing this years—its first season since 1949 when the gridiron sport was dropped Penn scheduled four games and lost them all, including a 103-0 defeat at the hands of Iowa Wesleyan.

Ellis, whose home is at York, Neb, came here from Friends University, Wichita, Kan. He previously attended Bethel College, Newton, Kan. and Nebraska Central at Central City, Neb.

One-Eyed Connelly, World's Champion Athletic Event Gate-Crasher, Is Dead

ZION, Ill. (AP) — James Leo (One-Eyed) Connelly, world champion gate-crasher, is dead.

He died Sunday in a rest home at the age of 84. He had no relatives.

For a half century, Connelly carried on a personal crusade to outwit the gatemen at sporting events and political conventions.

He succeeded, posing as vendor, iceman, carpenter, or anything else that struck his fancy. By his own count, he crossed the U.S. 102 times on gate-crashing forays and also invaded Europe and Australia.

Connelly, who lost the sight of his left eye in a boxing ring at the age of 18, once told friends that he had crashed nearly all heavyweight championship fights since 1897.

"It started with the Corbett-Fitzsimmons match in Carson City, Nev.," he recalled "I told the gatekeepers I had overheard two thugs plotting in town to rob the counting room. I was invited through the gates to keep a watch for them"

Connelly also used to tell of the Dempsey-Carpentier bout at Boyle's Thirty Acres in Jersey City, N. J.

"I was tossed out of 13 of the 15 entrances, but went through the 14th," he said. "I borrowed a pail of coffee and a basket of sandwiches from the telegraph crew and the gateman thought I was a vendor."

At the Dempsey-Gibbons fight in Shelby, Mont., Connelly said he posed as an iceman and lugged 80 pounds of ice through the door for the coolers.

When the Democratic Party held a nominating session in 1940, Connelly walked in carrying a door he had appropriated from a nearby cafe.

Pesek Vs. Gagne?

There will be no wrestle card at the fairgrounds arena tonight.

Promoter Adam Krieger has signed Vern Gagne, the U.S. champion, for a card, Dec. 29. He is seeking Jack Pesek, former Husker gridder, as a foe for the former Minnesota footballer.

"This will be Nebraska against Minnesota," said Krieger. "These two boys are the best of the young wrestle crop."

Gophers Pressed To Beat Hurricanes

TULSA, Okla. (AP) —Unbeaten Minnesota took Tulsa in its basketball stride Monday night but not without a battle as the Golden Hurricane pressed the Gophers to a 66-63 finish.

Minnesota defeated Tulsa in an earlier game this season, 61-60.

The lead changed hands four times aand the game was tied three times during the furious fourth period which the Gophers entered a one-point edge, 49-48.

With the score 59-59 and four minutes to go Virgil Miller, Glenn Reed and Ed Kalafat went to work for Minnesota to pull away from the rallying Tulsans led by Dick Courter and Dick Nunneley.

Kalafat sank a final pair of free throws, clinching the game for the Gophers.

High point man was Dick Garmaker, Minnesota forward with 20 points Nunneley, who netted 13, held Chuck Mencel, All-Big Ten guard, to four free throws for the night.

The big difference was at the charity line where the visitors held a 26-13 advantage over the Hurricane.

Yankees Schedule Extra Night Games

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Yankees Monday joined the trend to more night baseball with the announcement they will play 16 night games in 1954—two more than usual.

The club also broke tradition by scheduling two of the night games on Saturdays.

General Manager George Weiss said an experiment the past season with one Saturday night contest had met with favorable response. The Yankees usually confine their home night play to Tuesdays and Fridays.

Three night games will be played with Boston and Cleveland and two with each of the other teams.

The Yanks scheduled seven doubleheaders—two on holidays, the others on Sundays.

The Yankee Stadium season will open April 15 against Philadelphia.

Package Deal Helped Both Clubs

Yanks, Athletics Got What They Needed

By PAT ROBINSON

NEW YORK (INS) — George Weiss, the brains of the Yanks, passed the word along.

"Boys," he told the other clubs, "do your Christmas shopping early if you want but before you buy anything see me."

So the apathetic Athletics went shopping around the American League, eyed all the goods and the price tags, and then came back to George.

That 13-player package deal was the result.

Now if there is anybody in the house who still thinks the Yanks are lucky, just take a look at this deal.

Casey Stengel told Weiss he had to have a first string pitcher and a pinch-hitter to replace Johnny Mize, retired. If the pinch-hitter could also play first base, so much the better.

So George went out and got Harry Byrd and Eddie Robinson for a flock of players they didn't need and cash.

Now on the face of it, this deal looks like the biggest robbery since the Brinks job in Boston. But is it? Let's see.

The Yanks got what they wanted and lost nothing.

The A's lost an aged first baseman who wasn't doing them too much good and a good pitcher who won 11 games for them while losing 20.

True, Byrd may become a great star with the Yanks behind him but he alone couldn't get the A's anywhere.

The A's needed a complete overhauling and the Yanks gave them the opportunity.

The A's got Vic Power, a .345 power-hitter who can play first base or the outfield. Vic is a Negro and undoubtedly will be a great drawing card in Philadelphia where the A's have been suffering from box office anemia.

They also got First Baseman Don Bollweg, Catcher Al Robertson, Pitcher Don Gray, Outfielder Bill Renna and Third Baseman Jim Finnegan.

One or more of these might develop into a star and certainly most of them are an improvement over what the A's have had.

Braves' Move To Milwaukee Voted Top INS Story Of 1953

By JOHN BARRINGTON

NEW YORK (INS)—The biggest sports story of 1953 didn't take place on the diamond or the gridiron or in the prize ring —nor any other arena of athletic strife.

The top sports story—in a rating compiled by International News Service as the old year breathes its labored last—was the transfer last march of the Boston Braves to Milwaukee.

More significant than either the New York Yankees' fifth straight world championship or Ben Hogan's golfing grand slam, which are rated the second and third best yarns of '53, the Braves' switch was the first major league franchise shuffle in 50 years.

It was followed, six months later, by the St. Louis Browns' move to Baltimore. And it opened the way for a whole series of other changes and expansions in the big league map. Realignment, only a long-range dream before, became a reality with the Braves as its pioneer.

Moreover, the experiment worked beyond anybody's wildest dreams. The Braves climbed from seventh place to second in the National League standings, while setting an all-time league attendance record of 1,826,397.

Here are the year's top ten sports stories in the INS survey:

1. Braves shift to Milwaukee.
2. Yankees' fifth straight world championship—an all-time record, but a habit getting to be so generally accepted that they'll be favored heavily to make it six in a row.
3. Ben Hogan's victories in Masters, U.S., and British Opens —climax to one of the most amazing comebacks in sports history.
4. Charley Dressen quits Brooklyn—only the second time a pennant-winning manager hasn't returned; a dispute over the length of his contract divorced Charley from the Dodgers.
5. Rocky Marciano's two minute, 25-second knockout of Jersey Joe Walcott—added new credence to the legend of Rocky's punching power; subsequent Roland LaStarza kayo was 40th in 45 pro bouts.
6. Native Dancer's defeat by Dark Star in Kentucky Derby—only loss of gray colt's career, before or since.
7. The 14-14 Notre Dame-Iowa tie—Irish lost INS national collegiate football championship to Maryland despite controversial clock-stopping faked injuries.
8. Wes Santee's 4:02.4 mile—an American record.
9. Ted William's return to baseball—war hero hit .407, 13 homers in inspiring comeback.
10. Death of Jim Thorpe—end of an era in sports.

Rosewilde Doubles Entries Increased

A boost of 41 per cent in number of entries in the recently completed Rosewilde Doubles bowling tournament was recorded.

The increase over 1952 was 81. There were 277 entries this year, compared to 196 the previous year.

Mixed doubles showed an increase of 80 per cent while men's doubles were up 30 per cent.

The interest outstate is growing, too. George Smith, boss of the Rosewilde, estimates that nearly 40 per cent of his entries this year came from outside of Lincoln.

Bill and Tom Elliott of Denver won the men's doubles with 1,343 while Louise Bennett and Marc Sheldon of Omaha took the mixed title with 1,321.

The top places:

Men's Doubles

Bill Elliott-Tom Elliott	1229-114	—1343

Henry Pounds Out Win Over Baker

BROOKLYN (AP) — Underdog Clarence Henry gave away 27 pounds Monday night and hammered Bob Baker around the ring in a savage ninth round to nail down a unanimous 10-round decision victory at Eastern Parkway. Henry weighed 184½ and Baker 211½.

Out-boxing the hulking Pittsburgh Negro, Henry scored consistently with his left hooks and then beat off an attack by Baker in the wild ninth.

Henry opened up a wide lead, stalking Baker, who appeared dull, in the early rounds. But in the sixth and seventh Baker began to come on as Henry appeared tired. Clarence, however, had plenty left for a strong finish.

Duke Ellis Resigns At William Penn

OSKALOOSA, Ia. (AP) — The resignation of Laurel (Duke) Ellis as football and basketball coach at William Penn College here was disclosed Monday by the Rev. Charles S. Ball, college president.

Rev. Ball said Ellis became discouraged over results of Penn's football showing this years—its first season since 1949 when the gridiron sport was dropped. Penn scheduled four games and lost them all, including a 103-0 defeat at the hands of Iowa Wesleyan.

Ellis, whose home is at York, Neb., came here from Friends University, Wichita, Kan. He previously attended Bethel College, Newton, Kan., and Nebraska Central at Central City, Neb.

One-Eyed Connelly, World's Champion Athletic Event Gate-Crasher, Is Dead

ZION, Ill. (AP) — James Leo (One-Eyed) Connelly, world champion gate-crasher, is dead.

He died Sunday in a rest home at the age of 84. He had no relatives.

For a half century, Connelly carried on a personal crusade to outwit the gatemen at sporting events and political conventions.

He succeeded, posing as vendor, iceman, carpenter, or anything else that struck his fancy. By his own count, he crossed the U.S. 102 times on gate-crashing forays and also invaded Europe and Australia.

Connelly, who lost the sight of his left eye in a boxing ring at the age of 18, once told friends that he had crashed nearly all heavyweight championship fights since 1897.

"It started with the Corbett-Fitzsimmons match in Carson City, Nev.," he recalled. "I told the gatekeepers I had overheard two thugs plotting in town to rob the counting room. I was invited through the gates to keep a watch for them."

Connelly also used to tell of the Dempsey-Carpentier bout at Boyle's Thirty Acres in Jersey City, N. J.

"I was tossed out of 13 of the 15 entrances, but went through the 14th," he said. "I borrowed a pail of coffee and a basket of sandwiches from the telegraph crew and the gateman thought I was a vendor."

At the Dempsey-Gibbons fight in Shelby, Mont., Connelly said he posed as an iceman and lugged 80 pounds of ice through the door for the coolers.

When the Democratic Party held a nominating session in 1940, Connelly walked in carrying a door he had appropriated from a nearby cafe.

Pesek Vs. Gagne?

There will be no wrestle card at the fairgrounds arena tonight.

Promoter Adam Krieger has signed Vern Gagne, the U.S. champion, for a card, Dec. 29. He is seeking Jack Pesek, former Husker gridder, as a foe for the former Minnesota footballer.

"This will be Nebraska against Minnesota," said Krieger. "These two boys are the best of the young wrestle crop."

Blevens Sentenced To 13 Years In Pen

BERLIN (AP)—U.S. Army Pvt. Robert D. Blevens was convicted Monday of conspiring to lure American soldiers behind the Iron Curtain and consorting with Red Secret Police. He was sentenced to 13 years in prison.

The 29-year-old soldier from Omaha, Neb., also was convicted by a seven-member general court marial of deserting twice to the Russian Zone and breaking out of a U.S. military stockade in West Berlin.

The convictions and sentences are subject to review in the Berlin command, U.S. Army European Headquarters in Heidelberg, and in Washington.

The court deliberated an hour and 10 minutes in finding Blevens guilty of all five charges against him.

Smith Act Violation

Blevens was convicted of violating the Smith Act, which forbids consorting with a group advocating violent overthrow of the U.S. government. He was convicted of affiliating with the East German State Security Service, a gestapo-like secret police agency.

About a month ago, Army Pvt. Robert Dorey pleaded guilty to violating the Smith Act. He was sentenced to 15 years imprisonment, later reduced to 3 years.

Blevens was convicted also of conspiring with his German girl friend, Ingrid Jonek, to entice American servicemen to desert to the Russian Zone.

Throughout the trial, which opened Dec. 9, Blevens acted as his own defense lawyer. Following summations by both sides, Blevens rose in court to say: "I never betrayed my country. I am an American all the way." He added: "The only advice I can give is to stay away from German women." He said his girl friend "may have been" a Russian spy and may still be one.

'Played Footsie'

In a summation for the prosecution, Capt. James J. Sousa, of Hudson, Mass., called Blevens' actions "a case of betrayal" of his family, friends and country.

"Short of taking a weapon and firing back on American lines," Sousa said, Blevens had done "everything he could to defeat the purposes for which we are here."

He said Blevens "played footsie" with Russians.

Maj. Sumner Brown of Hyde Park, Mass., court-appointed defense counsel, said in a defense summation that Blevens "in a sense, threw himself on the mercy of the court."

Brown argued that Blevens did not intend to desert and that he went to East Germany through a sense of adventure, because he was drunk at the time, and because of a "final breakup" of his third marriage.

Blevens was convicted of deserting to the East last February and again last May, and of breaking out of an Army stockade in between times. He was a member of a food inspection detachment in West Berlin.

Geneva Oil Terminal Operating

GENEVA, Neb. (Lincoln Star Special)—The first oil truck transport was loaded at the new pipeline terminal near Geneva Monday.

Superintendent Robert Wilson of the Kaneb Pipe Line Co. said the terminal is now operating on a limited basis although construction has not been completed. Full-scale operations should begin shortly after the first of the year, he said. The pipeline connects the area with about eight Kansas refineries.

Meanwhile, the State Railway Commission announced Monday tentative approval of a scale of rates for transportation of petroleum products from the Geneva and Superior terminals to points in Nebraska.

The new scale of rates is slightly under rates previously charged from the Superior terminal and from an Omaha terminal, Harry King of the commission's rate department explained.

Retaining Jurisdiction

The commission is retaining jurisdiction in the matter for 90 days to permit observation of the operation of the new scale.

Champlin Refining Co. requested revision of the scale from Superior after the petroleum carriers asked the commission to set up rates for the new terminal at Geneva.

The Geneva terminal when in full operation will have a loading rack equipped to load four trucks simultaneously, Wilson said. Each loading tank has a 30 horsepower motor, he said.

About 20 people will be employed at the terminal, located about two miles north of Geneva on Highway 81.

Survey Set On State Work Insurance Plan

A survey will be made to determine whether or not state employees are interested in participation in a group health and accident insurance plan, Gov. Crosby said Monday.

Employees in some departments already have plans in operation.

The Legislature already has granted authority for deducting the individual's contribution from his paycheck in the same manner as social security and income taxes are taken out.

Insurance Director Tom Pansing, Assistant Director Mayme Stukel and Purchasing Agent Blaine Yoder conducted a study on the basis of which the survey was ordered.

Preheat oven at 275° F. Sift together 1 cup sugar with ¼ teaspoon cream of tartar. Beat whites of 4 large eggs until stiff but not dry. Slowly add sugar, beating until very stiff and glossy peaks form. Beat in ½ teaspoon vanilla. Spread egg white mixture into well-greased 9" pie pan, spreading it over bottom and up sides, just to top of rim—sides should be about 1" thick and bottom about ¼" thick. Sprinkle rim with coconut. Bake at 275° F. about 1 hr. until golden brown and crisp. Cool. Fill with your favorite cream filling or chiffon filling—or use prepared vanilla pudding dessert. Add ¼ teaspoon almond extract and 2 tablespoons butter when removing from heat. Cool, chill slightly and spoon into shell. Chill for 12 hrs. before serving. Top with halves of IGA Ripe 'N-Ragged Elberta Peaches (which have been drained of juice). Serve with whipped cream or ice cream.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at are upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

ONE MAN'S OPINION By Walter Kiernan

(Distributed by International News Service)

Christmas cards have begun to roll in on us like a tidal wave . . . we know they're Christmas cards because they feature dogs, cats, horses, fish, snow scenes, futuristic somethings and doorway draped with holly.

One was a picture of a decorated tree and the message was "Did that crazy twist." . . . I suppose it could be said it was a Christmas card.

But there wa s a time Christmas bore some relation to the birth of Christ and the cards of the season carried out that theme.

No one would think of sending a friend a birthday card with the cryptic message, "Fish at play in the Gulf of Mexico," but you can get one for Christmas.

I'm a little late getting out my cards . . . still torn between a magnificent picture of a horse's head and a fold-up card in which a Santa pops out and the message reads, "There's nothing in my bag for you but good will."

Stocks Unsettled By Red Statement

NEW YORK (AP) — Prices faltered after a good beginning Monday in the stock market and closed soft.

Unsettlement followed announcement that Russia had given qualified approval to President Eisenhower's plan for peaceful use of atomic power.

Many companies closely identified with the development of atomic power for industrial uses were firm in the face of the moderate retreat in most sections of the market.

Steels and railroads were perhaps the most depressed of the major divisions. Motors, oils and utilities were steady. Aircrafts, which were well ahead at first, presented a ragged picture at the close.

The Associated Press average 60 stocks declined 20 cents at $109.30. It was up 30 cents Friday, ending a week that turned in a vigorous advance.

The industrial component of the average Monday was off 10 cents, railroads declined 70 cents, and utilities remained unchanged.

Volume built up to 1,690,000 shares, the best part added during times of rising prices. Friday's total was 1,550,000 shares.

The American Stock Exchange was irregular. Trading amounted to 520,000 shares as compared with 420,000 shares traded Friday.

Lard Spurts Up; Corn, Oats Drop

CHICAGO (AP) — A spurt in December lard and a drop in December corn and oats featured dealings on the Board of Trade Monday as all December contracts were closed out.

Dealings were rather slow most of the day, although enlivened a bit toward the finish. Soybeans had a firm trend and wheat came up in the last hour, reducing or cancelling earlier losses, but corn and oats ended weak. Corn had been firm early.

Wheat closed ⅛ lower to 1⅛ higher, corn 1-2¼ lower, oats ⅛-⅜ lower, rye ⅛-1¼ lower, soybeans unchanged to 1 cent higher and lard 5 to 85 cents a hundred pounds higher.

Most interest centered on the action of December contracts. The outstanding feature was the strength of lard, although a break in oats at the finish also attracted attention. Lard's strength reflected the very low stocks of this commodity at Chicago. All contracts still open must be settled by delivery of the actual commodity.

Soybeans and corn firmed in early dealings, both being aided by light cash grain receipts. Soybeans also were helped by small sales over the week end to Formosa and Holland. The Farmers Grain Dealers Association of Des Moines, Ia., said, "In the past few days we find offerings of soybeans have been completely withdrawn and we suspect that few beans will be offered until after the turn of the year."

A weather bureau forecast of much lower temperatures in a major part of the winter belt failed to stimulate much demand for the bread cereal.

The Agriculture Department announced a plan to sell corn and wheat to feed mixers for drought relief purposes. The price will be $1.00 for corn and $1.10 for wheat, the same price at which the government has been selling these grains to livestock producers in the drought areas.

BOND MARKET

NEW YORK (AP)— U. S. government bonds held firm while the corporate bond market worked irregularly lower Monday.

The Treasury's 30-year 3¼'s climbed 2-32 at 105 4-32 bid, a new peak.

A group of railroads and utilities tilted the corporate list downward in late trading. During most of the session, selective dealings produced no market direction and changes were generally limited to minor fractions.

However, volume picked up late in the day as minus signs began to overshadow the pluses. Sales on the "Big Board" totaled $3,340,000 par value against $3,115,000 Friday and $3,850,000 a week ago.

Industrials tended to hold their ground or improve slightly. But bonds of the American Tobacco Co. were exceptions. Some dealers said drooping cigarette sales caused the company's 3¼'s to lose a point at 98½. The 3s of 1969 were off 1⅝ at 96¼.

City Ordinance Increasing Gas Rate Delayed

The ordinance for a 16 per cent increase in retail firm gas rates has been postponed another week by the City Council and a meeting of the Council's power committee scheduled for Tuesday morning to review additional information submitted by Central Electric and Gas Co. in support of the requested increase.

Company officials will not attend the Tuesday meeting but may be called in for another meeting later in the week. When first requested, the company asked that the increase be made effective Dec. 27, the effective date of Central's requested wholesale rate from Northern Natural Gas Co. of Omaha.

Two major items of discussion now are the rate of return the company should make on its investment and how Central would refund money to customers in event Northern's increases of the past year are denied or cut down by the Federal Power Commission.

Northern places its increases in effect under bond until decided by the FPC. The difference, if any, between the rate in effect under bond and the rate approved by the FPC must be refunded to the retailer.

Stocks Unsettled By Red Statement

NEW YORK (AP) — Prices faltered after a good beginning Monday in the stock market and closed soft.

Unsettlement followed announcement that Russia had given qualified approval to President Eisenhower's plan for peaceful use of atomic power.

Many companies closely identified with the development of atomic power for industrial uses were firm in the face of the moderate retreat in most sections of the market.

Steels and railroads were perhaps the most depressed of the major divisions. Motors, oils and utilities were steady. Aircrafts, which were well ahead at first, presented a ragged picture at the close.

The Associated Press average 60 stocks declined 20 cents at $109.30. It was up 30 cents Friday, ending a week that turned in a vigorous advance.

The industrial component of the average Monday was off 10 cents, railroads declined 70 cents, and utilities remained unchanged.

Volume built up to 1,690,000 shares, the best part added during times of rising prices. Friday's total was 1,550,000 shares.

The American Stock Exchange was irregular. Trading amounted to 520,000 shares as compared with 420,000 shares traded Friday.

Paving Delay Credited To Funds Lack

Streets involved in the paving are A, 56th to 58th; Sumner, 53rd to Park Manor; Sunset Rd., Circle Dr. north to Circle Dr. south; 58th, A to Sumner and all of Circle Dr. However, paving on A and Sumner is scheduled to be wider than the usual 28 foot width.

This extra width must be paid for by the city rather than abutting property owners but city funds available for this purpose have already been heavily taxed. Another look at the funds, gasoline tax and motor vehicle tax and registration fees, will be taken during the week by the city engineering department to determine if the Park Manor work can be done.

The following ordinances were approved on third reading:

Water district from 56th to 58th and A to Sumner.

Gravelling of 41st, St. Paul to Adams.

Ordinances introduced:

Water district in Ballard, 70th to 72nd. Rules suspended and given first and second readings.

Authorizing the designation of loading and unloading zones in fire hydrant zones.

Prohibiting the possession of alcholic beverages by minors.

Ban Yule Tree Cutting

MEXICO CITY (INS)—Christmas trees are going to be scarce in Mexico this year if forestry officials can help it. The Agriculture ministry has banned the cutting of Yule trees to prevent deforestration of the few wooded areas near centers of population.

Sudden Stop

NEW YORK (AP)—A Los Angeles-bound American Airlines DC-7 was braked to a sudden stop Monday when a fire warning signal sounded during its take-off run.

Sixty passengers and the five-man crew were evacuated as crash trucks poured carbon-dioxide over a smoking engine.

The airline said there were no injuries to either passengers or crewmen of the four-engined plane.

The passengers took off in another plane after a delay of about two hours.

Paving Delay Credited To Funds Lack

A shortage of money has resulted in the delay by the City Council of an ordinance creating a paving distriet in Park Manor addition.

Streets involved in the paving are A, 56th to 58th; Sumner, 53rd to Park Manor; Sunset Rd., Circle Dr. north to Circle Dr. south; 58th, A to Sumner and all of Circle Dr. However, paving on A and Sumner is scheduled to be wider than the usual 28 foot width.

This extra width must be paid for by the city rather than abutting property owners but city funds available for this purpose have already been heavily taxed. Another look at the funds, gasoline tax and motor vehicle tax and registration fees, will be taken during the week by the city engineering department to determine if the Park Manor work can be done.

The following ordinances were approved on third reading:

Water district from 56th to 58th and A to Sumner.

Graveling of 41st. St. Paul to Adams.

Ordinances introduced:

Water district in Ballard, 70th to 72nd; rules suspended and given first and second readiog.

Authorizing the designation of loading and unloading zones in fire hydrant zones.

Prohibiting the possession of alcholic beverages by minors.

Ban Yule Tree Cutting

MEXICO CITY (INS)—Christmas trees are going to be scarce in Mexico this year if forestry officials can help it. The Agriculture ministry has banned the cutting of Yule trees to prevent deforestration of the few wooded areas near centers of population.

Sudden Stop

NEW YORK (AP)—A Los Angeles-bound American Airlines DC-7 was braked to a sudden stop Monday when a fire warning signal sounded during its take-off run.

Sixty passengers and the five-man crew were evacuated as crash trucks poured carbon-dioxide over a smoking engine.

The airline said there were no injuries to either passengers or crewmen of the four-engined plane.

The passengers took off in another plane after a delay of about two hours.

USED CAR BUYER'S GUIDE
or
How To Find An Oyster With A Pearl In It
LESSON No. 6

Some of the more common physical ailments you should look for in a car are: Pimples (blistered paint), corns (old tires that wear their shoes on the inside), lumbago (weak springs or bad shocks), pigeon-toes or knock-knees, (worn out front suspension and steering) See a doctor if you buy a car with these ailments. See BOB RING if you want to avoid future hospital bills on the car you buy.

USED CAR BUYER'S GUIDE
or
How To Find An Oyster With A Pearl In It
LESSON No. 6
Some of the more common physical ailments you should look for in a car are: Pimples (blistered paint), corns (old tires that wear their shoes on the inside), lumbago (weak springs or bad shocks), pigeon-toes or knock-knees, (worn out front suspension and steering). See a doctor if you buy a car with these ailments. See BOB RING if you want to avoid future hospital bills on the car you buy.

'Alcoholidays' Are Beginning, So Watch Your Step

By ARTHUR EDSON

WASHINGTON (AP)—This is a bleak day for those in the dreary business of studying automobile accident statistics. For it's the start of a two-week period known to the traffic experts as the "Alcoholidays."

The office party, the wassail bowl, the eggnoggery, the New Year's eve whindig—they all help add to a sorry accident record.

Many organizations are trying to make people conscious of the holiday danger, so let's take a look at a few life-saving suggestions:

The American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators is strong for this—if you must take one for the road, make it a cup of coffee.

Host Is Responsible

L. S. Harris, its executive director, goes a step further.

"I think every host is morally obligated to see that his guests are in condition to get home safely," Harris said. "If you're to serve drinks, you must assume this responsibility."

Harris says no studies agree on how much a man can drink and still drive safely, but he says they all agree it's less than most drinkers think.

The office party has become almost an institution in Washington, so much so that George E. Keneipp, District of Columbia traffic director, mails out warnings to 2,500 business leaders each year.

Pedestrian Season

The slogan this year: "Don't crash the Christmas party."

Keneipp suggested anyone planning an office party also should plan ways to take the celebrants home. And he said:

"If anyone doubts the truth of the equation, 'drinking plus driving equals disaster,' I invite them to come down to my department and look at the records."

The American Automobile Association has a slightly different pitch.

It has been trying to cut down on the number of pedestrian deaths each year. Statistically, December is open season on pedestrians.

White Socks

"Each year we kill 8,600 pedestrians," Claud McCamment of the AAA said. "December is the worst month of all, with 1,100."

McCamment's suggestion:

"If you're still wondering what to get your old Aunt Fanny, how about a white scarf or a light hat? Either would make a gift for an older man, too. Oh, yes, even white socks.

"Everybody laughs when I say that, but it makes sense. Headlight rays bend so that they reach your feet first. It would give that much more time to avoid an accident."

5 Judges Defend Cornett Refusal

A brief was filed in State Supreme Court Monday in behalf of Omaha's five municipal judges who are resisting a district court mandamus order directing them to permit L.S. Cornett and Verna L. Cornett to operate in the Omaha Municipal Court as professional bondsmen.

The brief says:

"L. S. Cornett was convicted for interfering with the administration of justice, which conviction was upheld by this court and which offense arose out of his professional bond business in Omaha."

"After the court, for this and perhaps other good reasons, declared Mr. Cornett unsuitable to be a professional bondsman before the court, then to permit his employee or his wife to engage in the professional bondsman business before the court, would only permit him to do indirectly what he may not do directly," the brief concludes.

Howard Tax Hike Court Okay Asked

The State Supreme Court was asked in a brief filed Monday to uphold assessment increases ordered for Howard County last summer by the State Board of Equalization.

The board did not raise Howard County farm land assessments, but it raised town property 39 per cent; businesses 30 per cent; and household goods 100 per cent.

The brief, prepared by Assistant Attorney General C. M. Sheldon, contends the board acted legally, and denies there is any showing that the valuations fixed by the board do not represent actual value.

Howard County was one of four appealing from Board of Equalization action. The others are Grant, Buffalo and Douglas. The cases are tentatively set for oral argument in February.
